1954 RED CROSS CAMPAIGN — ANSWER THE CALL

VOL. LXXXIII—No. 113 CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 2, 1954. PRICE FIVE CENTS

Like a Lion

A Cleveland motorist digs out his vehicle after March roared in like a lion and buried the city under more than 15 inches of snow. The worst of the winter, the storm slowed traffic on main avenues and made smaller side streets almost impassable. Snow was also reported to have fallen as far south as Knoxville, Tenn. (NEA Telephoto)

Details Are Sought on Risk Firing

Young Sends Report to Congress; Called to Testify on Matters Before Group

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Democratic senators served notice they want from Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission today more details about government "security risk" firings on which he released last night a long-sought breakdown.

Young sent to Congress a report stating that out of 1,782 security separations by the Eisenhower administration between May 28 and Dec. 31 of last year, 355 involved persons with subversive information in their files.

The Civil Service head was called to testify today at a public session of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee. Its Democratic members have demanded an investigation of what they contend is misleading information put out by some Republicans about the employes involved.

2,200 in Year

President Eisenhower has said his administration got rid of 2,200 security risks in its first year in office.

Young said yesterday his 1,782 total did not include 442 separations in the Defense Department on which details would be submitted later. That apparently accounted for the discrepancy between his figures and the President's.

The report furnished yesterday listed 2,008 cases outside the Defense Department, but some persons fell into more than one category, as for instance a loose talker also found to be a heavy drinker. Only 1,782 individuals were involved.

The breakdown on the 2,008 separations was: Information of a subversive nature 355; sex perverts, 190; felonies or misdemeanors, 504; other unspecified causes, 959.

The separations included 983 persons fired and 1,241 who resigned including the 211 dismissals and 231 resignations in the Defense Department. The report did not indicate whether some of these employes got jobs in other agencies.

Interior Leads

The Interior Department led the list with 72 "subversive information" cases, followed by the Veterans Administration with 45, State Department 43 and Justice Department 41. One security separation was listed for the White House, but the report put it in neither the subversive nor perversion category.

Young's figures did not include the total number of employes working in the agencies covered.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D.-S.C.), senior Democrat on the Senate Committee, said before the hearings he had a lot of questions for Young, and that if the answers were not satisfactory, he would press for a Senate inquiry.

The South Carolinian said in an interview he did not think Young's information so far was very enlightening.

"I want him to tell me if any of these people are Communists," the senator said. "If they are, I want to know if the administration has issued any warrants for them."

Johnston said any person who took a government job and concealed that he was a Communist could be prosecuted. But he said he knew of no such cases brought by the Eisenhower administration.

Democratic senators said these were among other points they wanted cleared up:

1. How Young's breakdown tallies with testimony by department officials before the House Appropriations committee this year. On the surface, there appeared to be sizable variations.

2. Whether many of the separations were initiated under the previous Democratic administration.

3. Whether some of the separated employes were considered such negligible risks that they were hired by other agencies.

Lynch Tells About Race Mushroom

Former City Treasurer Tells of $600,000 He Built Up From Fund of $12,000

New York, March 2 (AP)—A former New York city treasurer told today how he ran $12,000 into $600,000 in seven years with his idea to convert the old Empire City Track at Yonkers to harness racing.

Arthur A. Lynch related to a Moreland Act Commission probing the state's quarter billion dollar trotting industry how he did it:

He got the idea of converting the track in 1946 or 1947, commenting he thought it has been proven his "judgment was good." As a result of his idea a company was formed to buy the track.

He bought a 2½ per cent interest in Algam Corp., owners of the Yonkers plant, in 1949 paying $37,500. Of this, Lynch used $12,000 of his own money, and borrowed the remainder.

He got $50,000 as a "finder's fee" in the deal, another $52,000 as acting general manager for Algam in 1951 and presently is paid $25,000 a year by Algam. He is an Algam vice president.

Buys More Shares

In 1952 he bought more shares, making him one of the biggest Algam stockholders. In all, his present stock interest and his salary and fee from Algam added up to about $600,000.

Lynch told the commission how he got the idea for the trotting track:

"The track was not too far from where I lived at the time. I passed it quite frequently. I was a trotter fan. I enjoyed it and thought it might be a good idea to investigate the possibility of starting a trotting track at Empire City."

Lynch was deputy city treasurer from 1941 to 1943 under the late Mayor Fiorello La Guardia, and from 1945 to 1950 under former Mayor William O'Dwyer.

Got Idea in Office

It was in 1946 or 1947 while he was a city officer he got the trotting tract idea, he said.

Lynch now is vice president of Algam Corp., which owns the Yonkers Raceway plant. The raceway is operated by the Yonkers Trotting Assn., on lease from Algam.

Lynch traced the development of this idea at the second day of the commission's public hearings.

The commission yesterday heard testimony that politicians and persons with underworld links secretly owned thousands of dollars worth of stock in tracks.

Lynch said he spoke to several persons seeking financing for the track, but was turned down because it would be "too hazardous."

He finally approached Nathan E. Herzfeld, who now is Algam general manager. Lynch said Herzfeld was the only person he brought directly into the proposition.

Buys in Algam

The former city official said he eventually took a two and one-half per cent interest in Algam, paying $37,500 for 10,000 shares of Class A a non-voting stock, 1,250 shares of Class B voting stock and $25,000 in bonds.

The commission yesterday opened a series of hearings expected to last 10 days as a climax of its months-long probe of harness track scandals.

Ringleaders of Shooting View Acts as Intended to Help Their Country Gain Freedom

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R.-Mich.) most seriously wounded among five congressmen shot down by fanatical gunners in the House chamber, showed some gains early today. In jail a few blocks away, the leaders of the Puerto Rican pistol wielders insisted they were not sorry for the unprecedented outbreak in the Capitol yesterday afternoon.

Lolita Lebron, who claimed the ringleader's role in a jail interview, summed up "I do what I must for my country."

And Rafael Concel Miranda declared: "We don't talk about the little things."

Both had more to say about Puerto Rican independence than about the wild shooting that disrupted proceedings in the House.

Along with two other Puerto Rican men—Andres F. Cordeo and Irving Flores—they were held in bail of $100,000 each on charges of assault with intent to kill.

Possible Penalties

They face possible penalties of up to 15 years in the case of each wounded congressman, or a possible total of 75 years each—if all the wounded survive. The charge would become murder — punishable by death in the electric chair — if one should die as a result of their wild outburst.

In addition to Bentley, the wounded are Reps. Kenneth A. Roberts (D.-Ala.), shot in the knee; Ben F. Jensen (R.-Iowa), wounded in the left shoulder; Clifford David (D.-Tenn.), shot in the right leg, and George H. Fallon, (D.-Md.) hit in the hip.

Roberts also underwent surgery, but it was of exploratory nature. His physician reported that fears of nerve damage proved unfounded.

Bentley was struck in the upper right chest by a bullet which traveled through the lung, diaphragm, liver and stomach and came out his left side.

After a 1½ hour operation yesterday the first-term multi-millionaire representative from Michigan was given only a 50-50 chance for life.

"He is now in the hands of the Lord," said the surgeon, Dr. Charles Stanley White, after the operation.

Improvement Noted

Slain Man Held In '52 as Hijacker

Anthony Carputo Arrested With Benny Benson on Charges

Anthony Caputo, 39, of Brooklyn, one of three men shot through the head in New York Sunday, by record appears to be the same person who was arrested in January, 1952 with one Benny Benson, 42, also of Brooklyn, for an alleged hijacking operation which the FBI then said spread from Brooklyn, through New Jersey and up to Kingston.

It was reported today by the present special agent in charge of the New York office of the FBI, James J. Kelly, that Caputo never was convicted of the hijacking charges.

Caputo, described by the Associated Press yesterday as a fruit peddler, was found sprawled in the front seat of his automobile in Brooklyn, some 20 minutes after Joseph Bonilla, 35, an alleged policy game runner was found slumped over the wheel of his automobile at 8:30 a. m., Sunday, and at 10:30 a. m., Sunday a stroller found the body of Herman Rose, 31, in a vacant lot in Queens.

Was Alcohol Runner

The AP said yesterday that Caputo was a convicted runner of illegal alcohol, and had a record of seven other arrests since 1934 on various charges, most of which were dismissed. He was once questioned in the hijacking of $52,000 worth of textile goods in 1952, it said.

However, if this is the same Anthony Caputo, who was then listed as 26 years old, his address then was given as 537 Grand avenue, Brooklyn, and an FBI release of Jan. 9, 1952 said that with the arrest of Benson and Caputo the FBI "cracked a hijacking operation," which spread from Brooklyn to this area.

The release said: "According to Edward Scheidt, special agent in charge of the New York city FBI office, during the weekend of Dec. 29, 1951, a load of merchandise valued at $52,000, destined from various textile mills in Alabama to various consignees in New York and the New England areas, was stolen from Jack Cole, Inc., Trucking Co., of 43rd avenue, Long Island City, N. Y."

Operation Well Planned

Scheidt said the "operation was so well planned" that on the same date a tractor of the Gilbert Carrier Corp., of New York city was stolen in front of a service station at 127-51 Northern Boulevard, Queens, and this tractor was used to haul the trailer of Jack Cole, Inc. The tractor was stolen after a window was broken and the wires crossed.

The tractor and trailer were recovered subsequently in New York with about $32,000 worth of the cargo intact. The rest was placed in a truck "belonging to Anthony Caputo, and was then driven under cover of darkness

Ohio River Valley Still Feels Paralyzing Effects; 344 Circuits Out

(By The Associated Press)

A March cold wave knifed into the Great Plains today as the Ohio river valley states dug out from a paralyzing snowstorm that took at least 13 lives.

The Arctic air, flowing down from northern Alberta, sent the mercury skidding to sub-zero levels in the northern plains and along the eastern slopes of the Rockies. The entire midwest was expected to feel the sting of the wintry onslaught.

Many schools still were closed and highway travel was impeded today after a heavy snowstorm that piled a deep blanket over northern Ohio, eastern Kentucky and eastern Tennessee.

Cleveland had 15 inches of snow on the ground and London, Ky., reported 17¾ inches. Up to a foot fell in montainous upper east Tennessee.

Long Distance Out

The telephone company reported 344 long distance circuits were out east of Knoxville, Tenn., with little prospect repairs could be made before tomorrow.

Eleven deaths were attributed to the storm in Cleveland, one in Toledo and one in Friendsville, Tenn.

The storm center moved northward into Canada and only snow flurries continued today.

Some snow accompanied the southward sweep of cold into Wyoming and Colorado but brought little prospect for relief in the dust-plagued southeastern Colorado dust belt. Farmers said strong winds would nullify the effects of the precipitation.

Denver and Cody, Wyo., reported four inches of snow but Lamar in the heart of the Colorado dust belt had only a trace.

The temperature dipped to a —4 degrees in Glasgow, Mont., and subzero readings were forecast in cold wave warnings for the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Leaves $2 So Wife Can Buy Rope for Hanging

New York, March 2 (AP) — A Brooklyn man's will filed for probate in Surrogate's Court yesterday showed a single bequest to the wife—two dollars "for a good rope to hang herself."

The will, drawn up seven years ago by Stefan Wojtczak, said he made the proviso "for all the misery she has caused me during my lifetime."

He also instructed the executor, his son Andrew, to make sure that his wife, Caroline, was not buried in the same grave.

The estate, assessed at in excess of $5,000, was willed equally to two sons and two daughters.

Six Navy Men Die In 'Copters' Crash

Ground-Breaking Project Starts at Filter Plant; 5,600 Feet Long

Work began this morning to replace 5,600 feet of 18-inch, lightweight pipe with 20-inch pipe between the filter plant at Zena and Jockey Hill road in the town of Kingston.

Present at the ground breaking near the filter plant were Joseph Beckerle, president of Beckerle-Brown, Inc., of Pearl River, contractors for the job; Mayor Frederick H. Stang; Benjamin Schecter, president of the Kingston Board of Water Commissioners; Edmund T. Cloonan, superintendent of the Kingston Water Department; Clinton L. Bogert, consulting engineer to the water department, and Edwin Wetterhahn, assistant secretary of the water department.

To Improve System

This project is part of a general program to improve the municipal water system at a cost of more than a half million dollars.

Enlarging a mile of pipeline beginning at the filter plant will enable the water system to be safely operated at the higher pressure required for delivery of greater quantities of water to the city during peak rates of demand or, more specifically, during the hot summer months.

Cloonan said today there had been some initial delay in getting materials but they were now being received on schedule. The job will be completed "as quickly as possible" he said—probably in late April or May.

Action Commenced

Beckerle-Brown, Inc., was second low bidder on the project. A low bid of $98,376.50 was submitted by the S & S Construction Company of South Fallsburg, $491.30 lower than Beckerle-Brown, Inc.

An action was commenced by the S & S company to have the contract awarded to the second high bidder set aside and their bid accepted but Justice Isadore Bookstein held that the Kingston Water Board acted in good faith and was legally justified in awarding the contract to the second low bidder.

In his opinion Justice Bookstein said the board had a right to award the contract to the "lowest responsible bidder."

Arrest Ledge Walker

City police picked up a man on East Strand late this morning on a charge of public intoxication after receiving a call that he was climbing around the ledges of the three-story Cashin building at the intersection of East Strand and Hasbrouck avenue. He was arrested by Officers Leonard Ellsworth, George Dohnken and Anthony Turck.

Two Craft Collide at Key West in Training; 3 on Each

Key West, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Six navy men died today in the flaming crash of two helicopters a mile from downtown Key West.

The helicopters collieded 100 feet off the ground seconds after taking off on a training exercise.

Navy officials said they were flying in formation and as they turned to cross Fleming Key, about a mile from the seaplane base, one helicopter slid into the other.

Both plunged to the bleak coral key and burst into flames.

Anti-Sub Squadron

The six men were members of Helicopter Anti-Submarine Squadron No. 1, formed two years ago, and the navy said this was the first patrol accident here.

The planes were made by Sikorsky and known as the HO4S type. They are sometimes used by marines to carry troops but were converted here for anti-submarine use.

The navy said the helicopters took off at 8:33 a. m. (EST) and collided at 8:34 a. m.

The wreckage was a mass of flames by the time rescue workers reached the scene.

The navy said each helicopter carried about 200 gallons of high-octane gasoline.

The last major plane accident in this area occurred April 25, 1951, when a Cuban DC-4 and a navy plane collided, killing 43 persons.

Hartford Man Held For Threatening Life of President

Federal Grand Jury Gets Puerto Rican's Case —Held in Bonds of $15,000

Hartford, Conn., March 2 (AP)—A Hartford Puerto Rican is charged with threatening to kill President Eisenhower.

Pedro S. Orozco, 24, was arrested yesterday at about the same time a group of Puerto Ricans in the balcony of the House of Representatives at Washington sprayed shots onto the crowded House floor, wounding five congressmen. His case goes before a federal grand jury today.

Orozco was arrested on a charge of non-support while he was testifying against his estranged wife on a charge of breach of the peace. He was taken to police headquarters for fingerprinting.

Det. Capt. Joseph P. McDonald quoted Policeman Otto H. Felle as saying Orozco threatened to "kill the President" while he was being fingerprinted.

Heavy Guard Is Established At Puerto Rican Sections

New York, March 2 (AP)—Heavy detective reinforcements have been assigned to Puerto Rican sections of New York in the wake of yesterday's shooting in Congress.

Police acted to guard any possible disorders and to help FBI agents working on the case. No disturbances were reported.

The four persons arrested in Washington in the shooting of five congressmen are all from New York, and authorities figured the plot was hatched here.

Friends and relatives of the four prisoners were questioned by the FBI and New York police. Literature and stationery of the Puerto Rican Nationalist party were seized in the homes of two of the four.

There were no arrests here.

The heaviest concentration of detectives, to reinforce normal police details, was at the East 104th street station in the heart of the main Manhattan Puerto Rican district. Some 24 extra detectives were sent to this precinct. Other station houses got smaller, but still heavy, details of extra officers.

Four patrolmen and a sergeant were assigned to Guard Gracie Mansion, the official residence of Mayor Robert F. Wagner. It is usually watched by a single patrolman.

City Hall also was given special guards, with the usual uniformed detail of two men boosted to five men and a sergeant. Five detectives also were assigned there, and more were ordered to be on hand today.

FBI agents declined to comment on their activities.

A similar flurry of police and federal activity here in November, 1950, after an attempt on the life of former President Truman, resulted in the arrest of 13 persons by the secret service.

Some of these, alleged Puerto Rican Nationalists, later were accused as accomplices but were acquitted.

One of those picked up here in 1950 was Rosa Collazo, wife of Oscar Collazo, who is now serving a life term in the killing of a White House policeman during the attempt on Truman's life.

Mrs. Collazo and Lolita Lebron, 34, arrested in Washington yesterday as the leader of the Congress

Maxwell Appointed To New Railroad Post

New York, March 2 (AP)—Gregory W. Maxwell has been appointed to the newly-created post of general superintendent of the New York District of the New York Central Railroad.

Maxwell, whose appointment was announced yesterday, will assume his new job June 1 in New York.

He was superintendent at Buffalo and has been succeeded there by Harry D. Johnston. Maxwell now is attending the advanced management program school at Harvard University.

Central Hudson Dedicates New Plant; Uses Reservoir Waters to Generate Power

Grahamsville, March 2—A new hydroelectric plant, the first in the state's history to use a part of New York's future drinking water for the generation of electric power, was dedicated here today by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp.

The Neversink Hydroelectric Plant, developed by Central Hudson at a cost of $3,860,000. stands in a field with no water in sight. The plant gets its daily supply of 105,000,000 gallons of water from a New York reservoir almost five miles away. Carried by a tunnel under a mountain, the water generates 25,000 kilowatts of electric power—enough electricity to supply the needs of a community of 40,000 people, before continuing on its way to help slake the thirst of New York's 8,000,000 residents.

Central Hudson President Ernest R. Acker, in his dedication remarks, referred to the development of the plant on the New York water supply system as representing "the highest type of cooperation between government and business in the interest of the people whom they serve." He pointed out that the cooperative relationship between Central Hudson and the New York City Board of Water Supply dated back to 1909, the year that construction of the aqueduct system in the Catskills was started.

Acker noted that "the company has provided electric power for practically all the construction work at the Neversink and Merriman dams, the Delaware aqueduct, the Neversink tunnel and the South Portal of the East Delaware tunnel in Sullivan, Ulster, Orange and Dutchess counties."

The dedication ceremonies today were attended by members of the New York City Board of Water Supply, area newspaper and radio representatives, metropolitan and national press people, representatives of consulting engineers, manufacturers and contractors, and officials of Central Hudson.

The Neversink Hydroelectric Plant, which was dedicated today, is located at the outlet of a tunnel connecting two New York city reservoirs in the heart of the upstate Delaware watershed. The tunnel, 10 feet in diameter and concrete-lined, connects the Neversink and Rondout Reservoirs. Because of the difference in elevation between the Neversink Reservoir and the electric power plant, the water drops almost 600 feet, or two and a half times the drop of Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Peress Is Shouted Down At Parent-Teacher Session

New York, March 2 (AP)—The wife of a Queens dentist under fire from Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) was shouted down at a Parent-Teacher Assn. meeting yesterday as she defended her record as an officer.

The meeting discussed whether Mrs. Elaine Peress should continue on the organization's executive board and in the post of editor on the P-TA newspaper at the school.

Mrs. Peress's husband, Irving, recently was called a "Fifth Amendment Communist" by McCarthy. Peress' honorable discharge from the army led to the current controversy between McCarthy and Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens.

About 200 persons attended the regularly scheduled P-TA meeting yesterday at Public School 49 in Queens. The Peress' children are enrolled at the school.

The meeting was adjourned by the school principal when it got so out of hand that the behavior of some of the parents was disturbing the children in class. The action of the principal, Mrs. Anna R. Bigall, came before any decision had been reached.

When the meeting ended, Mrs. Peress was escorted home by policemen who had attended.

Mrs. Sylvia Katzman, first vice president of the association, reported that the P-TA board of directors had cast a vote of confidence for Mrs. Peress. They said they had found nothing un-American in her writings in the paper.

And Rafael Concel Miranda declared: "We don't talk about the little things."

Both had more to say about Puerto Rican independence than about the wild shooting that disrupted proceedings in the House.

Along with two other Puerto Rican men—Andres F. Cordeo and Irving Flores—they were held in bail of $100,000 each on charges of assault with intent to kill.

Possible Penalties

They face possible penalties of up to 15 years in the case of each wounded congressman, or a possible total of 75 years each—if all the wounded survive. The charge would become murder — punishable by death in the electric chair — if one should die as a result of their wild outburst.

In addition to Bentley, the wounded are Reps. Kenneth A. Roberts (D.-Ala.), shot in the knee; Ben F. Jensen (R.-Iowa), wounded in the left shoulder; Clifford David (D.-Tenn.), shot in the right leg, and George H. Fallon, (D.-Md.) hit in the hip.

Roberts also underwent surgery, but it was of exploratory nature. His physician reported that fears of nerve damage proved unfounded.

Bentley was struck in the upper right chest by a bullet which traveled through the lung, diaphragm, liver and stomach and came out his left side.

After a 1½ hour operation yesterday the first-term multi-millionaire representative from Michigan was given only a 50-50 chance for life.

"He is now in the hands of the Lord," said the surgeon, Dr. Charles Stanley White, after the operation.

Improvement Noted

Anthony Carputo Arrested With Benny Benson on Charges

Anthony Caputo, 39, of Brooklyn, one of three men shot through the head in New York Sunday, by record appears to be the same person who was arrested in January, 1952 with one Benny Benson, 42, also of Brooklyn, for an alleged hijacking operation which the FBI then said spread from Brooklyn, through New Jersey and up to Kingston.

It was reported today by the present special agent in charge of the New York office of the FBI, James J. Kelly, that Caputo never was convicted of the hijacking charges.

Caputo, described by the Associated Press yesterday as a fruit peddler, was found sprawled in the front seat of his automobile in Brooklyn, some 20 minutes after Joseph Bonilla, 35, an alleged policy game runner was found slumped over the wheel of his automobile at 8:30 a. m., Sunday, and at 10:30 a. m., Sunday a stroller found the body of Herman Rose, 31, in a vacant lot in Queens.

Was Alcohol Runner

The AP said yesterday that Caputo was a convicted runner of illegal alcohol, and had a record of seven other arrests since 1934 on various charges, most of which were dismissed. He was once questioned in the hijacking of $52,000 worth of textile goods in 1952, it said.

However, if this is the same Anthony Caputo, who was then listed as 26 years old, his address then was given as 537 Grand avenue, Brooklyn, and an FBI release of Jan. 9, 1952 said that with the arrest of Benson and Caputo the FBI "cracked a hijacking operation," which spread from Brooklyn to this area.

The release said: "According to Edward Scheidt, special agent in charge of the New York city FBI office, during the weekend of Dec. 29, 1951, a load of merchandise valued at $52,000, destined from various textile mills in Alabama to various consignees in New York and the New England areas, was stolen from Jack Cole, Inc., Trucking Co., of 43rd avenue, Long Island City, N. Y."

Operation Well Planned

Scheidt said the 'operation was so well planned" that on the same date a tractor of the Gilbert Carrier Corp., of New York city was stolen in front of a service station at 127-51 Northern Boulevard, Queens, and this tractor was used to haul the trailer of Jack Cole, Inc. The tractor was stolen after a window was broken and the wires crossed.

The tractor and trailer were recovered subsequently in New York with about $32,000 worth of the cargo intact. The rest was placed in a truck "belonging to Anthony Caputo, and was then driven under cover of darkness

Ohio River Valley Still Feels Paralyzing Effects; 344 Circuits Out

(By The Associated Press)

A March cold wave knifed into the Great Plains today as the Ohio river valley states dug out from a paralyzing snowstorm that took at least 13 lives.

The Arctic air, flowing down from northern Alberta, sent the mercury skidding to sub-zero levels in the northern plains and along the eastern slopes of the Rockies. The entire midwest was expected to feel the sting of the wintry onslaught.

Many schools still were closed and highway travel was impeded today after a heavy snowstorm that piled a deep blanket over northern Ohio, eastern Kentucky and eastern Tennessee.

Cleveland had 15 inches of snow on the ground and London, Ky., reported 17¾ inches. Up to a foot fell in montainous upper east Tennessee.

Long Distance Out

The telephone company reported 344 long distance circuits were out east of Knoxville, Tenn., with little prospect repairs could be made before tomorrow.

Eleven deaths were attributed to the storm in Cleveland, one in Toledo and one in Friendsville, Tenn.

The storm center moved northward into Canada and only snow flurries continued today.

Some snow accompanied the southward sweep of cold into Wyoming and Colorado but brought little prospect for relief in the dust-plagued southeastern Colorado dust belt. Farmers said strong winds would nullify the effects of the precipitation.

Denver and Cody, Wyo., reported four inches of snow but Lamar in the heart of the Colorado dust belt had only a trace.

The temperature dipped to a —4 degrees in Glasgow, Mont., and subzero readings were forecast in cold wave warnings for the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Leaves $2 So Wife Can Buy Rope for Hanging

New York, March 2 (AP) — A Brooklyn man's will filed for probate in Surrogate's Court yesterday showed a single bequest to the wife—two dollars "for a good rope to hang herself."

The will, drawn up seven years ago by Stefan Wojtczak, said he made the proviso "for all the misery she has caused me during my lifetime."

He also instructed the executor, his son Andrew, to make sure that his wife, Caroline, was not buried in the same grave.

The estate, assessed at in excess of $5,000, was willed equally to two sons and two daughters.

Maxwell Appointed To New Railroad Post

New York, March 2 (AP)—Gregory W. Maxwell has been appointed to the newly-created post of general superintendent of the New York District of the New York Central Railroad.

Maxwell, whose appointment was announced yesterday, will assume his new job June 1 in New York.

He was superintendent at Buffalo and has been succeeded there by Harry D. Johnston. Maxwell now is attending the advanced management program school at Harvard University.

Six Navy Men Die In 'Copters' Crash

Ground-Breaking Project Starts at Filter Plant; 5,600 Feet Long

Work began this morning to replace 5,600 feet of 18-inch, lightweight pipe with 20-inch pipe between the filter plant at Zena and Jockey Hill road in the town of Kingston.

Present at the ground breaking near the filter plant were Joseph Beckerle, president of Beckerle-Brown, Inc., of Pearl River, contractors for the job; Mayor Frederick H. Stang; Benjamin Schecter, president of the Kingston Board of Water Commissioners; Edmund T. Cloonan, superintendent of the Kingston Water Department; Clinton L. Bogert, consulting engineer to the water department, and Edwin Wetterhahn, assistant secretary of the water department.

To Improve System

This project is part of a general program to improve the municipal water system at a cost of more than a half million dollars.

Enlarging a mile of pipeline beginning at the filter plant will enable the water system to be safely operated at the higher pressure required for delivery of greater quantities of water to the city during peak rates of demand or, more specifically, during the hot summer months.

Cloonan said today there had been some initial delay in getting materials but they were now being received on schedule. The job will be completed "as quickly as possible" he said—probably in late April or May.

Action Commenced

Beckerle-Brown, Inc., was second low bidder on the project. A low bid of $98,376.50 was submitted by the S & S Construction Company of South Fallsburg, $491.30 lower than Beckerle-Brown, Inc.

An action was commenced by the S & S company to have the contract awarded to the second high bidder set aside and their bid accepted but Justice Isadore Bookstein held that the Kingston Water Board acted in good faith and was legally justified in awarding the contract to the second low bidder.

In his opinion Justice Bookstein said the board had a right to award the contract to the "lowest responsible bidder."

Two Craft Collide at Key West in Training; 3 on Each

Key West, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Six navy men died today in the flaming crash of two helicopters a mile from downtown Key West.

The helicopters collieded 100 feet off the ground seconds after taking off on a training exercise.

Navy officials said they were flying in formation and as they turned to cross Fleming Key, about a mile from the seaplane base, one helicopter slid into the other.

Both plunged to the bleak coral key and burst into flames.

Anti-Sub Squadron

The six men were members of Helicopter Anti-Submarine Squadron No. 1, formed two years ago, and the navy said this was the first patrol accident here.

The planes were made by Sikorsky and known as the HO4S type. They are sometimes used by marines to carry troops but were converted here for anti-submarine use.

The navy said the helicopters took off at 8:33 a. m. (EST) and collided at 8:34 a. m.

The wreckage was a mass of flames by the time rescue workers reached the scene.

The navy said each helicopter carried about 200 gallons of high-octane gasoline.

Hartford Man Held For Threatening Life of President

Federal Grand Jury Gets Puerto Rican's Case —Held in Bonds of $15,000

Hartford, Conn., March 2 (AP)—A Hartford Puerto Rican is charged with threatening to kill President Eisenhower.

Pedro S. Orozco, 24, was arrested yesterday at about the same time a group of Puerto Ricans in the balcony of the House of Representatives at Washington sprayed shots onto the crowded House floor, wounding five congressmen. His case goes before a federal grand jury today.

Orozco was arrested on a charge of non-support while he was testifying against his estranged wife on a charge of breach of the peace. He was taken to police headquarters for fingerprinting.

Det. Capt. Joseph P. McDonald quoted Policeman Otto H. Felie as saying Orozco threatened to "kill the President" while he was being fingerprinted.

Heavy Guard Is Established At Puerto Rican Sections

New York, March 2 (AP)—Heavy detective reinforcements have been assigned to Puerto Rican sections of New York in the wake of yesterday's shooting in Congress.

Police acted to guard any possible disorders and to help FBI agents working on the case. No disturbances were reported.

The four persons arrested in Washington in the shooting of five congressmen are all from New York, and authorities figured the plot was hatched here.

Friends and relatives of the four prisoners were questioned by the FBI and New York police. Literature and stationery of the Puerto Rican Nationalist party were seized in the homes of two of the four.

There were no arrests here.

The heaviest concentration of detectives, to reinforce normal police details, was at the East 104th street station in the heart of the main Manhattan Puerto Rican district. Some 24 extra detectives were sent to this precinct. Other station houses got smaller, but still heavy, details of extra officers.

Four patrolmen and a sergeant were assigned to Guard Gracie Mansion, the official residence of Mayor Robert F. Wagner. It is usually watched by a single patrolman.

City Hall also was given special guards, with the usual uniformed detail of two men boosted to five men and a sergeant. Five detectives also were assigned there, and more were ordered to be on hand today.

FBI agents declined to comment on their activities.

A similar flurry of police and federal activity here in November, 1950, after an attempt on the life of former President Truman, resulted in the arrest of 13 persons by the secret service.

Some of these, alleged Puerto Rican Nationalists, later were accused as accomplices but were acquitted.

Central Hudson Dedicates New Plant; Uses Reservoir Waters to Generate Power

Grahamsville, March 2—A new hydroelectric plant, the first in the state's history to use a part of New York's future drinking water for the generation of electric power, was dedicated here today by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp.

The Neversink Hydroelectric Plant, developed by Central Hudson at a cost of $3,860,000. stands in a field with no water in sight. The plant gets its daily supply of 105,000,000 gallons of water from a New York reservoir almost five miles away. Carried by a tunnel under a mountain, the water generates 25,000 kilowatts of electric power—enough electricity to supply the needs of a community of 40,000 people, before continuing on its way to help slake the thirst of New York's 8,000,000 residents.

Central Hudson President Ernest R. Acker, in his dedication remarks, referred to the development of the plant on the New York water supply system as representing "the highest type of cooperation between government and business in the interest of the people whom they serve." He pointed out that the cooperative relationship between Central Hudson and the New York City Board of Water Supply dated back to 1909, the year that construction of the aqueduct system in the Catskills was started.

Acker noted that "the company has provided electric power for practically all the construction work at the Neversink and Merriman dams, the Delaware aqueduct, the Neversink tunnel and the South Portal of the East Delaware tunnel in Sullivan, Ulster, Orange and Dutchess counties."

The dedication ceremonies today were attended by members of the New York City Board of Water Supply, area newspaper and radio representatives, metropolitan and national press people, representatives of consulting engineers, manufacturers and contractors, and officials of Central Hudson.

The Neversink Hydroelectric Plant, which was dedicated today, is located at the outlet of a tunnel connecting two New York city reservoirs in the heart of the upstate Delaware watershed. The tunnel, 10 feet in diameter and concrete-lined, connects the Neversink and Rondout Reservoirs. Because of the difference in elevation between the Neversink Reservoir and the electric power plant, the water drops almost 600 feet, or two and a half times the drop of Niagara Falls.

Arrest Ledge Walker

City police picked up a man on East Strand late this morning on a charge of public intoxication after receiving a call that he was climbing around the ledges of the three-story Cashin building at the intersection of East Strand and Hasbrouck avenue. He was arrested by Officers Leonard Ellsworth, George Dohnken and Anthony Turck.

Mrs. Peress Is Shouted Down At Parent-Teacher Session

New York, March 2 (AP)—The wife of a Queens dentist under fire from Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) was shouted down at a Parent-Teacher Assn. meeting yesterday as she defended her record as an officer.

The meeting discussed whether Mrs. Elaine Peress should continue on the organization's executive board and in the post of editor on the P-TA newspaper at the school.

Mrs. Peress's husband, Irving, recently was called a "Fifth Amendment Communist" by McCarthy. Peress' honorable discharge from the army led to the current controversy between McCarthy and Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens.

About 200 persons attended the regularly scheduled P-TA meeting yesterday at Public School 49 in Queens. The Peress' children are enrolled at the school.

The meeting was adjourned by the school principal when it got so out of hand that the behavior of some of the parents was disturbing the children in class. The action of the principal, Mrs. Anna R. Bigall, came before any decision had been reached.

When the meeting ended, Mrs. Peress was escorted home by policemen who had attended.

Mrs. Sylvia Katzman, first vice president of the association, reported that the P-TA board of directors had cast a vote of confidence for Mrs. Peress. They said they had found nothing un-American in her writings in the paper.

Senate Is Set to Double Pay Of Governor to $50,000 Today

Albany, March 2 (AP)—Without a word of debate, the Senate today completed unanimous legislative approval of resolutions doubling the salary of the governor at $50,000 and that of the lieutenant governor to $20,000, effective next Jan. 1.

The increases, authorized by the voters through constitutional amendment last November, will make the New York state chief executive the highest paid governor and the best paid public servant in the United States except for the President, who gets a base salary of $100,000.

The Senate, like the Assembly last night, approved the resolutions without a dissenting vote. Gov. Dewey's signature is not necessary to put the increase in effect.

The governor now gets $25,000 and the lieutenant governor $10,000 a year.

May Be Inducement

Some sources believe the raise will be an inducement to Gov. Dewey to seek re-election. Others think it will have no bearing on his decision, which he is expected to make in the spring.

Other developments at the state capitol:

1. The legislature voted unanimously yesterday to extend until March 12 the life of the special state commission drafting a code of ethics to curb greedy politicians. This led to speculation that the commission was at odds on important points.

2. A joint legislative committee in preparing a report in which it will recommend enactment of the Dewey administration's controversial compulsory automobile insurance bill.

Democrat Objects

3. The Democratic leader of the Senate said he objected to increasing the state tax on gasoline by two cents to finance an expanded state highway construction program.

The special Commission on Ethical Standards and Integrity in Government met yesterday for what was thought would be the final session. Its report, in which its recommendations were to be embodied, was due today.

But Chairman Charles Lockwood of Brooklyn said the commission needed more time, and at his request the Legislature extended the life of the commission for 12 days.

This gave rise to reports that the commission, comprising eight legislators (equally divided politically) and four non-legislators, was at loggerheads on at least one question, perhaps several.

Lockwood said the commission had reached agreement on "a number of matters." He said he hoped "for substantial agreement on the whole program."

The group was scheduled to meet again this afternoon.

Dean Resigns Post As Deputy to Dulles

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Special Ambassador Arthur H. Dean has resigned from his post as deputy to Secretary of State Dulles for the 20-Nation Korean Peace Conference.

The State Department disclosed this today by making public an exchange of letters with acting Secretary Walter B. Smith who praised Dean's negotiations with the Communists in Korea as "a splendid chapter in American diplomatic annals."

George V. Dennis To Address Group

George V. Dennis, scout executive of the Rip Van Winkle Boy Scout Council will address a meeting of the den mothers and fathers of Cub Scout Pack 5 this evening at 7:30 in the board room of the Jewish Community Center.

The pack, which is sponsored by the Jewish Community Center, had its monthly meeting on February 28, at which time a full program was presented by the Cub Scouts for their parents, after which refreshments were served by the den mothers with the den fathers assisting.

Dennis in his meeting tonight, will stress the aims, objectives and program of Cub Scouting. William Zang, chairman of the cub pack committee invites the participation of mothers and fathers of prospective Cub Scouters who are not yet members of the pack.

J.; two nieces, Miss Evelyn Hogan of Kingston and Miss Helen Shely of Trenton, N. J.; two nephews, Burdette and Lester Clark of Kingston, and a great-grandchild. He was a member of St. James Church and a past member of the official board of the church. Mr. Hogan had been in the trucking business of Van Etten and Hogan for the past 68 years.

Anna M. Bernhart

The funeral of Mrs. Anna M. Bernhart of Port Ewen was held this morning at 9 o'clock from the Francis J. McCardle Funeral Home, 99 Henry street and at the Church of the Presentation where at 9:30 o'clock a Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of her soul by the Rev. Joseph L. Kerins, CSsR, pastor. Many called at the funeral home to extend condolence. Monday evening Father Kerins together with those assembled recited the Holy Rosary. Numerous and beautiful floral tributes completely banked the casket. Many spiritual bouquets in the form of Mass cards were received. Burial took place in St. Mary's Cemetery where Father Kerins pronounced the final absolution at the grave.

Mrs. Anna M. Klein

The funeral of Mrs. Anna M. Klein was held today at 9 a. m. from the Jenson and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs street, thence to St. Peter's Church where at 9:30 a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of her soul by the Rev. Patrick Carroll. Many attended the Mass including a delegation from St. Peter's Christian Mothers Society. Monday evening the society met at the funeral chapel and recited the Rosary, directed by the Rev. Joseph Geis. During the Mass, the children's choir sang Domine Jesu Christi and In Paradisum. During the bereavement many called to pay their respects and Monday evening those assembled were led in the Rosary by Father Carroll. Beautiful floral tributes and many Mass cards were placed near the casket. Bearers were Louis J. Smith, Joseph Motrie, Gilbert Ackert, Joseph Grube, John Motrie and Robert Ackert. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery where Father Geis gave the final absolution.

Ellenville Man Killed Today On Thruway Job

Highland Mills, March 2 (AP)—Vale Quick, of Ellenville, was killed today while working on construction of a gravel plant for the New York Thruway near here.

A heavy timber fell and struck him on the back of the head.

Harvey Agnew, Newburgh coroner, issued a verdict of accidental death.

Richardson Dies Of Heart Attack

Rome, March 2 (AP)—Lt. Gen. C. Richardson, Jr., former U. S. military attache in Rome and and World War 2 commander of army forces in the Pacific, died here today of a heart attack. He was 71.

Gen. Richardson had been visiting in Rome for several days and became ill only a few hours before his death.

Born in Charleston, S. C., he was a graduate of Charleston College and the United States Military Academy, where years later he served as commandant of cadets.

His home was at Upper Village, Bath, N. H.

Lynch Tells . . .

blyman, conceded on the witness stand that he transferred 10,000 shares in Mid-State Raceway Inc., operating Vernon Downs, to the name of another person after being appointed as a state harness racing steward last year.

Intended to Sell

Kellam, who served in the Assembly from Delaware county between 1943 and 1950, testified about becoming beneficiary of the stock. He said he had intended to sell the stock, listed in the name of Marvin Wynkoop, of Downesville, N. Y.

The witness said his planned sale of the stock was prevented by the pressure of his duties as a steward at Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island. He told the probers that the duties of a steward are "protecting the public, to see if the races are on the level."

Bruce Bromley, chairman of the probe commission appointed by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey under the Moreland Act, asked Kellam: "Did you think it was proper for a steward to own stock in a track?"

Kellam shook his head and replied:

"I don't think it's good judgment. But I never performed any duties at a track where I was a stockholder."

Kellam superintended racing at the New York State Fair from 1949 through 1952, and was a judge at Yonkers Raceway in 1953. The same year the State Harness Racing Commission appointed him a steward.

Kellam said he now owns 9,500 shares of stock in the Mid-State Track.

Are Reappointed

State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan, a member of the Moreland Commission, said at this point that stewards are subject to reappointment each racing season.

The name of convicted gambler Frank Erickson entered the record during the testimony of his son-in-law, James Watson, a real estate broker, of Forest Hills, Queens.

Watson testified that George Morton Levy, counsel to Roosevelt Raceway, sold him 400 shares of stock in the Old Country Trotting Assn., one of the operators of Roosevelt Raceway. The witness said the sale was made in 1948 for $14,000.

Watson said subsequent stock splitting increased the original 400 shares to 3,360 shares. He admitted that although he himself is listed as the owner, half of these shares actually are owned by Erickson's son, F. Jerome Erickson. The witness said he sold half his investment to Jerome Erickson and paid him half the dividends.

Said He Didn't Ask

Asked why he never transferred half the stock to young Erickson, Watson said: "It never came up. He never asked that it be transferred."

Watson also testified that his father-in-law gave him $25,000 in 1948 and 1949. He said he placed the money in a vault and subsequently spent it for household expenses. He also said he received $20,000 from Roosevelt Raceway between 1947 and 1949 to check on possible sites for tracks that could be opened by Roosevelt. Nothing resulted from this effort, he said.

Albert M. DeMeo, former assistant district attorney of Nassau county on Long Island, was questioned about the arrangement under which he received five per cent of the profits from the Harry M. Stevens food and liquor concession at Roosevelt Raceway.

De Meo, a former stockholder in Roosevelt, said he received the fee because he had been instrumental in getting the concession for the Stevens firm. He said he terminated his connection with the concession last month.

Received $281,770

De Meo testified that between Aug. 7, 1945, and Sept. 4, 1953, he received $281,770 from the concession. He said that by agreement he gave half of this sum to William De Koning, Sr., AFL labor leader in Nassau county and a union power at Roosevelt raceway. De Korning and a number of other union men are under indictment in Nassau county on charges of extorting money from Roosevelt raceway employes.

De Meo testified he did not know why De Koning was cut in on the catering profits. De Meo accused George Trosk, a probe commission member, of trying to get information about his past activities that was not germane to the investigation.

Abraham Chait, an ex-convict was under subpoena to appear as a witness yesterday but his attorney reported Chait had suffered a heart attack the night before and would be unable to appear.

Criticizes 'Heart Attacks'

Trosk declared:

"This business of suddenly getting heart attacks is getting a little tiresome. It's like a new kind of virus. They get served with our subpoena and they immediately get heart attacks."

The state license for a stable of thoroughbred horses which ran on flat tracks—differen tfrom the harness tracks—recently was revoked on the ground that it actually was owned by Chait and that the ownership was hidden behind the names of his wife and son, Burton, 25.

Burton Chait was questioned yesterday about his father's alleged hidden interest in the Algam Corp., which owns the Yonkers Raceway property and leases it to the operators.

Burton said he got a family friend to pick up $60,000 worth of Algam stock three years ago. The witness said he paid $10,000 down and gave notes for the balance, with the cash coming from his mother. The Probe Commission contends the mother was only a go-between for father and son.

Francis Breheney, a juke box and cigarette machine operator, who was wanted as a witness yesterday, was reported to be in Florida. The commission put on record his testimony at a previous closed session.

The testimony indicated that Breheney—who was listed as having been arrested nine times but never convicted—gave a sister $17,500 in 1952 to invest in Algam stock but never asked for repayment. The Commission called this another case of hidden ownership.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 2 (AP)—The stock market backed down today after a fairly steady start.

The decline was well scattered throughout the list, and there was no selling pressure evident at any time.

Losses went to around a point at the outside. A few plus signs were as large as a point, but most were small.

Motors were slightly higher as a group, and rubbers and aircrafts did well, but otherwise the list was mixed to lower.

Wilson Convicted

Nuernberg, Germany, March 2 (AP)—Charles E. Wilson of Harrisville, W. Va., was convicted in a U. S. District Court here today of conspiracy to defraud. He was sentenced to six months in prison, fined $5,000, and given another six months if he doesn't pay the fine. Wilson, 32, former food chief of the U. S. Army's European Exchange System (EES), was found innocent of 26 other charges growing out of an alleged kickback operation.

Whipple Attempts To Break Jail

Carlton Whipple, 18, of Middletown, who was arrested with two Kingston men on February 19 on burglary charges, attempted unsuccessfully to force his way out of the Orange County Jail at Goshen about 11 p. m. Thursday, Sheriff Bert Truesdell reported.

The sheriff said that jailors and deputies overpowered Whipple and placed him back in his cell, where he is awaiting grand jury action on a third degree burglary charge. Whipple and Melvin Conklin, 31, and Edward Arthur Conklin, 16, were charged with breaking into the National Bank and three other places in Pine Bush.

The Conklins, who gave Kingston addresses when arrested, were not involved in the attempted jail break, Sheriff Truesdell said. The burglary accusations are scheduled to be presented to the grand jury this week.

McCarthy to Ask Why McLeod Lost Authority in Job

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) said today he will demand an official explanation of Secretary Dulle's order stripping R. W. Scott McLeod of authority over State Department personnel.

The department announced yesterday that McLeod, a close personal friend of McCarthy's, will have charge only of security and consular matters from now on. McLeod has been handling both security and personnel for the department and recently stated he regards these as "inseparable functions." As personnel officer, he had hiring and firing powers.

Learning of the order, McCarthy told newsmen "this will make it infinitely more difficult for McLeod to do a good job" of ridding the department of subversives. McCarthy also said the new order "just doesn't look good on the surface."

The Wisconsin senator presumably would try to get the explanation from Dulles, but he didn't say so in so many words. McCarthy, chairman of the Senate Government Operations Committee and its Investigations subcommittee. Dulles now is in Caracas, Venezuela, attending a meeting of American states.

McCarthy injected himself into the McLeod situation as he waited for the appearance of Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens either Thursday or next Monday at what probably will be a hearing closed to television, radio, press and public.

BUILD A NEST EGG WITH A Monthly Investment Plan

Perhaps you've always thought you had to have "big money" to invest in stocks. But now, for as little as $25 (or less) each month, you can own an interest in over 50 companies. In such a supervised investment program, your shares increase with each payment. (And there's no penalty if you miss a payment). Dividends are paid in cash — or reinvested if you wish. It's a thrifty and convenient way to build a "nest egg" for your retirement or for your child's education.

Quote Roosevelt On Easy Terms For Communists

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Investigating senators today made public the purported minutes of a 1942 Navy Department meeting at which the late President Roosevelt was quoted as saying "the United States was bound to not oppose the activities of the Communist party" in this country.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee placed a copy of the document in its official records at a public hearing, and had it read aloud. Chairman Jenner (R-Ind.) admitted the document in evidence, subject to revision if the navy later produces an official version which differs from it.

The document was read shortly after Rear Adm. Adolphus Staton, Ret., had quoted Adlai Stevenson to the subcommittee as telling him during World War 2 that "I don't think we should be too hard on the Commies."

Was Special Assistant

Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for President in 1952, was a special assistant during the war to Frank Knox of Chicago, a Republican whom President Roosevelt had made secretary of the navy.

Adolphus Staton, 74-year-old retired admiral, brought Stevenson's name into testimony before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. He was testifying about a wartime program to rid the merchant marine of radio operators who were of doubtful loyalty.

Staton said that he was recalled from retirement the day after Pearl Harbor to head a special board set up to screen merchant ship radio operators under emergency legislation passed by Congress.

He told of steps taken to eliminate Japanese, Nazis and Fascists as radio operators, but he said the board ran into protests when it attempted to take similar action to weed out suspected Communists.

Befriended, He Says

Staton said that one day Stevenson called him to his office and had before him sheets of paper on which Stevenson had "briefed" the cases of six, eight or ten radio operators the board had unanimously discharged as disloyal.

He said Stevenson told him, "Admiral, I don't think you have anything against any of these fellows."

The retired officer said he told Stevenson that the board felt there was reasonable doubt about the loyalty of the men and that the board was resolving all doubts "in favor of Uncle Sam."

Asked what Stevenson replied to that, Staton testified: "He frowned, and said 'Well, admiral, I don't think we should be too hard on the Commies.'"

Staton said in 1950 that President Roosevelt had expressed what amounted to an opinion that "membership in the Communist party was not sufficient to deprive a radio operator of his job."

Senate Is Set to Double Pay Of Governor to $50,000 Today

Albany, March 2 (AP)—Without a word of debate, the Senate today completed unanimous legislative approval of resolutions doubling the salary of the governor at $50,000 and that of the lieutenant governor to $20,000, effective next Jan. 1.

The increases, authorized by the voters through constitutional amendment last November, will make the New York state chief executive the highest paid governor and the best paid public servant in the United States except for the President, who gets a base salary of $100,000.

The Senate, like the Assembly last night, approved the resolutions without a dissenting vote. Gov. Dewey's signature is not necessary to put the increase in effect.

The governor now gets $25,000 and the lieutenant governor $10,000 a year.

May Be Inducement

Some sources believe the raise will be an inducement to Gov. Dewey to seek re-election. Others think it will have no bearing on his decision, which he is expected to make in the spring.

Other developments at the state capitol:

1. The legislature voted unanimously yesterday to extend until March 12 the life of the special state commission drafting a code of ethics to curb greedy politicians. This led to speculation that the commission was at odds on important points.

2. A joint legislative committee in preparing a report in which it will recommend enactment of the Dewey administration's controversial compulsory automobile insurance bill.

Democrat Objects

3. The Democratic leader of the Senate said he objected to increasing the state tax on gasoline by two cents to finance an expanded state highway construction program.

The special Commission on Ethical Standards and Integrity in Government met yesterday for what was thought would be the final session. Its report, in which its recommendations were to be embodied, was due today.

But Chairman Charles Lockwood of Brooklyn said the commission needed more time, and at his request the Legislature extended the life of the commission for 12 days.

This gave rise to reports that the commission, comprising eight legislators (equally divided politically) and four non-legislators, was at loggerheads on at least one question, perhaps several.

Lockwood said the commission had reached agreement on "a number of matters." He said he hoped "for substantial agreement on the whole program."

The group was scheduled to meet again this afternoon.

Dean Resigns Post As Deputy to Dulles

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Special Ambassador Arthur H. Dean has resigned from his post as deputy to Secretary of State Dulles for the 20-Nation Korean Peace Conference.

The State Department disclosed this today by making public an exchange of letters with acting Secretary Walter B. Smith who praised Dean's negotiations with the Communists in Korea as "a splendid chapter in American diplomatic annals."

George V. Dennis To Address Group

George V. Dennis, scout executive of the Rip Van Winkle Boy Scout Council will address a meeting of the den mothers and fathers of Cub Scout Pack 5 this evening at 7:30 in the board room of the Jewish Community Center.

Monday evening the society met at the funeral chapel and recited the Rosary, directed by the Rev. Joseph Geis. During the Mass, the children's choir sang Domine Jesu Christi and In Paradisum. During the bereavement many called to pay their respects and Monday evening those assembled were led in the Rosary by Father Carroll. Beautiful floral tributes and many Mass cards were placed near the casket. Bearers were Louis J. Smith, Joseph Motrie, Gilbert Ackert, Joseph Grube, John Motrie and Robert Ackert. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery where Father Geis gave the final absolution.

Ellenville Man Killed Today On Thruway Job

Highland Mills, March 2 (AP)—Vale Quick, of Ellenville, was killed today while working on construction of a gravel plant for the New York Thruway near here.

A heavy timber fell and struck him on the back of the head.

Harvey Agnew, Newburgh coroner, issued a verdict of accidental death.

Richardson Dies Of Heart Attack

Rome, March 2 (AP)—Lt. Gen. C. Richardson, Jr., former U. S. military attache in Rome and and World War 2 commander of army forces in the Pacific, died here today of a heart attack. He was 71.

Gen. Richardson had been visiting in Rome for several days and became ill only a few hours before his death.

Born in Charleston, S. C., he was a graduate of Charleston College and the United States Military Academy, where years later he served as commandant of cadets.

His home was at Upper Village, Bath, N. H.

Lynch Tells . . .

blyman, conceded on the witness stand that he transferred 10,000 shares in Mid-State Raceway Inc., operating Vernon Downs, to the name of another person after being appointed as a state harness racing steward last year.

Intended to Sell

Kellam, who served in the Assembly from Delaware county between 1943 and 1950, testified about becoming beneficiary of the stock. He said he had intended to sell the stock, listed in the name of Marvin Wynkoop, of Downesville, N. Y.

The witness said his planned sale of the stock was prevented by the pressure of his duties as a steward at Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island. He told the probers that the duties of a steward are "protecting the public, to see if the races are on the level."

Bruce Bromley, chairman of the probe commission appointed by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey under the Moreland Act, asked Kellam:

"Did you think it was proper for a steward to own stock in a track?"

Kellam shook his head and replied:

"I don't think it's good judgment. But I never performed any duties at a track where I was a stockholder."

Kellam superintended racing at the New York State Fair from 1949 through 1952, and was a judge at Yonkers Raceway in 1953. The same year the State Harness Racing Commission appointed him a steward.

Kellam said he now owns 9,500 shares of stock in the Mid-State Track.

Are Reappointed

State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan, a member of the Moreland Commission, said at this point that stewards are subject to reappointment each racing season.

The name of convicted gambler Frank Erickson entered the record during the testimony of his son-in-law, James Watson, a real estate broker, of Forest Hills, Queens.

Watson testified that George Morton Levy, counsel to Roosevelt Raceway, sold him 400 shares of stock in the Old Country Trotting Assn., one of the operators of Roosevelt Raceway. The witness said the sale was made in 1948 for $14,000.

Watson said subsequent stock splitting increased the original 400 shares to 3,360 shares. He admitted that although he himself is listed as the owner, half of these shares actually are owned by Erickson's son, F. Jerome Erickson. The witness said he sold half his investment to Jerome Erickson and paid him half the dividends.

Said He Didn't Ask

Asked why he never transferred half the stock to young Erickson, Watson said: "It never came up. He never asked that it be transferred."

Watson also testified that his father-in-law gave him $25,000 in 1948 and 1949. He said he placed the money in a vault and subsequently spent it for household expenses. He also said he received $20,000 from Roosevelt Raceway between 1947 and 1949 to check on possible sites for tracks that could be opened by Roosevelt. Nothing resulted from this effort, he said.

Albert M. DeMeo, former assistant district attorney of Nassau county on Long Island, was questioned about the arrangement under which he received five per cent of the profits from the Harry M. Stevens food and liquor concession at Roosevelt Raceway.

De Meo, a former stockholder in Roosevelt, said he received the fee because he had been instrumental in getting the concession for the Stevens firm. He said he terminated his connection with the concession last month.

Received $281,770

De Meo testified that between Aug. 7, 1945, and Sept. 4, 1953, he received $281,770 from the concession. He said that by agreement he gave half of this sum to William De Koning, Sr., AFL labor leader in Nassau county and a union power at Roosevelt raceway. De Korning and a number of other union men are under indictment in Nassau county on charges of extorting money from Roosevelt raceway employes.

De Meo testified he did not know why De Koning was cut in on the catering profits. De Meo accused George Trosk, a probe commission member, of trying to get information about his past activities that was not germane to the investigation.

Abraham Chait, an ex-convict was under subpoena to appear as a witness yesterday but his attorney reported Chait had suffered a heart attack the night before and would be unable to appear.

Criticizes 'Heart Attacks'

Trosk declared:

"This business of suddenly getting heart attacks is getting a little tiresome. It's like a new kind of virus. They get served with our subpoena and they immediately get heart attacks."

The state license for a stable of thoroughbred horses which ran on flat tracks—differen tfrom the harness tracks—recently was revoked on the ground that it actually was owned by Chait and that the ownership was hidden behind the names of his wife and son, Burton, 25.

Burton Chait was questioned yesterday about his father's alleged hidden interest in the Algam Corp., which owns the Yonkers Raceway property and leases it to the operators.

Burton said he got a family friend to pick up $60,000 worth of Algam stock three years ago. The witness said he paid $10,000 down and gave notes for the balance, with the cash coming from his mother. The Probe Commission contends the mother was only a go-between for father and son.

Francis Breheney, a juke box and cigarette machine operator, who was wanted as a witness yesterday, was reported to be in Florida. The commission put on record his testimony at a previous closed session.

The testimony indicated that Breheney—who was listed as having been arrested nine times but never convicted—gave a sister $17,500 in 1952 to invest in Algam stock but never asked for repayment. The Commission called this another case of hidden ownership.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 2 (AP)—The stock market backed down today after a fairly steady start.

The decline was well scattered throughout the list, and there was no selling pressure evident at any time.

Losses went to around a point at the outside. A few plus signs were as large as a point, but most were small.

Motors were slightly higher as a group, and rubbers and aircrafts did well, but otherwise the list was mixed to lower.

Wilson Convicted

Nuernberg, Germany, March 2 (AP)—Charles E. Wilson of Harrisville, W. Va., was convicted in a U. S. District Court here today of conspiracy to defraud. He was sentenced to six months in prison, fined $5,000, and given another six months if he doesn't pay the fine. Wilson, 32, former food chief of the U. S. Army's European Exchange System (EES), was found innocent of 26 other charges growing out of an alleged kickback operation.

Whipple Attempts To Break Jail

Carlton Whipple, 18, of Middletown, who was arrested with two Kingston men on February 19 on burglary charges, attempted unsuccessfully to force his way out of the Orange County Jail at Goshen about 11 p. m. Thursday, Sheriff Bert Truesdell reported.

The sheriff said that jailors and deputies overpowered Whipple and placed him back in his cell, where he is awaiting grand jury action on a third degree burglary charge. Whipple and Melvin Conklin, 31, and Edward Arthur Conklin, 16, were charged with breaking into the National Bank and three other places in Pine Bush.

The Conklins, who gave Kingston addresses when arrested, were not involved in the attempted jail break, Sheriff Truesdell said. The burglary accusations are scheduled to be presented to the grand jury this week.

McCarthy to Ask Why McLeod Lost Authority in Job

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) said today he will demand an official explanation of Secretary Dulle's order stripping R. W. Scott McLeod of authority over State Department personnel.

The department announced yesterday that McLeod, a close personal friend of McCarthy's, will have charge only of security and consular matters from now on. McLeod has been handling both security and personnel for the department and recently stated he regards these as "inseparable functions." As personnel officer, he had hiring and firing powers.

Learning of the order, McCarthy told newsmen "this will make it infinitely more difficult for McLeod to do a good job" of ridding the department of subversives. McCarthy also said the new order "just doesn't look good on the surface."

The Wisconsin senator presumably would try to get the explanation from Dulles, but he didn't say so in so many words. McCarthy, chairman of the Senate Government Operations Committee and its Investigations subcommittee. Dulles now is in Caracas, Venezuela, attending a meeting of American states.

McCarthy injected himself into the McLeod situation as he waited for the appearance of Secretary of the Army Robert I. Stevens either Thursday or next Monday at what probably will be a hearing closed to television, radio, press and public.

Quote Roosevelt On Easy Terms For Communists

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Investigating senators today made public the purported minutes of a 1942 Navy Department meeting at which the late President Roosevelt was quoted as saying "the United States was bound to not oppose the activities of the Communist party" in this country.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee placed a copy of the document in its official records at a public hearing, and had it read aloud. Chairman Jenner (R-Ind.) admitted the document in evidence, subject to revision if the navy later produces an official version which differs from it.

The document was read shortly after Rear Adm. Adolphus Staton, Ret., had quoted Adlai Stevenson to the subcommittee as telling him during World War 2 that "I don't think we should be too hard on the Commies."

Was Special Assistant

Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for President in 1952, was a special assistant during the war to Frank Knox of Chicago, a Republican whom President Roosevelt had made secretary of the navy.

Adolphus Staton, 74-year-old retired admiral, brought Stevenson's name into testimony before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. He was testifying about a wartime program to rid the merchant marine of radio operators who were of doubtful loyalty.

Staton said that he was recalled from retirement the day after Pearl Harbor to head a special board set up to screen merchant ship radio operators under emergency legislation passed by Congress.

He told of steps taken to eliminate Japanese, Nazis and Fascists as radio operators, but he said the board ran into protests when it attempted to take similar action to weed out suspected Communists.

Befriended, He Says

Staton said that one day Stevenson called him to his office and had before him sheets of paper on which Stevenson had "briefed" the cases of six, eight or ten radio operators the board had unanimously discharged as disloyal.

He said Stevenson told him, "Admiral, I don't think you have anything against any of these fellows."

The retired officer said he told Stevenson that the board felt there was reasonable doubt about the loyalty of the men and that the board was resolving all doubts "in favor of Uncle Sam."

Asked what Stevenson replied to that, Staton testified: "He frowned, and said 'Well, admiral, I don't think we should be too hard on the Commies.'"

Staton said in 1950 that President Roosevelt had expressed what amounted to an opinion that "membership in the Communist party was not sufficient to deprive a radio operator of his job."

Raymond Reappointed

Albany, March 2 (AP)—Gov. Dewey today reappointed George S. Raymond of Stony Point to a full six-year term on the Board of Standards and Appeals.

BUILD A NEST EGG WITH A Monthly Investment Plan

Perhaps you've always thought you had to have "big money" to invest in stocks. But now, for as little as $25 (or less) each month, you can own an interest in over 50 companies. In such a supervised investment program, your shares increase with each payment. (And there's no penalty if you miss a payment). Dividends are paid in cash — or reinvested if you wish. It's a thrifty and convenient way to build a "nest egg" for your retirement or for your child's education.

Bentley Shows

Joseph R. Young, chief of staff at Casualty Hospital, said the 35-year-old congressman, while still in critical condition, had shown improvement, was cheerful and able to talk coherently.

At 7:45 a. m. report said Bentley had a "fairly restful" night; that temperature, pulse and respiration were at "a satisfactory level— although the pulse rate is higher than desirable."

A morning bulletin from Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital said Jensen and Davis spent a comfortable night and were "feeling pretty well this morning." Both ate breakfast and "neither of them is on the list of seriously ill patients," the bulletin said.

It added that Jensen was the less comfortable of the two and said he might be operated on today for removal of the bullet from his shoulder.

Security Strengthened

Meanwhile increased security precautions, which already had been ordered at the capitol, appeared also at the White House 16 blocks up Pennsylvania avenue.

At the main gate leading to the presidential office, for example, four uniformed White House policemen and a secret service agent were stationed—two outside the gate and two inside. Ordinarily only two men are at the post and they stay in a little house just inside the grounds. A guard house at the Pennsylvania avenue end of Executive avenue, which runs alongside the White House, was manned for the first time in months.

A scene of confusion without precedent in the House of Representatives occurred when the Purto Rican fanatics suddely produced heavy pistols and began shooting wildly from the visitors' gallery during yesterday's routine session.

Congressmen dived under desks or sped to the aid of fallen colleagues. Many of them thought the sharp reports were those of prankster's firecrackers — until splinters began flying from desks and plaster from walls and ceiling.

Van Zandt Gives Help

One member, Rep. Van Zandt (R.-Pa.), sped upstairs in time to help disarm one of the gunmen.

In the gallery a number of spectators also helped overpower three of the assailants as their weapons were emptied and they tried frantically to reload and resume their barrage.

There was a wild melee in the gallery itself and in the corridor outside as guards rushed it.

Through it all the Puerto Ricans screamed for independence for their island homeland as they sprayed bullets over the chamber from Lugers held grimly in both hands. After her pistol was empty Mrs. Lebron waved a Puerto Rican flag as she had at the outset to signal the outbreak.

Mrs. Lebron insisted at police headquarters that members of the group regard themselves as patriots—not criminals.

The dark-haired woman said the shooting was intended "to bring the attention to the people to the plight of Puerto Rico. It is a country that is not free."

Are Nationalist Partisans

Those held are members of the Nationalist party, the same troupe represented by the two men who tried in 1950 to assassinate the then President Harry Truman.

The party is only a small minority in the island commonwealth.

Most Puerto Ricans have expressed to remain under U. S. authority, although they have been offered independence any time they want it.

Anti-independence forces have contended the islanders would lose heavily in American aid if separated from this country, and that the islands are not yet capable of complete self government.

The woman and two men were disarmed and taken into custody in a riotous scene just outside the House visitors' gallery. The third man was arrested later at a bus terminal.

Stunned Congressional leaders took immediate steps to tighten security regulations and prevent a recurrence of such a tragedy—the first known instance of bloodshed during an actual session of the House or Senate.

That more lawmakers and spectators weren't hurt appeared nothing short of miraculous.

An estimated 20 to 30 heavy caliber bullets fired from Luger type pistols blazed into the House chamber.

Leaders' Desks Hit

Two pellets burrowed into the heavy table at which Republican leaders sit. Seated there at the time were Majority Leader Halleck of Indiana and his assistant, Rep. Arends of Illinois. Neither was hurt, although Arends was nicked by flying splinters. So was Rep. Holmes (R-Wash.), who was standing nearby.

About 250 House members were on hand at the time, about 2:30 p. m., having been summoned to the chamber only a short time earlier to debate a bill dealing with importation of Mexican farm workers. The visitors' galleries were less than half-filled. About a dozen newsmen sat in the press seats in the same general section, but 50 feet or more away from where the Puerto Ricans sat.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) adjourned the House in short order while doctors and police took over.

The shooting lasted only about a minute—the most turbulent in the history of Congress.

Was Counting Vote

Martin was counting a standing vote when it started. He never finished.

Mrs. Lebron; Miranda, Cordero and Flores, all are from New York.

Also being held without formal charge were three young men picked up away from the Capitol. Police said there was no certainty they had a part in the incident. They were listed as Montes Rivera, 20, Tampa, Fla.; his brother, Israel Rivera, 23, Deerfield Beach, Fla., and Pablo Mateo, 18, Tampa.

Police said all four charged were members of the Puerto Rican Nationalists, whose president Ispedro Albizu Campos ... was pardoned four months ago after serving about two years of prison sentences totaling 54 years as a result of a 1950 riot in San Juan in which 30 persons were killed. Doctors have said he suffers hallucinations.

Shot by Puerto Rican Nationalists

These five Congressmen were wounded in the bizarre shooting by three Puerto Ricans in the House of Representatives. Left to right: Rep. Ben. F. Jensen (R., Iowa); Rep. Clifford R. Davis (D., Tenn.); Rep. Alvin M. Bentlty (R. Mich.); Rep. Kenneth A. Roberts (D., Ala.) and Rep. George H. Fallon (D., Md.). At last reports ten suspects were being held, including those alleged to have done the shooting. (NEA Telephotos)

Family Visits Wounded Congressman

Puerto Rican Flag Gunmen Carried

Bentley Defeated Strong Friend of Puerto Rico

Washington, March 2 (AP) — Rep. Bentley (R-Mich.), the most seriously wounded of five House members shot by Puerto Rican Nationalists yesterday, came to Congress after unseating one of Puerto Rico's staunchest U. S. friends, Fred L. Crawford.

Bentley whipped Crawford in the 1952 primary campaign for the Republican nomination from their Michigan district.

Crawford, who would have become chairman of the House committee that handles Puerto Rican affairs, authored legislation which allowed the island possession to elect its own governor.

Wounded Congressman

Rep. Kenneth A. Roberts (D., Ala.), who was shot in the leg by Puerto Rican Nationalists, is carried down the steps of the Capitol building (dome in background). Apparently in great pain, Roberts was taken to a nearby hospital. Four other Congressmen were also wounded. (NEA Telephoto)

Hartford Man Held

Holden ordered Orozco held in bonds of $15,000 pending his arraignment.

Although two policemen testified before Holden that they had heard Orozco threaten the President, he denied it.

U. S. Atty. Simons Cohen said that while Orozco had been drawing unemployment compensation benefits here he has made trips to New York and Detroit. Cohen said a complete investigation of the man's travels would be made "since we don't known if he is a lone wolf or a member of the Puerto Rican Nationalist group."

30 More Policemen Guarding Capitol

Washington, March 2 (AP) — Thirty additional Washington city police were assigned to the Capitol today as a security measure in the wake of yesterday's shooting in the House chamber.

They re-inforce the regular Capitol police force and several city officers regularly assigned to the Capitol.

The extra men, in plainclothes, will stay on duty until further notice and were assigned to occupy seats in the public galleries, one to each section, in the House and the Senate.

Effective today, admission to the public galleries will be by card only. In the past, cards issued by congressmen were used only for reserved sections.

Under the new arrangement, each congressman will receive a quota of non-transferrable passes and will be responsible for them. The new passes were printed last night and distributed this morning. No one will be allowed in the galleries without a card signed by a congressman.

Along with his quota of cards, each House member received a letter from Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) emphasizing that the congressman will be responsible for distribution of the passes.

Arrangements are expected to be worked out later to accommodate large groups of sightseers for whom individual passes will not be available. In the past, these groups were escorted by Capitol guides and were allowed to sit in certain gallery sections after checking their cameras and personal packages.

Governor Shocked At Shooting; Flies To U. S. Capital

Miami, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico left San Juan for Washington today aboard a special Pan American World Airways plane.

Eleven other officials of the government were reported accompanying him, PAA officials reported in Miami.

A few hours before departure the governor told the Miami Herald by telephone that the shooting of five congressmen in Washington yesterday was caused by the "insignificant in numbers" Nationalist Party.

"There are not more than 500 Nationalists on the whole island and not more than three dozen of them savage enough to do such a horrible thing," the newspaper quoted him as saying.

The Puerto Rican governor said he did not know whether there was a "possible relationship in timing" between the Washington shooting and any possible outbreak of violence in Puerto Rico, "but the police here, naturally, will be alerted."

He added that the woman held in the Washington shooting, Lolita Lebron, was a "known Nationalist fanatic."

Puerto Rico Votes Against Shooting

San Juan, Puerto Rico, March 2 (AP)—The Puerto Rican legislature adopted a resolution today condemning the shooting by Puerto Rican Nationalists of five congressmen on the floor of the U. S. House of Representatives yesterday.

The resolution was supported by the majority Popular Party and the Statehood Party, both of which favor continued association of Puerto Rico with the United States. Members of the small Independence Party, which seeks freedom for the island through peaceful means, abstained on the balloting although a resolution proposed by the party also condemned the shootings.

The Independence faction's resolution went on to lay the blame for the incident on the "present colonial system" in Puerto Rico. It was not voted on by the lawmakers.

Passage of the condemnation resolution was announced shortly before Gov. Luis Munoz Marin left San Juan for Washington aboard a special Pan American World Airways plane, accompanied by several other government officials. He was reported hoping to be able to visit the five wounded congressmen.

Hershey Notes Plans on College

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Selective Service has reminded college students planning to take the April 22 Selective Service college qualification test that they must have their applications postmarked before midnight Monday, March 8.

Director Lewis B. Hershey said the deadline is necessary to allow time for the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J., which conducts the test, to process the applications and assign each applicant to a testing center.

The April 22 test will be given at about 1,000 centers. Application blanks and information may be obtained by students from the nearest local draft board.

To be eligible for the test, a registrant must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course and must not have taken it previously.

Students with either a score of 70 or better on the test, or maintaining stipulated class standing, may be considered for deferment as a student by their local boards.

Bentley Shows

Joseph R. Young, chief of staff at Casualty Hospital, said the 35-year-old congressman, while still in critical condition, had shown improvement, was cheerful and able to talk coherently.

At 7:45 a. m. report said Bentley had a "fairly restful" night; that temperature, pulse and respiration were at "a satisfactory level— although the pulse rate is higher than desirable."

A morning bulletin from Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital said Jensen and Davis spent a comfortable night and were "feeling pretty well this morning." Both ate breakfast and "neither of them is on the list of seriously ill patients," the bulletin said.

It added that Jensen was the less comfortable of the two and said he might be operated on today for removal of the bullet from his shoulder.

Security Strengthened

Meanwhile increased security precautions, which already had been ordered at the capitol, appeared also at the White House 16 blocks up Pennsylvania avenue.

At the main gate leading to the presidential office, for example, four uniformed White House policemen and a secret service agent were stationed—two outside the gate and two inside. Ordinarily only two men are at the post and they stay in a little house just inside the grounds. A guard house at the Pennsylvania avenue end of Executive avenue, which runs alongside the White House, was manned for the first time in months.

A scene of confusion without precedent in the House of Representatives occurred when the Purto Rican fanatics suddely produced heavy pistols and began shooting wildly from the visitors' gallery during yesterday's routine session.

Congressmen dived under desks or sped to the aid of fallen colleagues. Many of them thought the sharp reports were those of prankster's firecrackers — until splinters began flying from desks and plaster from walls and ceiling.

Van Zandt Gives Help

One member, Rep. Van Zandt (R.-Pa.), sped upstairs in time to help disarm one of the gunmen.

In the gallery a number of spectators also helped overpower three of the assailants as their weapons were emptied and they tried frantically to reload and resume their barrage.

There was a wild melee in the gallery itself and in the corridor outside as guards rushed it.

Through it all the Puerto Ricans screamed for independence for their island homeland as they sprayed bullets over the chamber from Lugers held grimly in both hands. After her pistol was empty Mrs. Lebron waved a Puerto Rican flag as she had at the outset to signal the outbreak.

Mrs. Lebron insisted at police headquarters that members of the group regard themselves as patriots—not criminals.

The dark-haired woman said the shooting was intended "to bring the attention to the people to the plight of Puerto Rico. It is a country that is not free."

Are Nationalist Partisans

Those held are members of the Nationalist party, the same troupe represented by the two men who tried in 1950 to assassinate the then President Harry Truman.

The party is only a small minority in the island commonwealth.

Most Puerto Ricans have expressed to remain under U. S. authority, although they have been offered independence any time they want it.

Anti-independence forces have contended the islanders would lose heavily in American aid if separated from this country, and that the islands are not yet capable of complete self government.

The woman and two men were disarmed and taken into custody in a riotous scene just outside the House visitors' gallery. The third man was arrested later at a bus terminal.

Stunned Congressional leaders took immediate steps to tighten security regulations and prevent a recurrence of such a tragedy—the first known instance of bloodshed during an actual session of the House or Senate.

That more lawmakers and spectators weren't hurt appeared nothing short of miraculous.

Leaders' Desks Hit

Two pellets burrowed into the heavy table at which Republican leaders sit. Seated there at the time were Majority Leader Halleck of Indiana and his assistant, Rep. Arends of Illinois. Neither was hurt, although Arends was nicked by flying splinters. So was Rep. Holmes (R-Wash.), who was standing nearby.

About 250 House members were on hand at the time, about 2:30 p. m., having been summoned to the chamber only a short time earlier to debate a bill dealing with importation of Mexican farm workers. The visitors' galleries were less than half-filled. About a dozen newsmen sat in the press seats in the same general section, but 50 feet or more away from where the Puerto Ricans sat.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) adjourned the House in short order while doctors and police took over.

The shooting lasted only about a minute—the most turbulent in the history of Congress.

Was Counting Vote

Martin was counting a standing vote when it started. He never finished.

Mrs. Lebron; Miranda, Cordero and Flores, all are from New York.

Also being held without formal charge were three young men picked up away from the Capitol. Police said there was no certainty they had a part in the incident. They were listed as Montes Rivera, 20, Tampa, Fla.; his brother, Israel Rivera, 23, Deerfield Beach, Fla., and Pablo Mateo, 18, Tampa.

Police said all four charged were members of the Puerto Rican Nationalists, whose president Ispedro Albizu Campos [illegible] was pardoned four months ago after serving about two years of prison sentences totaling 54 years as a result of a 1950 riot in San Juan in which 30 persons were killed. Doctors have said he suffers hallucinations.

NEW LIDICE

The Communists in Indo China are committing atrocities which are reminiscent of those perpetrated by the Nazis in World War II in Europe. Recently Red raiders, disguised as peasants, made their way into a village in a strongly Catholic area. They broke into the church, smashed the altar and set fire to it. Then they proceeded to destroy the village and kill as many inhabitants as they could find. Over 1,400 people were killed in cold blood.

It becomes more and more difficult to see how any sane, thinking individual can give his approval to communism. The acts in Indo China were in the traditions of barbarism, defying understanding or sense. Their only gain was to spread terror.

This is the work of those who say that they want to help the poor and the oppressed. This is the fruit of a philosophy which started with a cry for men to "throw off their chains." Here, naked for all the world to see, is the true nature of communism.

During World War II the Nazis who conquered Czechoslovakia embarked on a similar reign of terror. The town of Lidice and all its inhabitants were wiped from the face of the earth. But the memory of Lidice, the slaughter of its innocent people, moved the forces of freedom to fight harder, to steel their resolve to drive the Nazis out. From the atrocities in Indo China the world can take the same inspiration.

This is the time of year when a man looks over his garden, examines his tools and plans the things he must do when spring finally arrives. It is a pleasant enough pastime until it is warm enough to play golf.

A HIGHER PUNISHMENT

A man can sometimes fool the law, hide his guilt from society and escape the ordinary punishments for his crimes or misdeeds. But he can never evade his own conscience. There is nowhere he can go, nothing he can do to still the inner voice that reminds him of what he has done.

Recently a 29-year-old man turned himself in to the police in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and confessed that eighteen years ago he shot a playmate and allowed two other boys to take the blame. He said that he intends to get married and wants to clear his conscience before he does.

The courts will have to determine the extent of his guilt and what will be done with him. But whatever happens to him he faces no worse punishment than that he has endured for the last eighteen years — the knowledge that he was responsible for the death of a fellow human being and that two innocent people were suffering for it.

There is a higher justice than that administered by men and no one can escape it.

Sometimes a controversial proposition is brought up and people say that they heartily approve it, but that this is not quite the time to bring it up. What they mean is likely to be that they are against it but do not think it best to say so.

SPRING TRAINING

The icy winds may blow, snow may fall, and weather experts may predict blustery days ahead. To the baseball fan, however, the gloomy winter is behind, the day of the "singing of the birds is at hand." Major League baseball teams have begun their annual spring training program for the season ahead.

It has been a long winter for the fans, a time barren of conversational topics. A few governments fell in Italy and France, a Big Four Conference was held in Berlin, a great debate raged in Congress over the Bricker Amendment. But of what interest is this to a man who wonders whether the Yankees will win the pennant again this year or whether his favorite team will get off to a good start?

The robins may arrive in the North late this year, the first flowers of spring may still be a long way off. But to the baseball fan the winter is over and as soon as the season gets under way all will be right with the world.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE GENEVA CONFERENCE

A new device has been added to international diplomacy, namely, world government by a chain of conferences outside the United Nations. To date, not a single decisive international question has been decided by the United Nations, unless one assumes that such a matter as the establishment of Israel is decisive.

The Geneva Conference is one of these outside arrangements called to solve both the Korean and Indochinese affairs and undoubtedly to determine the relations between Red China and the United States.

The reported agreement between the United States and Soviet Russia that the subject of a seat for Red China will not be discussed at Geneva is meaningless. The Russians were not to bring the subject up at Berlin but they did.

As a matter of fact, a propaganda is now going the rounds in this country to soften up the American people to recognize Red China de facto and to agree to a seat for Red China in the United Nations. The same big names are being used as have for year been used to convince Americans to do the wrong things which have proved so costly not only in prestige and wealth but in the lives of our sons.

The argument runs:

1. Some say: let us be practical and realistic. Red China is there. So we have to deal with them.

(The United States did not recognize Soviet Russia from 1917 to 1933. Both countries survived.)

2. Some say: I hate Red China for her barbarous treatment of our troops, but we cannot settle anything in Asia without Red China. So let us recognize Red China.

(It has been experience in every conference since Teheran in 1943 that when a concession is made to the Soviet Universal State, a new situation develops which requires further concessions. Could Mr. Dulles or anyone else guarantee that if the European and Indochinese issues were resolved, that a Burmese, an Indonesian, or an Indian situation would not immediately be developed?)

3. Some say: if we recognize Red China and give her a seat in the United Nations, a split will develop between Red China and Soviet Russia and the United States can wean Red China away from Soviet Russia.

(The Chinese Communist Movement was organized in 1920 at the Baku Congress of Nations of the Orient. Most of its leaders are Russian trained and are firm adherents to the Marxist Church. They have been loyal to the Kremlin, taking strict orders from it since 1923 when Michael Borodin was sent to China to reorganize the revolution on a Marxist basis. There is not a scintilla of evidence that any change in attitude has taken place. In fact, the writings and speeches of Mao Tze-tung and Chou En-lai confirm the loyalty of Red China to the Kremlin. Those who believe a schism possible do not understand the nature of the Soviet Universal State in its current manifestations.)

The line for recognition will be accented during the next month to pave the way for whatever decision comes out of the Geneva Conference. This does not mean that John Foster Dulles favors the recognition of Red China or the seating of that country in the United Nations. It does mean that, for all practical purposes, the United States has become isolated. Dean Acheson kept unwilling nations to a plausible line by a bribery that cost this country roughly $6,000,000,000 a year. John Foster Dulles cannot continue these subventions because the money is not available.

He maintained a front with Great Britain and France at Berlin by making the concession of agreeing to the Geneva Conference. He cannot know, and nobody can know, what combination of countries he will encounter at Geneva, what forces of neutralism, of open or covert enmity he may face among our former friends who want to make up their lost American subventions by an East-West Trade that can develop into Russian subventions. Our diplomatic advantages have deteriorated since our failure in Korea more than the American people have been permitted to know. But Dulles knows and his anxieties must be great indeed.

Once Red China wins a seat in the United Nations, the Soviet Universal State will have won its second greatest victory. (The first great victory was when George Marshall, by an unfortunate truce maneuver, opened the way for the conquest of China by Russia.)

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

THE DAILY FOOD NEEDS OF THE BODY

During World War 2 it was found that some workers in a large airplane factory seemed so tired about 11 o'clock in the morning that the employers found it necessary to give them a rest. An investigation revealed that these tired workers not only ate a small breakfast but the breakfast contained little or no protein foods—meat, eggs, fish. When protein foods were added to their breakfasts it was found that they were able to work until the noon hour without becoming fatigued.

Another important finding by research workers is that many men and women feel very tired at quitting time. Naturally, the first thought is that he or she needs rest, plenty of rest, before the evening meal. On the contrary, our research workers find that these workers need food, that the feeling of fatigue is due to hunger and not to tiredness.

We are inclined to smile at the many meals our British friends eat in a day. I have written before that the meals eaten by the British in some cases number seven or eight in a day, yet if the amount of food is measured, it would be found to be no more than that eaten by Americans in three meals. Also, the reason the Englishman does not have that "lean and hungry look" on his face is because of the extra food, in small quantities, that he eats daily.

The amount of food your body needs in a day depends upon the amount of work or activity of the body during the 24 hours. Our food, or nourishment, experts estimate that the amount of food the body needs just to carry on its normal work—pumping blood through the blood vessels, supplying heat and energy, supplying the various organs and glands with nourishment they need — amounts to about 80 per cent (four-fifths) of the food intake. For example, the amount of food needed by the housewife or office worker averages from 2,200 to 3,500 calories daily whereas that needed by the individual doing hard physical work could be as much as 4,000 to 6,000 calories.

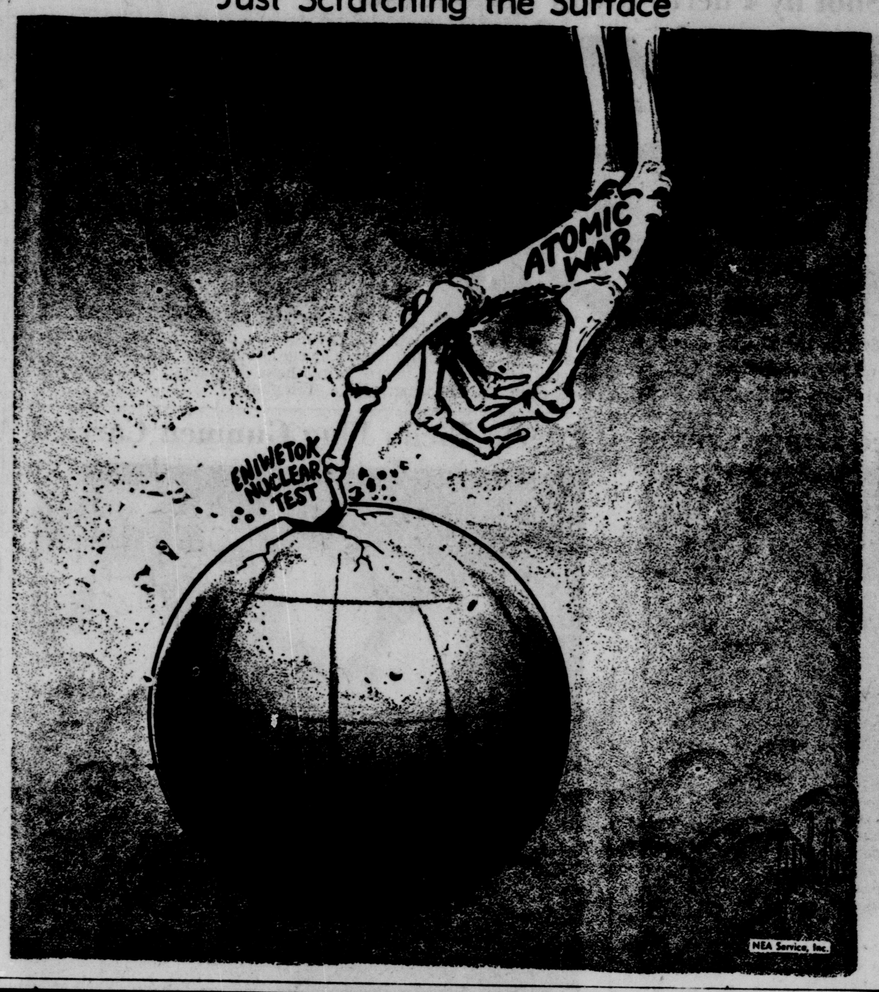

Thus we get a general idea of the food we need by the amount and type of work we do. We should all take some of all the various foodstuffs daily, making sure of eating some protein foods every day, not forgetting the minerals and vitamins. Four of the nine important minerals that should be eaten daily are calcium, phosphorus, iron and iodine. Some of all the vitamins should be eaten daily, especially vitamin B1, B2, and vitamin B complex.

Just Scratching the Surface

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA) — As a sample of the things Capital society gossips about in this town where talk is the leading industry, here are a few snatches of information overheard at a Washington cocktail party:

In addition to about three dozen paper valentines that came into the White House for America's new sweetheart—Mamie Eisenhower — there were several handkerchiefs—and aprons.

Mrs. Harold Burton is one of the most "hat-happy" women in Washington. The wife of the Supreme Court justice manages to keep quite a sizable collection of chapeaux, even though the Burtons live in a hotel suite. Mrs. Burton merely piles the hat boxes one on the top of the other, along one wall.

The two friendliest official wives in town are Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Herbert Brownell. Both know how to toss a warm and unofficial-sounding "Hi" into their greeting.

Diplomatic Press Agent

Probably the only U. S. ambassador now serving abroad who has an unofficial press agent voluntarily working in his interest is James S. Kemper, stationed at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Before he was named ambassador by President Eisenhower, Mr. Kemper was head of Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty Co., of Chicago, which retained as its public relations counsel Carl Byoir & Associates.

Without the ambassador's knowing anything about it, this concern recently sent around to U. S. correspondents a press release quoting a Brazil Herald editorial headed, "Ambassador Kemper Does Good Job Here in First Six Months." The mailing was timed to arrive just before Ambassador Kemper returned to Washington for consultations.

The Tough Duck

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson characterizes President Eisenhower's farm program as "It's some duck!"

"Before the President's detailed farm message had been transmitted to Congress," says Secretary Benson, "many people were saying, 'It's a dead duck!'

"Well, it must be a duck with more than nine lives because every day since the program was proposed, these same critics have tried to kill it all over again."

Produce or Else

The 2200 government employes fired under President Eisenhower's security program between May 27 and Dec. 31, 1953, represent only about 10 to 20 per cent of the Civil Service people discharged "for cause "in an average year. "Cause" in this case covers all government employes let go for insubordination, political activity, laziness, or for any other reason to promote the efficiency of the Civil Service. Firings under President Eisenhowe's Executive Order 10450 cover only Communist subversion, sexual perversion, past criminal records, and habitual drunkenness or other immorality.

Civil Service Commission has at long last been needled into giving a breakdown on how many of these four clsasifications there were in the 2200. But in the seven months that this security program was in effect last year, the government also fired 7474 other Civil Service employes "for cause.' For the entire year 17,213 were dismissed for cause.

The record for firings in previous years was as follows:

1951	23,978
1950	10,042
1949	11,482

These figures are cited by Civil Service Commission to show that government employment isn't a pit where, once a person lands a job, he can stay on the payroll forever. Once a year every Civil Service employe gets a rating. If his efficiency rating is down, he gets a 90-day warning. Then, if he doesn't improve, out he goes.

Just a Few Billions

Though the U. S. national debt is getting perilously close to the $275 billion limit, Treasury officials believe they will be able to scrape through—until some time next fall. This will be done by reducing the Treasury's cash balance between now and March 15, when first-quarter income tax payments roll in. On March 22 the Treasury expects to pay off some $6 billion of tax anticipation certificates. This will reduce the debt to around $269 billion—and give the Treasury a margin for spring and summer operations. But Treasury officials still want Congress to raise the debt limit to $290 billion, to give them ample margin for operations next fall and winter.

Link Between Puerto Rican Nationalists and Communists Established for Long Period

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 2 — The Communist infiltration forces in the United States, attempting to use Puerto Rican fanatics as a front, have been checkmated in their plot to assassinate President Eisenhower and J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

For several weeks the existence of this assignment, as given to Puerto Rican agents in New York, has been known here but it was not expected that an effort would be made to shoot up Congress.

The connection between the Puerto Rican Nationalists and the Communists has been well established for some time. As early as July 1943, the American Communist Party issued a statement which said in part:

"We pledge our full support to the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico and to the complete unification of all the people of Puerto Rico and their various parties around the supreme task of achieving full nationhood.

"We will fulfill our pledge by rallying the people and particularly the labor movement of our country to Puerto Rican independence as a necessary pre-condition to correct relations with all Latin America and as an acid test of the Atlantic Charter. Puerto Rico must and will be free."

Within 60 days after the attempt to assassinate President Truman, the convention of the National Committe of the American Communist Party on December 28, 1950, in New York city—the last of the Communist Party conclaves to be held—had in it a Puerto Rican Communist delegation and this declaration was made:

"We place the responsibility for the bloodshed on Harry S. Truman and on his watchdog—Munoz-Marin (present governor)."

The resident commissioner of Puerto Rico in Congress, A. Fernosisern, who has a seat but no vote, declared after the attempt to shoot up the U. S. House of Representatives that the whole thing was a "Communist plot" because even the extreme Nationalists knew there was no real issue about Puerto Rican independence. For commonwealth status has been granted, and the decision as to severance of all ties with the United States is in the hands of the Puerto Rican voters themselves. So he concluded that something else entered into the situation—a Communist effort to produce disharmony.

Certainly as the Latin-American conference is about to convene in Venezuela, it is natural for the Communists to make a demonstration in the hope of convincing the Latin countries generally that the United States is oppressing a Spanish-inhabited country—a kind of "colonialism."

The shooting in the House chamber came as a shock in more ways than the dramatic occurrence itself would indicate on its face. For it suddenly awakened official Washington in all its branches to the fact that the Communist menace cannot be pooh-poohed. Those who have insisted that security measures hereabouts were superfluous now will feel differently about it, and the one place where there has been great laxity—in and around Congress—may at last get the protection it has always needed.

The Puerto Rican Nationalists, like their brethren in the fanatical fold in other countries, are dupes of the Communists. The Nationalists start out with an emotional crusade in the cause of freedom and independence and are egged on by Communist agents who furnish the money and the brains for intrigue.

At first it was discounted, for instance, that the Nationalists in Iran had any connection with the Communists. But later on the plot became clear. In Guatemala today, the Nationalists insist that they are on their own in their "anti-imperialist" campaigns which take the form of bitter anti-Americanism. But the Communists are in the background. The British government saw through the pretense when the same cry was raised in British Guiana.

For the Communists are fishing in troubled waters everywhere—in Egypt, Tunisia, Syria, French Morocco, India, Japan, the Philippines, Indonesia and, of course, in Indochina, where they have taken over the movement for independence from the French.

Nationalism is a spontaneous affair as a rule but the Communists furnish the guiding brains and supply the terrorists to complicate the situation. The murderous attack on the American Congress may have an effect opposite to that which Communist forces inside the United States counted on—it may stiffen the resistance and bring about the passage of even more restrictive measures than are now on the statute books with reference to the freedom of movement in America of Communists and fellow-travelers who play a part in the Communist infiltration techniques.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, March 2 — The frantic abuse of all who dared to challenge the fitness of Earl Warren is a black mark against the great American free press. This disgusting squabble should have been conducted as a decent debate on an important matter. But someone hit upon the phrase "unsworn and unevaluated" to diecredit the case against Warren.

Sure the charges were "unsworn and unevaluated" but the accusers were pleading for a chance to swear to them. So frightened were the Eisenhower-Warren political clique that they had a man pinched who had travelled all the way from San Francisco to Washington to swear to charges and submit them for "evaluation." So they got in their smear in advance and put their own "evaluation" on their own accusations which have not been "evaluated" and never will be.

This is a sad situation. Warren is an inveterate politician and probably will continue to be the boss of a mighty and, in many aspects, sinister political machine in one of the key states of American politics. He is not a Republican even in name, having compromised his political allegiance by the debilitating device of "cross-filing," which is a highly developed political leukemia in California. By cross-filing, partisan political lines are dissolved and the parties are reduced to the status of mere rival groups of the same cells feasting on the vitality of the state.

We already have a very bad Supreme Court.

Felix Frankfurter established his covert political machine within the bureaucracy early in the New Deal. His disciples included Alger Hiss who turned out to be, by implication, upon his conviction, the worst proven traitor in the history of the nation. Benedict Arnold had some excuses to offer which have been entertained by historians, but Hiss had none. Frankfurter also appointed his old friend Henry L. Stimson to be secretary of war under F. D. Roosevelt, as Harold Ickes revealed in a pot-boiler written for the Saturday Evening Post years ago.

It should be unthinkable that any justice of this court would take the furtive political part which Frankfurter has played all these years. Yet such is the effect of the brain-washing that we have been put to that our morals and ethics are faded almost to obliteration. Nobody had the moral decency and gumption to revolt when William O. Douglas appeared as principal speaker before a national convention of the insurrectionary CIO, giving political advice to that frequent litigant before the bar which I would be the last to say that he honors or adorns.

Douglas also got into scandalous wife trouble inconsistent with the court's tradition and took an "award" of $1,000 from a "foundation" bearing the name of Sidney Hillman who had been identified as a Communist and thus an enemy of the constitution which Douglas is sworn to uphold. If that testimony against Hillman be rejected as "irresponsible and unevaluated" there is abundant verified proof that Hillman did business with the Soviet government not primarily for the benefit of the United States but primarily and solely for the benefit of Russia.

Now we get a chief justice who never sat a day on any bench in all his life, whose administration and legislative programs as governor have been exaggerations of the Roosevelt socialism and who has created an organization, sensitive to his own hand, which controls a vast system of patronage and dictates the legislative program of California and will do so for years to come.

The people who hoped to oppose Warren before the Senate were true Republicans of the state of California who fought him and were beaten by a margin furnished by the Socialist-Democratic, and Communist elements of the state. Now the real Republicans are crushed and Eisenhower scorns them for keeping the Republican faith.

Warren is more popular by far with these Socialists, Democrats and Communists than he is with the Republicans. That fact may have no value in deciding whether he is fit to be chief justice. But should a man be confirmed who is running a political machine and punishing a roster of political enemies who might come before him seeking justice, dependant on his character for impartial justice? On the basis of his career in California they have understandable misgivings.

If it is an "un-American" resort to foul play to examine a man's fitness in the face of "unsworn and unevaluated" charges, what would you say about unsworn and unevaluated pap and praise by authors in papers which attempt to absolve themselves of responsibility for such matter?

Here is the "unappraised" evaluation of Earl Warren written by Inez Robb, late of International News, who recently went over to Roy Howard. She says, in rather obscure syntax, that these charges "couldn't have happened to a nicer man." He is "admirable" and his "excellent performance is on the record." Inez says Warren had a right to face his accuser, although his accuser did try to face him and was pinched on an old indictment which was dug up only when he appeared to accuse Warren.

Inez says the "unsworn and unevaluated charges" against Warren are ridiculous. Conceding that, only for the sake of argument, are they any more ridiculous or any less responsible than her own unsworn and unevaluated personal opinions for which she gives not the slightest basis? A "nice" man, an "admirable" man by her standards may be all of that. But what are her standards and what about some proof to support the "evaluation"?

Drew Pearson's praises are self-defeating for notorious reasons and are suffered with fear and apprehension by most victims of his approval. He went so far as to call Warren "much revered" and to condemn the accusers as "cranks," a term applied to Benjamin Franklin, John Brown and Doctor Wirt, of Gary, who called the turn on the Kerensky phase of the Communist infestation of the first New Deal. We must now watch for mole-hills leading to the office of the chief justice.

Neither the accusers, nor the irresponsible authors of unappraised laudation are at worst fault here. The worst offender sits in the editorial office of the great American press.

NEW LIDICE

The Communists in Indo China are committing atrocities which are reminiscent of those perpetrated by the Nazis in World War II in Europe. Recently Red raiders, disguised as peasants, made their way into a village in a strongly Catholic area. They broke into the church, smashed the altar and set fire to it. Then they proceeded to destroy the village and kill as many inhabitants as they could find. Over 1,400 people were killed in cold blood.

It becomes more and more difficult to see how any sane, thinking individual can give his approval to communism. The acts in Indo China were in the traditions of barbarism, defying understanding or sense. Their only gain was to spread terror.

This is the work of those who say that they want to help the poor and the oppressed. This is the fruit of a philosophy which started with a cry for men to "throw off their chains." Here, naked for all the world to see, is the true nature of communism.

During World War II the Nazis who conquered Czechoslovakia embarked on a similar reign of terror. The town of Lidice and all its inhabitants were wiped from the face of the earth. But the memory of Lidice, the slaughter of its innocent people, moved the forces of freedom to fight harder, to steel their resolve to drive the Nazis out. From the atrocities in Indo China the world can take the same inspiration.

This is the time of year when a man looks over his garden, examines his tools and plans the things he must do when spring finally arrives. It is a pleasant enough pastime until it is warm enough to play golf.

A HIGHER PUNISHMENT

A man can sometimes fool the law, hide his guilt from society and escape the ordinary punishments for his crimes or misdeeds. But he can never evade his own conscience. There is nowhere he can go, nothing he can do to still the inner voice that reminds him of what he has done.

Recently a 29-year-old man turned himself in to the police in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and confessed that eighteen years ago he shot a playmate and allowed two other boys to take the blame. He said that he intends to get married and wants to clear his conscience before he does.

The courts will have to determine the extent of his guilt and what will be done with him. But whatever happens to him he faces no worse punishment than that he has endured for the last eighteen years — the knowledge that he was responsible for the death of a fellow human being and that two innocent people were suffering for it.

There is a higher justice than that administered by men and no one can escape it.

Sometimes a controversial proposition is brought up and people say that they heartily approve it, but that this is not quite the time to bring it up. What they mean is likely to be that they are against it but do not think it best to say so.

SPRING TRAINING

The icy winds may blow, snow may fall, and weather experts may predict blustery days ahead. To the baseball fan, however, the gloomy winter is behind, the day of the "singing of the birds is at hand." Major League baseball teams have begun their annual spring training program for the season ahead.

It has been a long winter for the fans, a time barren of conversational topics. A few governments fell in Italy and France, a Big Four Conference was held in Berlin, a great debate raged in Congress over the Bricker Amendment. But of what interest is this to a man who wonders whether the Yankees will win the pennant again this year or whether his favorite team will get off to a good start?

The robins may arrive in the North late this year, the first flowers of spring may still be a long way off. But to the baseball fan the winter is over and as soon as the season gets under way all will be right with the world.

'These Days'

THE GENEVA CONFERENCE

A new device has been added to international diplomacy, namely, world government by a chain of conferences outside the United Nations. To date, not a single decisive international question has been decided by the United Nations, unless one assumes that such a matter as the establishment of Israel is decisive.

The Geneva Conference is one of these outside arrangements called to solve both the Korean and Indochinese affairs and undoubtedly to determine the relations between Red China and the United States.

The reported agreement between the United States and Soviet Russia that the subject of a seat for Red China will not be discussed at Geneva is meaningless. The Russians were not to bring the subject up at Berlin but they did.

As a matter of fact, a propaganda is now going the rounds in this country to soften up the American people to recognize Red China de facto and to agree to a seat for Red China in the United Nations. The same big names are being used as have for year been used to convince Americans to do the wrong things which have proved so costly not only in prestige and wealth but in the lives of our sons.

The argument runs:

1. Some say: let us be practical and realistic. Red China is there. So we have to deal with them.

(The United States did not recognize Soviet Russia from 1917 to 1933. Both countries survived.)

2. Some say: I hate Red China for her barbarous treatment of our troops, but we cannot settle anything in Asia without Red China. So let us recognize Red China.

(It has been experience in every conference since Teheran in 1943 that when a concession is made to the Soviet Universal State, a new situation develops which requires further concessions. Could Mr. Dulles or anyone else guarantee that if the European and Indochinese issues were resolved, that a Burmese, an Indonesian, or an Indian situation would not immediately be developed?)

3. Some say: if we recognize Red China and give her a seat in the United Nations, a split will develop between Red China and Soviet Russia and the United States can wean Red China away from Soviet Russia.

(The Chinese Communist Movement was organized in 1920 at the Baku Congress of Nations of the Orient. Most of its leaders are Russian trained and are firm adherents to the Marxist Church. They have been loyal to the Kremlin, taking strict orders from it since 1923 when Michael Borodin was sent to China to reorganize the revolution on a Marxist basis. There is not a scintilla of evidence that any change in attitude has taken place. In fact, the writings and speeches of Mao Tze-tung and Chou En-lai confirm the loyalty of Red China to the Kremlin. Those who believe a schism possible do not understand the nature of the Soviet Universal State in its current manifestations.)

The line for recognition will be accented during the next month to pave the way for whatever decision comes out of the Geneva Conference. This does not mean that John Foster Dulles favors the recognition of Red China or the seating of that country in the United Nations. It does mean that, for all practical purposes, the United States has become isolated. Dean Acheson kept unwilling nations to a plausible line by a bribery that cost this country roughly $6,000,000,000 a year. John Foster Dulles cannot continue these subventions because the money is not available.

He maintained a front with Great Britain and France at Berlin by making the concession of agreeing to the Geneva Conference. He cannot know, and nobody can know, what combination of countries he will encounter at Geneva, what forces of neutralism, of open or covert enmity he may face among our former friends who want to make up their lost American subventions by an East-West Trade that can develop into Russian subventions. Our diplomatic advantages have deteriorated since our failure in Korea more than the American people have been permitted to know. But Dulles knows and his anxieties must be great indeed.

Once Red China wins a seat in the United Nations, the Soviet Universal State will have won its second greatest victory. (The first great victory was when George Marshall, by an unfortunate truce maneuver, opened the way for the conquest of China by Russia.)

That Body of Yours

THE DAILY FOOD NEEDS OF THE BODY

During World War 2 it was found that some workers in a large airplane factory seemed so tired about 11 o'clock in the morning that the employers found it necessary to give them a rest. An investigation revealed that these tired workers not only ate a small breakfast but the breakfast contained little or no protein foods—meat, eggs, fish. When protein foods were added to their breakfasts it was found that they were able to work until the noon hour without becoming fatigued.

Another important finding by research workers is that many men and women feel very tired at quitting time. Naturally, the first thought is that he or she needs rest, plenty of rest, before the evening meal. On the contrary, our research workers find that these workers need food, that the feeling of fatigue is due to hunger and not to tiredness.

We are inclined to smile at the many meals our British friends eat in a day. I have written before that the meals eaten by the British in some cases number seven or eight in a day, yet if the amount of food is measured, it would be found to be no more than that eaten by Americans in three meals. Also, the reason the Englishman does not have that "lean and hungry look" on his face is because of the extra food, in small quantities, that he eats daily.

The amount of food your body needs in a day depends upon the amount of work or activity of the body during the 24 hours. Our food, or nourishment, experts estimate that the amount of food the body needs just to carry on its normal work—pumping blood through the blood vessels, supplying heat and energy, supplying the various organs and glands with nourishment they need — amounts to about 80 per cent (four-fifths) of the food intake. For example, the amount of food needed by the housewife or office worker averages from 2,200 to 3,500 calories daily whereas that needed by the individual doing hard physical work could be as much as 4,000 to 6,000 calories.

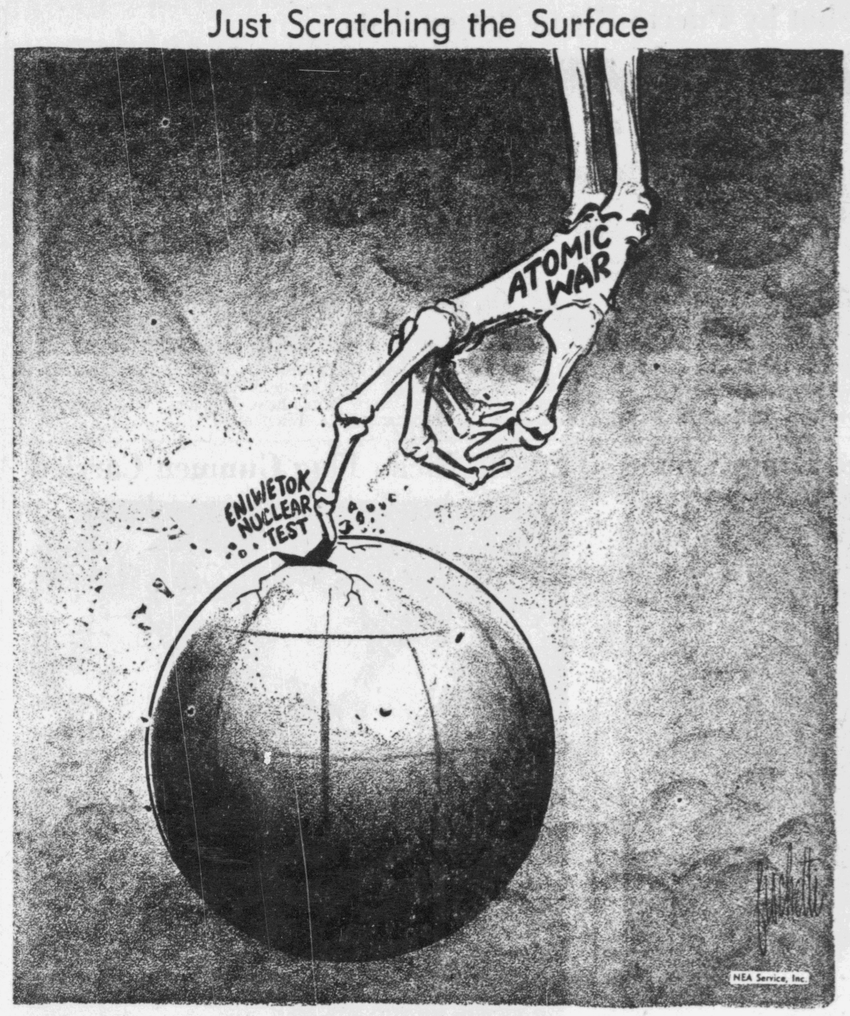

Thus we get a general idea of the food we need by the amount and type of work we do. We should all take some of all the various foodstuffs daily, making sure of eating some protein foods every day, not forgetting the minerals and vitamins. Four of the nine important minerals that should be eaten daily are calcium, phosphorus, iron and iodine. Some of all the vitamins should be eaten daily, especially vitamin B1, B2, and vitamin B complex

Washington (NEA) — As a sample of the things Capital society gossips about in this town where talk is the leading industry, here are a few snatches of information overheard at a Washington cocktail party:

In addition to about three dozen paper valentines that came into the White House for America's new sweetheart—Mamie Eisenhower — there were several handkerchiefs—and aprons.

Mrs. Harold Burton is one of the most "hat-happy" women in Washington. The wife of the Supreme Court justice manages to keep quite a sizable collection of chapeaux, even though the Burtons live in a hotel suite. Mrs. Burton merely piles the hat boxes one on the top of the other, along one wall.

Within 60 days after the attempt to assassinate President Truman, the convention of the National Committe of the American Communist Party on December 28, 1950, in New York city—the last of the Communist Party conclaves to be held—had in it a Puerto Rican Communist delegation and this declaration was made:

"We place the responsibility for the bloodshed on Harry S. Truman and on his watchdog—Munoz-Marin (present governor)."

The resident commissioner of Puerto Rico in Congress, A. Fernosisern, who has a seat but no vote, declared after the attempt to shoot up the U. S. House of Representatives that the whole thing was a "Communist plot" because even the extreme Nationalists knew there was no real issue about Puerto Rican independence. For commonwealth status has been granted, and the decision as to severance of all ties with the United States is in the hands of the Puerto Rican voters themselves. So he concluded that something else entered into the situation—a Communist effort to produce disharmony.

Certainly as the Latin-American conference is about to convene in Venezuela, it is natural for the Communists to make a demonstration in the hope of convincing the Latin countries generally that the United States is oppressing a Spanish-inhabited country—a kind of "colonialism."

The shooting in the House chamber came as a shock in more ways than the dramatic occurrence itself would indicate on its face. For it suddenly awakened official Washington in all its branches to the fact that the Communist menace cannot be pooh-poohed. Those who have insisted that security measures hereabouts were superfluous now will feel differently about it, and the one place where there has been great laxity—in and around Congress—may at last get the protection it has always needed.

The Puerto Rican Nationalists, like their brethren in the fanatical fold in other countries, are dupes of the Communists. The Nationalists start out with an emotional crusade in the cause of freedom and independence and are egged on by Communist agents who furnish the money and the brains for intrigue.

At first it was discounted, for instance, that the Nationalists in Iran had any connection with the Communists. But later on the plot became clear. In Guatemala today, the Nationalists insist that they are on their own in their "anti-imperialist" campaigns which take the form of bitter anti-Americanism. But the Communists are in the background. The British government saw through the pretense when the same cry was raised in British Guiana.

For the Communists are fishing in troubled waters everywhere—in Egypt, Tunisia, Syria, French Morocco, India, Japan, the Philippines, Indonesia and, of course, in Indochina, where they have taken over the movement for independence from the French.

Nationalism is a spontaneous affair as a rule but the Communists furnish the guiding brains and supply the terrorists to complicate the situation. The murderous attack on the American Congress may have an effect opposite to that which Communist forces inside the United States counted on—it may stiffen the resistance and bring about the passage of even more restrictive measures than are now on the statute books with reference to the freedom of movement in America of Communists and fellow-travelers who play a part in the Communist infiltration techniques.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, March 2 — The frantic abuse of all who dared to challenge the fitness of Earl Warren is a black mark against the great American free press. This disgusting squabble should have been conducted as a decent debate on an important matter. But someone hit upon the phrase "unsworn and unevaluated" to discredit the case against Warren.

Sure the charges were "unsworn and unevaluated" but the accusers were pleading for a chance to swear to them. So frightened were the Eisenhower-Warren political clique that they had a man pinched who had travelled all the way from San Francisco to Washington to swear to charges and submit them for "evaluation." So they got in their smear in advance and put their own "evaluation" on their own accusations which have not been "evaluated" and never will be.

This is a sad situation. Warren is an inveterate politician and probably will continue to be the boss of a mighty and, in many aspects, sinister political machine in one of the key states of American politics. He is not a Republican even in name, having compromised his political allegiance by the debilitating device of "cross-filing," which is a highly developed political leukemia in California. By cross-filing, partisan political lines are dissolved and the parties are reduced to the status of mere rival groups of the same cells feasting on the vitality of the state.

We already have a very bad Supreme Court.

Felix Frankfurter established his covert political machine within the bureaucracy early in the New Deal. His disciples included Alger Hiss who turned out to be, by implication, upon his conviction, the worst proven traitor in the history of the nation. Benedict Arnold had some excuses to offer which have been entertained by historians, but Hiss had none. Frankfurter also appointed his old friend Henry L. Stimson to be secretary of war under F. D. Roosevelt, as Harold Ickes revealed in a pot-boiler written for the Saturday Evening Post years ago.

It should be unthinkable that any justice of this court would take the furtive political part which Frankfurter has played all these years. Yet such is the effect of the brain-washing that we have been put to that our morals and ethics are faded almost to obliteration. Nobody had the moral decency and gumption to revolt when William O. Douglas appeared as principal speaker before a national convention of the insurrectionary CIO, giving political advice to that frequent litigant before the bar which I would be the last to say that he honors or adorns.

Douglas also got into scandalous wife trouble inconsistent with the court's tradition and took an "award" of $1,000 from a "foundation" bearing the name of Sidney Hillman who had been identified as a Communist and thus an enemy of the constitution which Douglas is sworn to uphold. If that testimony against Hillman be rejected as "irresponsible and unevaluated" there is abundant verified proof that Hillman did business with the Soviet government not primarily for the benefit of the United States but primarily and solely for the benefit of Russia.

Now we get a chief justice who never sat a day on any bench in all his life, whose administration and legislative programs as governor have been exaggerations of the Roosevelt socialism and who has created an organization, sensitive to his own hand, which controls a vast system of patronage and dictates the legislative program of California and will do so for years to come.

The people who hoped to oppose Warren before the Senate were true Republicans of the state of California who fought him and were beaten by a margin furnished by the Socialist-Democratic, and Communist elements of the state. Now the real Republicans are crushed and Eisenhower scorns them for keeping the Republican faith.

Warren is more popular by far with these Socialists, Democrats and Communists than he is with the Republicans. That fact may have no value in deciding whether he is fit to be chief justice. But should a man be confirmed who is running a political machine and punishing a roster of political enemies who might come before him seeking justice, dependant on his character for impartial justice? On the basis of his career in California they have understandable misgivings.

If it is an "un-American" resort to foul play to examine a man's fitness in the face of "unsworn and unevaluated" charges, what would you say about unsworn and unevaluated pap and praise by authors in papers which attempt to absolve themselves of responsibility for such matter?

Here is the "unappraised" evaluation of Earl Warren written by Inez Robb, late of International News, who recently went over to Roy Howard. She says, in rather obscure syntax, that these charges "couldn't have happened to a nicer man." He is "admirable" and his "excellent performance is on the record." Inez says Warren had a right to face his accuser, although his accuser did try to face him and was pinched on an old indictment which was dug up only when he appeared to accuse Warren.

Inez says the "unsworn and unevaluated charges" against Warren are ridiculous. Conceding that, only for the sake of argument, are they any more ridiculous or any less responsible than her own unsworn and unevaluated personal opinions for which she gives not the slightest basis? A "nice" man, an "admirable" man by her standards may be all of that. But what are her standards and what about some proof to support the "evaluation"?

Drew Pearson's praises are self-defeating for notorious reasons and are suffered with fear and apprehension by most victims of his approval. He went so far as to call Warren "much revered" and to condemn the accusers as "cranks," a term applied to Benjamin Franklin, John Brown and Doctor Wirt, of Gary, who called the turn on the Kerensky phase of the Communist infestation of the first New Deal. We must now watch for mole-hills leading to the office of the chief justice.

Neither the accusers, nor the irresponsible authors of unappraised laudation are at worst fault here. The worst offender sits in the editorial office of the great American press.

Vatican Flags Fly To Honor Pius XII

Vatican City, March 2 (AP)—The Vatican's white and golden flags flew today in honor of the 78th birthday and 15th anniversary of the pontificate of Pope Pius XII, reported maintaining his slow recovery from a long illness.

Messages from all parts of the world poured into the Vatican, greeting the frail pontiff and expressing wishes for his full recovery from the abdominal ailment that has confined him to his apartment for 36 days.

In Rome's St. Mary major basilica, the world's oldest shrine to the Virgin Mary and the place in which the Pope said his own first Mass 54 years ago, thousands attended a high Mass for his recovery.

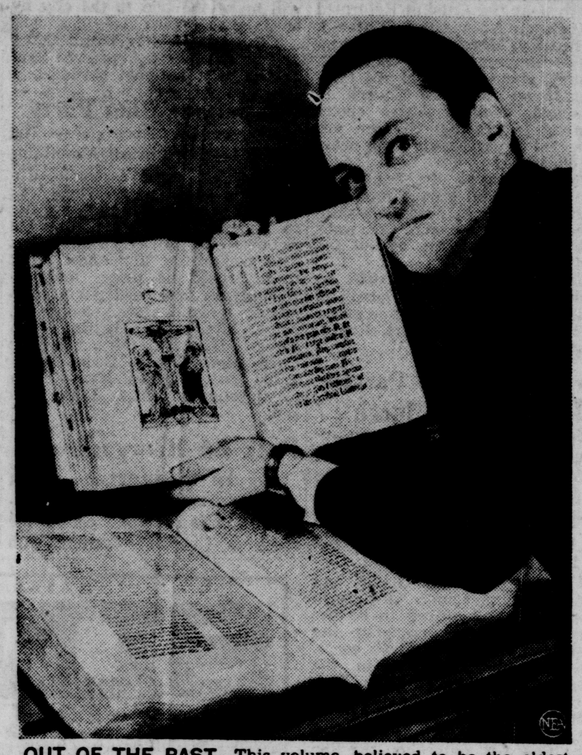

The Mass was celebrated by the Pope's vicar for Rome, Clemente Cardinal Micara, as one of the final services in three days of special prayer and other spiritual offerings in the city's 500 churches for recovery of the Pope, the bishop of Rome.

The weakening ailment which struck the Pope Jan. 25 has been tentatively diagnosed as gastritis. A more specific diagnosis will be made, doctors said, as soon as it is possible to take X-rays of the Pope's stomach walls and adjoining organs. This has not yet been possible because the Pope cannot retain barium solution necessary for X-rays.

The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano gave some hope yesterday it will be possible to make the X-ray examination in the near future. It described the Pope's general condition as good though "due to the nature of the illness, improvement proceeds very slowly."

Volumes Are Presented

Rangoon, Burma, March 2 (AP)—The United States gave Burma's Supreme Court 300 volumes of U. S. Supreme Court decisions today. The books cover American high court rulings from 1790 through 1951. Chief Justice U Thein Maung welcomed the gift as a "gesture fo goodwill and friendship" which he said would be of great assistance to his court.

OUT OF THE PAST—This volume, believed to be the oldest typographic book known, probably turned out by Johann Gutenberg more than 500 years ago, is now in New York's Pierpont Morgan Library. It's a 376-page book containing all the major masses and was printed for the Roman Catholic diocese of Constance, Germany. Frederick B. Adams, Jr., director of the library, holds the Constance missal above a case containing a Gutenberg Bible. Adams says it is the most important printed book ever acquired by an American library.

Evangelist Opens 12-Week Crusade

London, March 2 (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham opened his 12-week crusade for a spiritual reawakening in Britain with a revival service last night that drew a full house of 12,000 into London's Harringay sports arena. Thousands were unable to get in.

The 35-year-old American, in a blue lounge suit with a small microphone at a lapel, held the throng spellbound with an impassioned sermon in which he repeatedly asked, "does God matter?"

He led the gathering in Bible recitations and hymns.

Toward the end Graham called for persons ready to acknowledge Jesus Christ to come forward and between 500 and 600 filed down the 25 aisles to confess their faith in a separate auditorium.

"So many, so many, thank God," said Graham, with head bowed.

Graham appeared on the rostrum twice, the first to present two United States senators, Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) and Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), who are in London on an official tour. Bridges merely bowed. Symington told the throng Graham is a spiritual ambassador who does great credit to the United States.

Naguib Cuts Short His Visit to Sudan

Khartoum, Sudan, March 2 (AP)—Egyptian President Mohamed Naguib cut short his visit to Khartoum, peaceful after riots that cost 31 lives, and flew back to Cairo today.

He told newsmen he planned to return March 10 to attend the postponed opening of the Sudan's first Parliament "if circumstances permit."

Newly restored as Egypt's chief executive, Gen. Naguib came here yesterday for the opening of the Parliament, born of the promise the territory by 1956 could choose its own course after a half century under the joint rule of Egypt and Britain.

But rioting by more than 30,000 demonstrators, agitating for and against Naguib, was so violent the ceremony had to be postponed. A British police colonel and 17 policemen were among the dead. More than 100 persons were injured.

A state of emergency was declared after police gunfire stopped spear-wielding Sudanese tribesmen from invading the house of Governor General Sir Robert Howe, a Briton, where Naguib was staying.

Shops reopened in Khartoum today and the population went about its usual business.

Police said 32 tribal leaders of the UMMA Independence Party, which trailed the pro-Egyptian National Unity Party in the parliamentary election, were arrested for questioning. The National Unity Party hopes to link the Sudan's million square miles and 8¾ million people with Egypt.

Plane Crash Kills Two at Teterboro

Teterboro, N. J., March 2 (AP)—A single-engined plane spun into a crash in the center of busy Rt. 46 last night, narrowly missing three cars and killing the pilot and his passenger.

The Beechcraft Bonanza, which was coming in for a landing at Teterboro Airport, exploded and burst into flames seconds after it crashed on the safety island in the middle of the highway.

One occupant was hurled onto the highway. The other perished in the flaming cockpit of the plane.

The victims were identified as Marshall L. Lockhart, 43, of Rutherford, owner of the plane, and Salvator Patremio, 30, of Fair Lawn.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration launched an immediate investigation of the crash.

Lockhart was described as a veteran pilot and an inventor of pharmaceutical products.

There are more than 3,000 islands in the Republic of Indonesia.

India Paper Says Aid Might End

New Delhi, India, March 2 (AP)—The influential Times of India speculated today on the possibility of an end to American economic aid to India—and departure of U. S. advisers—following Prime Minister Nehru's bitter attack on President Eihenhower and U. S. military aid to Parkistan.

The Times' front page comment said the Communists "feel that the next logical step (after Nehru's outburst yesterday) would be to ask all Americans to quit India, including those employed in development projects."

But the paper said other sections of parliamentary opinion "caution against hasty action and would await American and other reactions before taking the next step."

Asked for comment, a foreign office spokesman said the American aid to Pakistan "probably will not have any affect" on India's attitude toward U. S. economic aid to this country.

Children's Village To Have Psychiatrist

New York, March 2 (AP)—Children's Village at Dobbs Ferry, which has been under fire from suburban newcomers in the area, announced a new program yesterday including a psychiatrist in charge of training.

The announcement was made at a news conference by B. A. Tompkins, president of the board of the village.

The school is a privately-operated institution for problem children, ranging from those committed by courts following delinqency, to maladjusted children sent to the school by their families, and children from broken homes.

The new program followed a year-long survey by the Child Welfare League of America, after citizens in surrounding towns had been aroused by several incidents involving boys from the school.

Children's Village was moved from Manhattan to the Westchester county site 50 years ago, when the area was virtually uninhabited.

Now, however, the surrounding area has been built up with suburban developments.

Sawkill, March 2—The regular end-of-the month dance was held at the firehouse Saturday evening under the co-sponsorship of the Sawkill Fire Company and auxiliary. Music by the Hilltoppers, Roland Drolet and Max Wunderlich of Binnewater.

The Women's Auxiliary will hold their regular monthly meeting at the fire house Wednesday at 8 p. m. All members and any other interested women of the community and fire district are invited. Membership fees for the current year are due, and may be given to the treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Malone, at the meeting, or at her home in the village.

The fire company will have its regluar monthly meeting at the fire house on Monday, March 8, at 8 p. m. All members and any other interested men of the community and fire district are invited.

The Sawkill Fire Company was called out on Saturday, shortly before noon, in response to a call from the Central Fire Station, Kingston, who had received a report of a fire on Hallahan's Hill. Upon investigation it was found to be a rubbish fire on private property, under control.

The Sawkill Unit of the Ulster County Home Bureau will hold its regular monthly meeting at the school house on Tuesday, March 2 at 8 p. m. The meeting will be a business and social one. The program for the forth coming year will be planned. The basketry classes of the unit have been completed and a final report will be given at Tuesday's meeting. There will be a bus trip to New York for the Easter Pageant in early April. Reservations will have to be made by anyone interested in going. Further information will be given about this trip at the meeting. Refreshments will be served. The Sawkill Unit meets the first Tuesday of each month at the school house, 8 p. m.

70-Year-Old Malden RR Station Is Sold

Saugerties, March 1—The 70-year-old town landmark, the Malden station on the West Shore line, was sold Friday according to Peter P. Stoly, the new owner.

Stoly said he had been notified by the West Shore Division of the New York Central Railroad that his bid for the structure had been accepted.

The first station, much smaller than the present structure was erected in 1883. The present building on the site was constructed in 1909. The Malden station was officially closed January 6 when the railroad announced that cost of operation could not be supported by traffic at this point. At that time John Nolan, station agent, announced his retirement after 48 years of service with the New York Central System.

One source disclosed there were three other bids but they were so low the railroad did not even consider them.

Stoly said he is making arrangements to have the building moved to his property where he conducts a fuel and appliance business. The distance to be covered from the present site to the Stoly lot is estimated as less than 1,500 feet.

The station will be remodeled into a showroom for stoves, refrigerators and various other products handled by the firm. The actual moving will take place within the next two weeks. Stoly has been in contact with various excavators who handle work of this nature.

Year-round Skating Schedule Formulated

Saugerties, March 1—At the Saugerties Youth Council meeting Friday evening with Chairman Peter Williams presiding plans were formulated to provide year-round skating for the youth of Saugerties.

Action was taken by the council to have the rink across from the high school covered with blacktopping for roller skating when weather no longer permitted ice skating. Williams said he had made contacts with two asphalt companies.

The council also agreed to contact the board of education to confirm availability of this property for roller skating. It was decided that proper drainage facilities would have to be provided so the area could be flooded in the winter and drained in the warmer months.

Mrs. Albert L. Giannotti in charge of producing the minstrel show reported progress. The show will be presented March 10 and 11. Tickets are now on sale.

Mrs. Giannotti was also given permission by the council to hold a special party for members of the cast following the final performance.

The council approved sponsorship of a baseball team to enter the Babe Ruth League. They authorized expenditure of $75 for expenses.

No action was reported in regard to insurance coverage for council-sponsored sporting events. The matter will be held over until the next meeting scheduled for March 25.

Combined Lenten Services Planned

Saugerties, March 1 — The congregations of the Saugerties Reformed and the Saugerties Methodist Churches are planning to hold combined Lenten services starting on Ash Wednesday, March 3.

The services will alternate between the two parishes starting on Ash Wednesday at the Saugerties Reformed Church. The Rev. George Werner, pastor of the Methodist Church, will conduct the service at that time. The theme will be The Reason for the Cross.

The following Wednesday the services will be conducted in the Saugerties Methodist Church with the Rev. Harold Pangburn, pastor of the Reformed Church in charge.

This general pattern will continue until April 11 when an Easter drama will be presented under the direction of Robert Russell. The title will be Into Thy Kingdom and will be at the Reformed Church.

All services are scheduled for 7:30 p. m.

Norway Sardine Omelet Can Make Tasty Lenten Lunch

NORWAY SARDINE OMELET, garnished with pimiento rings and lemon slices, makes delicious meatless main dish.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Lent begins tomorrow. We asked Joseph Castaybert, executive chef of the St. Regis Hotel in New York, one of our favorite places to dine out, to invent some meatless main dishes for our readers. He obliged with these two:

Norway Sardine Omelet
(2 generous servings)

One (3¾-oounce) can Norway sardines, 6 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 small sprig parsley, finely chopped, ½ peeled lemon, sliced; 1 canned red pimiento, cut in circlets.

Mix the eggs with a fork and add the salt. Do not beat the eggs too stiffly. Place butter in skillet and let it become brown to make the eggs congeal quickly. Place the eggs in the butter and stir briskly with a fork. Roll the omelet into an elliptical shape—it should be creamy inside, unless desired well done. Arrange on platter or small baking dish with half a can of Norway sardines at each end. Pour a little melted butter on the sardines. Garnish with slices of peeled lemon, chopped parsley and circlets of red pimineto. Serve hot.

Sardines Vivandiere
(Serves 2)

One (3¾-ounce) can Norway sardines, 1 medium-size zucchini, cut in half; 1 cup of stewed tomatoes (fresh or canned), ½ cup tomato sauce, small boiled potatoes, 1 ounce butter.

Open and strain the sardines. Saute in butter. Saute the zucchini in olive oil from the sardines. Cook and place in shallow dish. Pour stewed tomatoes on zucchini and arrange sardines on top. Garnish with small Parisienne boiled parsleyed potatoes. Serve very hot. Tomato sauce is served separately.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Tomato juice, Norway sardine omelet, boiled new potatoes with parsley butter, green beans with almonds, crusty bread, butter or margarine, cabbage and grapefruit salad, frosted angel food cake, tea, coffee, milk.

Bills in Legislature

Albany, March 2 (AP)—The Senate has passed a proposal to scrap red tape that might hinder an area's defense against sneak attack.

It endorsed a bill last night that would allow the state's counties and cities to combine, without having signed mutual aid agreements, for defense against attack.

The Senate also approved extension of the state's Civil Defense Act for another year—until July 1, 1955. The law gives the governor sweeping powers if an enemy should attack.

The present law specifies that community's civil defense forces, called to help another locality's defense, would keep their powers and privileges only if a mutual aid agreement had been signed.

The bill, sponsored by Republican Sen. Frank E. Van Lare of Rochester, specified that broad orders of the state CD Commission would cover such situations, regardless of whether mutual aid pacts had been signed.

The Assembly voted to let village trustees set four-year terms for themselves and their mayors, subject to approval of the voters.

By a 139-7 vote, the Assembly voted to change the present statute, which limits village mayors and trustees to two-year terms.

The Senate gave final approval to a measure that would allow a railroad's trustees—or its receiver or trustees if it is bankrupt—to abandon all or any of its lines with permission of the Pubic Service Commission.

Under the bill sponsored by Assemblyman Elisha A. Barrett, Suffolk county Republican, the PSC could take such action only if the abandonment were in the public interest.

The Senate also endorsed a bill by Republican Sen. Edward P. Larkin of Queens that would allow appointment of deputy town attorneys. The deputies would be removable at the pleasure of the town board.

Learn to Handle The Psychic Bid

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Today I present another quotation from my brand-new book "What's New in Bridge." The subject of the double is not altogether new, but it is the most important single feature of anybody's bidding, so it will be of interest to my readers even if it isn't completely new to them.

Perhaps an opponent occasionally slips in a psychic overcall against you. When you spot the psychic, you can usually show it up by doubling for penalties. In this situation, however, double only what you can beat.

Let's note an example in today's hand.

When South bids three diamonds, West should pass. He has already shown the nature of his hand by doubling two hearts and three clubs. The failure to double three diamonds will now be highly informative to East.

This pass will go against the grain with most bridge players. They have the smell of blood in their nostrols, and they pile right into South's trap.

South is delighted to play the hand at three diamonds doubled.

He starts with eight trump tricks and hopes to find a trick in his partner's hand. If the North hand is trickless, South is content to be set one trick (with his honors as an offset against the penalty) rather than allow East-West to bid and make a game.

If West doubles three diamonds, East must accept the double. For all he knows, West may have strength in all three of the suits that he has doubled.

If West passes, East must act. He cannot double, for he likewise has no double of a diamond contract. It isn't easy for him to find the right bid, since South's shenanigans have disrupted the auction.

East's best bid is three hearts, treating West's double as the equivalent of a heart bid. But if East merely bids three spades, West will probably bid four hearts and take a chance that there is a sound game contract at either spades or hearts.

January Savings Come Close to Record Figures

Savings volume in New York's 237 savings associations came to near-record proportions in January, David Ford, president of the Savings Association League of New York State, announced today.

"Our institutions accepted $100,632,755 in new savings last month," Ford said. "It was the second best month in the entire history of our New York State savings associations."

The League official observed that while savers withdrew $84,390,275 of their funds in January, a net gain of $16,242,480 was recorded.

"Total savings in these thrift and home financing institutions now stand at $1,924,876,999," Ford said.

The net gain in savings for the twelve-month period ending January 31 amounted to $245,610,474, Mr. Ford said, as compared with an increase of $238,807,422 during the same period a year before. "This represents an annual rate of gain of 14.6 per cent — exactly two percentage points under the rate of gain for the twelve-month period ended January 31, 1953."

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

I wonder how many folks remember when Harry Lazarus, owner of the Pine Hill Playhouse at Albany, leased the Auditorium Theatre in the YMCA building back in March of 1923. It seems the Hathaway Theatre people held a lease for the building some six or seven years at the time, but the YMCA management was able to make better terms with Lazarus. According to a telephone conversation with Lazarus at the time, he had intention of closing the building around May 1st and make extensive improvements. "The stairs leading from the street to the main part of the auditorium to be repaired, the entire interior of the auditorium to be renovated, a new screen to be put up, and up to date projecting machines to be installed." After which Mr. Lazarus said he would try to get the best pictures available. As I remember it was largely through his efforts that the Broadway Theatre was built later.

Burning dumps have taken the front page of the local paper for years. I see back in the Kingston Freeman and Journal of Friday, March 2, 1923, the "Clinton avenue dump was on fire. The members of the Wiltwyck Hose Co. were called out on a still alarm and found the dump on the Merritt property on upper Clinton avenue burning briskly with heavy smoke covering the entire area. "For a long time the property has been used for dumping purposes and the lowlands have been gradually filled in with rubbish of all kinds. At frequent intervals for the past couple of years the buried refuse has taken fire and caused the firemen a great deal of work and the residents of that section much annoyance."

Back in 1923 when the matter was brought to the attention of the Board of Public Works and Fire Chief Chipp, he advised that the more water used the greater would be the stench and the only remedy at that time was thought to be to tear apart the dump and allow a circulation of air." This time in March of 1923 water was used and aided the condition somewhat but then again it began to burn with a large volume of odor and smoke. "On top of the dump is a large quantity of snow which has been dumped there during the winter and this makes the work of the firemen still more difficult, the item related. Some 30 years have passed and especially in summer one can still smell the dump burning when crossing the West Shore section in the center of town. It must be very trying on folks trying to sleep with a bit of fresh air and instead get that smoke filled air, here in our famous Catskill mountain region. No doubt the problem will be solved in the very near future. Scientists have done wonders with more trying problems in the past years.

Those who don't believe me that years ago taxis ran across the Hudson river from our Ferry street to the other side, please look on page 9 of the Kingston Freeman of Feb. 16, 1923. Item reads in part: "Since the ferry 'Transport' made its last trip of the winter, Monday, the taxi men of the city are running their autos across the Hudson river on the ice. They are using the regular parking space at the Rhinebeck ferry. Those who intend crossing the river in a taxi should alight from the trolley car at the ferry shed. There are quite a few persons who prefer to walk across the ice instead of taking a cab." As I remember, Morris Miller ran a cab across the Hudson in those days. Most of the old timers remember it.

French Reading Little

Paris (AP)—The French are supposedly an intellectual people but spend only 14 cents a year for books, compared to an average $7 spent by Americans. This figure is given by the trade publication "L'Echo de la Press et de la Publicite," which blames the book trade crisis on "the radio, movies, television and sports."

At the time of Cleopatra, rich women made up their eyes by painting the lower lids green and the upper lids black.

Answer the Call — Give to the 1954 Red Cross

This year the American Red Cross is asking for $85 million to finance its home, foreign and disaster services. The Red Cross is stressing that the end of the war in Korea has made no difference in the organization's need for services at home or abroad. Nothing is over but the shooting, and the needs of servicemen, disaster and accident victims, veterans and the general public are unchanged. When you are in any trouble your Red Cross stands ready to help you. Now is the time to answer its call.

HELPING HAND is extended to repatriated POW's as they return to the U. S. In addition to their families, a Red Cross "lady in gray" is there to welcome them. Arrangements for gift telephone and telegraph messages are always on the agenda.

WHEN DISASTER STRIKES Red Cross workers are rushed to the scene. During the June, 1953, tornado, this young girl's chest was crushed by debris. While she was confined to a hospital, a Red Cross nurse was on hand to comfort her.

SAFETY SERVICES have trained millions across the nation in swimming, accident prevention, first aid and water safety. In addition, a new service of planned swimming has made friends among the handicapped and the disabled.

SOLDIER SERVICES must go on regardless if there's a shooting war or not. For thousands of G.I.'s across the world scene, the Red Cross maintains mobile clubs where American soldiers can gather to play and enjoy refreshments.

Lenten Services

Trinity Lutheran

The annual Ash Wednesday service of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Spring and Hone streets, will be held on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. This is the first of a series of mid-week Lenten services which will be held until Easter.

The familiar old Lenten hymns will be sung and Part 1 of the History of the Passion of our Lord will be read. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frank L. Gollnick will preach the first of series of Lenten sermons on the general theme, Holding High the Cross. His topic will be Ash Wednesday.

As has been the custom in past years, there will be a quiet time during the general prayer for individual petitions on the part of the congregation. The service will close with a special Lenten litany sung by the senior choir.

The following musical program has been arranged by Mrs. Willard A. Burke, director of music and Miss Lucinda Merritt, church organist:

Prelude, Hymnus, Truette; solo, The Voice in the Wilderness, Scott, by John Amarello; offertory, Reverie, Liszt; postlude, Allegro, Galbraith.

Church of Redeemer

Tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock the first of a series of midweek Lenten services will be conducted at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Wurts and Rogers streets. The Ash Wednesday service will open with the order for public confession in preparation for the service of Holy Communion which will follow. The Rev. David C. Gaise, pastor of the church, will administer the sacrament and give the communion meditation.

The services which will follow on succeeding Wednesday evenings will be prepared around the following sermon-themes: March 10, Three Disciples; March 17, Three Men; March 24, Three Women; March 31, Three Witnesses; April 7, Repent or Do Penance? The schedule of services during Holy Week will be announced.

Music for these Lenten devotional evenings has been prepared by Leonard Stine, director of the senior choir and Mrs. Lester Decker, the organist at Redeemer Church. Visitors are always welcome.

Clinton Avenue Church

Special midweek services will be held at the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church during Lent. For four Wednesday evenings the Rev. Dr. Clyde Herbert Snell will give a series of addresses under the general theme: "That Strange Symbol: The Cross." The dates and topics of these addresses are as follows: March 3, "Symbol of Faith"; March 17, "Symbol of Power"; March 24, "Symbol of Courage"; March 31, "Symbol of Hope."

A missions service will be held on Thursday evening, March 11, with the Rev. Ernest E. Tuck, D.D., director of the advance program of the Methodist Division of World Missions, as the speaker. And on Wednesday evening, April 7, Miss Olive Gentry, a Christian dramatic artist of unusual ability from Boston, Mass., will present Henry Van Dyke's story entitled, "The Lost Word," in costume.

All of the Wednesday evening services will be held at 7:30 and the service on Thursday evening, March 11, will be at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to all of these special Lenten services.

"Total savings in these thrift and home financing institutions now stand at $1,924,876,999," Ford said.

The net gain in savings for the twelve-month period ending January 31 amounted to $245,610,474, Mr. Ford said, as compared with an increase of $238,807,422 during the same period a year before. "This represents an annual rate of gain of 14.6 per cent — exactly two percentage points under the rate of gain for the twelve-month period ended January 31, 1953."

French Reading Little

Paris (AP)—The French are supposedly an intellectual people but spend only 14 cents a year for books, compared to an average $7 spent by Americans. This figure is given by the trade publication "L'Echo de la Press et de la Publicite," which blames the book trade crisis on "the radio, movies, television and sports."

Lenten Services

Trinity Lutheran

The annual Ash Wednesday service of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Spring and Hone streets, will be held on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. This is the first of a series of mid-week Lenten services which will be held until Easter.

The familiar old Lenten hymns will be sung and Part 1 of the History of the Passion of our Lord will be read. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frank L. Gollnick will preach the first of series of Lenten sermons on the general theme, Holding High the Cross. His topic will be Ash Wednesday.

As has been the custom in past years, there will be a quiet time during the general prayer for individual petitions on the part of the congregation. The service will close with a special Lenten litany sung by the senior choir.

The following musical program has been arranged by Mrs. Willard A. Burke, director of music and Miss Lucinda Merritt, church organist:

Prelude, Hymnus, Truette; solo, The Voice in the Wilderness, Scott, by John Amarello; offertory, Reverie, Liszt; postlude, Allegro, Galbraith.

Church of Redeemer

Tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock the first of a series of midweek Lenten services will be conducted at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Wurts and Rogers streets. The Ash Wednesday service will open with the order for public confession in preparation for the service of Holy Communion which will follow. The Rev. David C. Gaise, pastor of the church, will administer the sacrament and give the communion meditation.

The services which will follow on succeeding Wednesday evenings will be prepared around the following sermon-themes: March 10, Three Disciples; March 17, Three Men; March 24, Three Women; March 31, Three Witnesses; April 7, Repent or Do Penance? The schedule of services during Holy Week will be announced.

Music for these Lenten devotional evenings has been prepared by Leonard Stine, director of the senior choir and Mrs. Lester Decker, the organist at Redeemer Church. Visitors are always welcome.

Clinton Avenue Church

Special midweek services will be held at the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church during Lent. For four Wednesday evenings the Rev. Dr. Clyde Herbert Snell will give a series of addresses under the general theme: "That Strange Symbol: The Cross." The dates and topics of these addresses are as follows: March 3, "Symbol of Faith"; March 17, "Symbol of Power"; March 24, "Symbol of Courage"; March 31, "Symbol of Hope."

A missions service will be held on Thursday evening, March 11, with the Rev. Ernest E. Tuck, D.D., director of the advance program of the Methodist Division of World Missions, as the speaker. And on Wednesday evening, April 7, Miss Olive Gentry, a Christian dramatic artist of unusual ability from Boston, Mass., will present Henry Van Dyke's story entitled, "The Lost Word," in costume.

All of the Wednesday evening services will be held at 7:30 and the service on Thursday evening, March 11, will be at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to all of these special Lenten services.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Motor Club Meets With James Smith

Woodstock, March 2—It was announced at the meeting of the Woodstock Motor Club, Sunday night at the home of James Smith in Glenford, that the club will hold its meeting henceforth at the Woodstock Fish and Game cabin on the Recreation field. The building committee in charge of arrangements for the new quarters were Bob Smith and Doug Franckling.

A new techinal committee is at present being formed, to be in charge of a technical library and to present programs of a technical nature. They will also offer a service of checking the cars, free, for members of the club who enter road rallies.

The following new members were voted into the club: Al Mower of Glenerie Lake Park; Bill Darling of Kingston; Dorsey Haeussles of Woodstock; Hollis VanSteenburg of West Shokan; Fred Smith, Jr., of Saugerties; Robert Cogliser of Woodstock.

The club has announced that any person wishing to buy, sell, swap or give away any useful automobile parts, kindly get in touch with any member of the Woodstock Motor Club.

The club now has a membership of 50.

The next meeting will be March 14, at the Recreation Field at 7 p. m.

Woodstock, March 2—A demonstration of the two new flood lights recently purchased by the Woodstock Fire Company No. 1, was held at the regular meeting Monday night at the Fire Hall.

Plans for the annual clean up week to be held in this village in April, were made at the meeting. At that time the Fire Company members will embark on their annual drive to have residents clean out their attics, cellars and other points of accumulation about the home.

A report was made on the annual Fire Company dinner held at Deanies on February 1.

Pike Will Serve

Woodstock, March 2—John Pike, noted Woodstock artist, will serve on the jury of awards for the National Academy annual exhibit to be held in New York from April 1, to 25.

Giant Runway

Muroc Lake, Calif. (AP)—A runway 15,000 feet long—almost three miles—and 300 feet wide is being constructed at Edwards Air Force Base here for the planes that are steadily pushing back the frontiers of flight. The slab of concrete is 19 inches thick and is flanked by earth shoulders 300 feet wide. Pouring of concrete, with two giant paving machines in operation, is well under way. Completion is scheduled for November, 1954. The runway is a major phase of the expansion program that is transforming Edwards Field into a permanent flight center.

Townsend Opens Business

Robert K. Townsend, former shop foreman at the Kingston Buick, has opened a complete collision repair and automobile refinishing business at 37 O'Neil street in the shop formerly occupied by the Chevrolet. The business will be conducted under the name of the Modern Auto Body Center, and will specialize in all types of body repairs and refinishing.

Woman Found Dead

New York, March 2 (AP)—A woman found dead Sunday half submerged on the rocks of Bedloe's island was identified yesterday as Mrs. Ann Martin Alsop, 57, a widow of 96 Popular street, Garden City. Identification was made in Bellevue Hospital's morgue by Walter H. Schrader, a brother-in-law, also of the Garden City address. Acting Chief Medical Examiner Benjamin Morgan Vance reported that an autopsy established that Mrs. Alsop had drowned.

Will Begin Program

Albany, March 2 (AP)—The state Conservation Department will begin on April 1 a 25-year program to improve the state's reforestation areas and provide a timber yield worth 1½ billion dollars. Commissioner Perry B. Duryea said yesterday the department would use a $750,000 appropriation in the new budget to carry out the program in the 553,000 acres of state forests.

4-H Minstrel Is Success for Fund

Tillson, March 2—A very colorful and entertaining old-fashioned minstrel was presented Saturday evening in the new school auditorium in Tillson by members of the boys and girls 4-H Clubs. The show, in two parts, with a minstrel and variety program, was directed by Mr. and Mrs. George Segelken and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Carroll.

In the cast were 24 boys and 13 girls, all 4-H Club members. Interlocutor Frank Rowe kept up a lively chatter of old time jokes with end men Johnny Muller, David Mollenhauer, Jimmy Whittaker and Richard Segelken. Vincent Carroll, as the "mad poet," caused many a laugh with his witty jingles.

Each of the end men sang a number accompanied by the entire chorus. The first part of the show ended with the cast singing Dixie.

Diane Deyo, toe and ballet dancer, opened the second half of the show with a very nice dance that the audience appreciated, judged by the round of applause given her.

A humorous sketch and song routine, Heart of My Heart, with four couples, proved the outstanding act of the entire show. Included in the cast of this act were Randy VanKeuren, George Taylor, Glen Sutherland, Billy Wakeley, Pamela Wootten, Katie Rich, Peggy Sutherland and Patricia Coddington.

Following a chorus rendition and a bit of acting to the song, Merry Olds Mobile, the girls trio consisting of Peggy Sutherland, Katie Rich and Patricia Coddington, sang Doggie In The Window. The show came to an end when the entire cast sang It's a Grand Old Flag, and the colors, with color guard, were brought through the hall to the stage.

Nathaniel Phillips, leader of the boys' club, thanked those who had made the show a success. More than 300 people were in attendance.

The local clubs hope to send many of their organization to camp at no cost to the families, and this is where the proceeds of the show will go.

Delegates Attend Caracas Carnival

Caracas, Venezuela, March 2 (AP)—Delegates to the 10th International American Conference took a carnival holiday this Shrove Tuesday after an opening session which cheered an attack on communism.

Colombia's foreign minister, Evaristo Sourdis, responding to the welcoming address of President Col. Marcos Perez Jimenez of Venezuela yesterday, was interrupted by applause for his denunciation of "the forces of evil which operate in darkness."

Sourdis called for defense of the continent "wherever totalitarian aggression presents itself." He urged the countries of the western hemisphere to adopt "the necessary measures to impede or uproot all activity which tends to encourage the dominance of international creeds which threaten the free nations of the world."

One of Chief Topics

Communist infiltration of the hemisphere is one of the chief topics of the conference, attended by the foreign ministers of the United States and 19 Latin-American nations. But Latin Americans consider economic matters, including U. S. financial plans, the chief item.

The first plenary session met in a magnificent, wire-protected auditorium at nearby University City only about an hour after a group of Puerto Rican Nationalists shot and wounded five members of the U. S. House of Representatives in Washington.

One of the Puerto Ricans told police they timed their attack in an attempt to influence opinion at the conference against the United States, which has granted Puerto Rico commonwealth status and offered it full independence whenever the islanders want it.

Secretary of State Dulles issued a statement saying he was "deeply shocked." Arturo Morales Carrion, Puerto Rican undersecretary of state and a member of the U. S. delegation, expressed distress and said "I think it was an act of sheer lunacy."

Conference sessions will resume Wednesday.

Everett True put an end to being smothered in billows of cigar smoke in the McCracken House lunchroom when he brought in a small fire extinguisher and directed it at any smoke producer within range of his table.

PIGGY-BACK HOME—You'll never have to say "let's go home," if you own this folding home which was exhibited recently in Chicago, Ill. The unit has a four-bunk sleeping room and a downstairs living room. Demonstrating the outfit, which weighs 300 pounds, are Bill Maloney, left, and Patricia Marand. The portable home folds into a 10-inch pack on top of the car and can be assembled in 15 minutes.

Motor Club Meets With James Smith

Woodstock, March 2—It was announced at the meeting of the Woodstock Motor Club, Sunday night at the home of James Smith in Glenford, that the club will hold its meeting henceforth at the Woodstock Fish and Game cabin on the Recreation field. The building committee in charge of arrangements for the new quarters were Bob Smith and Doug Franckling.

A new techinal committee is at present being formed, to be in charge of a technical library and to present programs of a technical nature. They will also offer a service of checking the cars, free, for members of the club who enter road rallies.

The following new members were voted into the club: Al Mower of Glenerie Lake Park; Bill Darling of Kingston; Dorsey Haeussles of Woodstock; Hollis VanSteenburg of West Shokan; Fred Smith, Jr., of Saugerties; Robert Cogliser of Woodstock.

The club has announced that any person wishing to buy, sell, swap or give away any useful automobile parts, kindly get in touch with any member of the Woodstock Motor Club.

The club now has a membership of 50.

The next meeting will be March 14, at the Recreation Field at 7 p. m.

Woodstock, March 2—A demonstration of the two new flood lights recently purchased by the Woodstock Fire Company No. 1, was held at the regular meeting Monday night at the Fire Hall.

Plans for the annual clean up week to be held in this village in April, were made at the meeting. At that time the Fire Company members will embark on their annual drive to have residents clean out their attics, cellars and other points of accumulation about the home.

A report was made on the annual Fire Company dinner held at Deanies on February 1.

Pike Will Serve

Woodstock, March 2—John Pike, noted Woodstock artist, will serve on the jury of awards for the National Academy annual exhibit to be held in New York from April 1, to 25.

Giant Runway

Muroc Lake, Calif. (AP)—A runway 15,000 feet long—almost three miles—and 300 feet wide is being constructed at Edwards Air Force Base here for the planes that are steadily pushing back the frontiers of flight. The slab of concrete is 19 inches thick and is flanked by earth shoulders 300 feet wide. Pouring of concrete, with two giant paving machines in operation, is well under way. Completion is scheduled for November, 1954. The runway is a major phase of the expansion program that is transforming Edwards Field into a permanent flight center.

Townsend Opens Business

Robert K. Townsend, former shop foreman at the Kingston Buick, has opened a complete collision repair and automobile refinishing business at 37 O'Neil street in the shop formerly occupied by the Chevrolet. The business will be conducted under the name of the Modern Auto Body Center, and will specialize in all types of body repairs and refinishing.

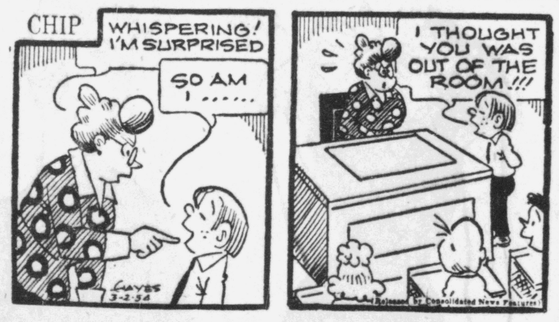

Woman Found Dead

New York, March 2 (AP)—A woman found dead Sunday half submerged on the rocks of Bedloe's island was identified yesterday as Mrs. Ann Martin Alsop, 57, a widow of 96 Popular street, Garden City. Identification was made in Bellevue Hospital's morgue by Walter H. Schrader, a brother-in-law, also of the Garden City address. Acting Chief Medical Examiner Benjamin Morgan Vance reported that an autopsy established that Mrs. Alsop had drowned.

Will Begin Program

Albany, March 2 (AP)—The state Conservation Department will begin on April 1 a 25-year program to improve the state's reforestation areas and provide a timber yield worth 1½ billion dollars. Commissioner Perry B. Duryea said yesterday the department would use a $750,000 appropriation in the new budget to carry out the program in the 553,000 acres of state forests.

Secretary of State Dulles issued a statement saying he was "deeply shocked." Arturo Morales Carrion, Puerto Rican undersecretary of state and a member of the U. S. delegation, expressed distress and said "I think it was an act of sheer lunacy."

Conference sessions will resume Wednesday.

Everett True put an end to being smothered in billows of cigar smoke in the McCracken House lunchroom when he brought in a small fire extinguisher and directed it at any smoke producer within range of his table.

PIGGY-BACK HOME—You'll never have to say "let's go home," if you own this folding home which was exhibited recently in Chicago, Ill. The unit has a four-bunk sleeping room and a downstairs living room. Demonstrating the outfit, which weighs 300 pounds, are Bill Maloney, left, and Patricia Marand. The portable home folds into a 10-inch pack on top of the car and can be assembled in 15 minutes.

Kingston Auxiliary Hears About Program At Vassar Hospital

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Vassar Brothers Hospital in Poughkeepsie were guests of the meeting of the Kingston Hospital Auxiliary held Tuesday evening at the Nurses Home. Mrs. Herbert Derman, program chairman, introduced Mrs. George H. Underhill, Mrs. David H. Chamberlain, Mrs. Thomas F. Kane, and Mrs. William C. Porch, of the Poughkeepsie group.

Snack Bar Successful

Speaking informally, Mrs. Kane as moderator for the group, gave a descriptive background of the Auxiliary's beginnings, and the events which have made necessary new volunteer activities. One of their programs which has proved highly successful is the snack bar the Auxiliary maintains at the hospital. This was of particular interest to the Kingston group who are looking forward to installing the same type of service at Kingston Hospital.

Mrs. Kane said that they had started as a small snack bar, branching off into small gifts and knick knacks. She advised that a small soda fountain, which they did not have, would be a welcome service for visitors and patients alike.

50 Volunteers A Day

Mrs. Chamberlain, speaking for the over-all volunteer program, informed the audience that Vassar Hospital has an average of 50 volunteers a day, and listed the numerous programs in which they participate.

She emphasized that all the volunteers are organized as a separate organization, that is, in conjunction with clubs, churches, all members of the auxiliary, but working out of their own organizations, with their own chairman. In that way, each group performs the duties to which they are best adapted.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Vassar Hospital said that they enjoy their volunteer program, and receive a tremendous sense of pleasure and satisfaction in doing such worthwhile volunteer service. The Kingston Hospital Auxiliary expressed their pleasure at having such interesting and informative guests to portray the inside picture of the functions of their organization.

Final Payment to Building Fund

At the business meeting preceding the speakers, with Mrs. Peter D. Corsones, second vice president presiding in absence of Mrs. Parker Brinnier, president, Mrs. John Wilke was appointed to fill the unexpired treasurer's term. This was held by Mrs. Timothy P. House, and it was announced that the final payment in the auxiliary's pledge to the Hospital Building Fund had been paid.

Mrs. Herbert Gade and Mrs. Herbert Martin were introduced as new members of the auxiliary.

Dance was Success

Mrs. Ted Smalldon, reporting on the new volunteer program announced that it is working successfully, and is of great assistance to the hospital. Mrs. Frederic W. Holcomb, Sr., chairman of the Auxiliary's annual dance, thanked all those who had assisted in making the dance a social and financial success. The receipts and response to the dance was gratifying, Mrs. Holcomb said.

Following the program, refreshments were served by Mrs. Morton Zucker and Mrs. Dominc A. Cioni as hostesses. Mrs. A. W. Mollott poured at a beautifully appointed table. A social hour followed.

Newburgh Academy Band Will Play Here In Exchange Concert

The Newburgh Free Academy High School band will play an exchange concert at Kingston High School assembly Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

The program will be selected from the following pieces: Newburgh Free Academy March, Many; Alouetta, a Band Fantasy, Fred; Tres Jolie Waltz, Waldteufel; Naval Reserve March, Sousa; Interlude, Morrisey; Revolutionary Overture, Moore; An American Scene, Overture, Grundman; Fantasy on American Sailing Songs, Grundman.

The band is under the direction of Alfred A. Nebling. These annual concerts are enthusiastically anticipated by the members of both high school bands, the director reported. Aside from the values of friendly competition, entertainment preparation, and public performance, school relations between Kingston and Newburgh are definitely improved as a direct result of these exchanges, according to the director.

The Kingston High School band will play a concert for the Newburgh assembly on Wednesday, March 17.

Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

The former Jean Barbara Rowe and William Vertetis who were wed in St. Peter's Church Sunday, Feb. 21. (Kinkade and Hutton photo)

Miss Jean Rowe Wed To William R. Vertetis In Afternoon Nuptials

Miss Jean Barbara Rowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rowe of 63 Wurts street, became the bride of William Robert Vertetis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Vertetis of 33 Stanley street, in a ceremony held Sunday, Feb. 21, at 2:30 p. m. at St. Peter's Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Patrick Carroll, assistant pastor of the church. The organist was Miss Nan Goldrick. Miss Carol Perry, soloist, sang the selections, Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus. The church was decorated with white gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Roy Olsen. She wore a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a portrait neckline encrusted with seed pearls and sequins, long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt. Her headpiece was a Queen Elizabeth crown encrusted with sequins and seed pearls, securing a fingertip veil of imported French illusion. She carried a white prayer book with white orchid and streamers and sweet peas.

Miss Marjorie Rowe was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of Nile green silk organza fashioned with a shirred bodice and a portrait neckline. Her waltz length skirt featured a side drapery. She wore a headpiece of stylized leaves. Her flowers were an old fashioned bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Melania Vertetis, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Hobart Bach, of Sawkill road, were the attendants. They wore gowns of Grecian rose fashioned in style identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of snapdragons, roses, carnations and sweet peas.

Miss Kathy Maggiore was flower girl. She was attired in a pink nylon net gown of waltz length with a bouffant skirt and an off the shoulder bodice with matching headpiece. She carried a basket of snapdragons and pink and blue sweet peas.

Francis Vertetis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Robert Gardinier and Richard Kelder, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers. Gary Kelder, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Capri, Port Ewen, for 110 guests. The couple left for a tour of Canada. For traveling the bride chose a pink knitted suit and a royal blue and black coat with black accessories. On their return, they will make their home at 249 Clinton avenue.

Mrs. Vertetis is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by the New York Telephone Company.

Mr. Vertetis attended Kingston High School and served with the Air Force and the Navy. He is now employed by Theibold Industries.

Special Lenten Supper Meeting Series to Be Held in Bethany Hall

A special series of Lenten supper meetings will be held every Thursday beginning March 4 through April 8 at 6:15 p. m. at Bethany Hall, First Dutch Church.

The series theme is, Christ, the Hope of the World. This is also the theme of the forthcoming second assembly of the World Council of Churches to be held in Evanston, Ill., this coming August. All Protestant churches which are members of the Council are supposed to holdmeetings to prestudy the topic.

Individual topics at the meetings are as follows: March 4, Evangelism; The Mission of the Church to Those Outside Her Life, led by Miss Patricia Moore. March 11, International Affairs; Christ in Struggle for World Communion, leader, Frederic Snyder. March 18, The Laity; Christian in His Vocation, leader, Clair Sheaffer.

March 25, Inter-group relations; Church Amid Racial and Ethnic Tensions, leader, Mrs. Frederick E. Hyde, Jr. April 1, Hope College Chapel Choir of 70 voices in sacred concert. This will be held in the church at 8 p. m. There will be no supper that evening.

April 8, Social Questions; Responsible Society in a World Perspective, leader, William C. MacElveen.

These will be layman meetings led by the laity of the church, in the nature of family nights. The church will serve the dinner for a free-will offering. Reservations are to be in each week by Wednesday and may be made by calling the church office, 6759. Everyone is welcome to attend these special Lenten meetings.

WHO SENT IT?

A bride-to-be tells me: "I received a very handsome wedding present this morning which was sent from one of the large department stores here in the city. I have searched high and low but cannot find the sender's card and therefore do not know who to thank for it. Will you please tell me what, if anything, I can do about this?"

You might call, or write, to the store and describe the article and the date on which it was delivered and they may be able to trace the sender for you. If this is not possible, you could tell several of your friends about the present you received with no card enclosed and perhaps you could find the sender in this way.

A Present for Him

"Dear Mrs. Post: A young man in our office is to be married soon. We all like him very much and most of the girls think we should get him a wedding present. I am one of those who would be glad to give something to him, but I think it makes no sense at all to send a present to his fiancee whom we have never seen.

Answer: In this case I agree with you and think it would "make most sense" to choose something for him personally and give it to him when he leaves the office on his last day before the wedding.

Name on Marker

Dear Mrs. Post: What is the correct wording on a grave marker for my late husband who was a dentist? Should his name read Dr. John J. Brown, John J. Brown, D.D.S., or just plain John J. Brown? I feel the name alone is correct, but his family insist that his title should be included. Your opinion in this matter will be appreciated.

Answer: You are right. His name alone would be in best taste.

Delegates of Kingston, Rhinebeck Rotaries To Attend Conference

Delegates from the Kingston and Rhinebeck Rotary Clubs are planning to attend the annual conference of the 255th District of Rotary International from March 7 through March 9 at Troy. Larry V. Bogert, president of the Kingston Rotary Club, reports that the club will present a playlet, What a Life, at a vocational service portion of the program for the conference Monday at 3:25 p. m.

Hundreds of Rotarians, representing the 58 clubs in this district, which covers the area of the eastern portion of the state are expected to attend. Robert H. Martin is president of the Rhinebeck Club.

Purpose of the conference is to review the service work of the clubs in the district and to plan ways of increasing the effectiveness of their future activities.

Headquarters for the conference in Troy will be at the Hendrick Hudson Hotel. Registration is scheduled for from 2 to 10 p. m. Sunday. A buffet supper will be served that night with a program of entertainment and fellowship.

Principal speakers will include a personal representative of the president of Rotary International, other Rotary officials and a Rotary Foundation student from Australia who is attending college in this country. Edward J. Trimbey of Glens Falls, District governor, will preside at the sessions.

Not only will there be business meetings and the nomination of new district officers, but the host club is planning a program of entertainment for the luncheons and dinners scheduled. Highlight of the conference is the Governor's Dinner Monday night at the hotel.

Special programs are also slated for the many wives of Rotarians who will attend the conclave. The program for the Rotary Anns, as they are known, will include dinners and entertainment, a luncheon fashion show and a guided bus tour through scenic Troy, known as the Home of Uncle Sam. Many other interesting events are planned.

The conference in Troy will see the nomination of the district governor and staff. Although nomination is equivalent to election, the governor will be formally elected, along with more than 200 District Governors from all parts of the world, at Rotary International's 1954 Convention in Seattle, Wash., next June.

These district governors will coordinate the service work of 375,000 business and professional executives who are members of 8,000 Rotary Clubs in 88 countries and geographical regions.

ELIZABETH M. RICHARDS

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scism, 24 East Chestnut street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth M. Richards, to John J. Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Miller, Sr., of 2252 Allegheny avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Richards, daughter of the late Gordon V. Richards of this city, is a graduate of the Academy of St. Ursula and is employed by Spiegel Brothers Paper Company.

Mr. Miller served with the Navy during World War 2 and is now manager of the W. T. Grant store in Roselle, N. J.

Dr. Harold Monson, Newburgh, Addresses Brotherhood Meeting

In his address at the service Sunday evening at Temple Emanuel, Dr. Harold Monson, superintendent of schools of Newburgh, stated that the present great tension in the world is between the East and the West. It is an ethnic or geographic tension, it was stated, but basically more than even that.

Dr. Monson said that the Eastern understanding of religion is that the goal of life is an absorption in the Unknown, or Nirvana. The genius of Western culture is the persistence of identity of personality, which means that monotheism of Judaism and Christianity must signify an intolerance of self.

The proper dialectic resultant of intolerance of self must therefore be tolerance of the other person, it was stated by the speaker at the concluding service celebrating Brotherhood Week. He added that in following different religious roads that we're not all going to the same goal, and must therefore be very positive of our faith. Positiveness of faith is what eventuates in intolerance of self, he stated.

The strength of communism is its orientalism, said Dr. Monson, in that one loses himself in the state; with no intolerance of self, the individual becomes the servant of the state.

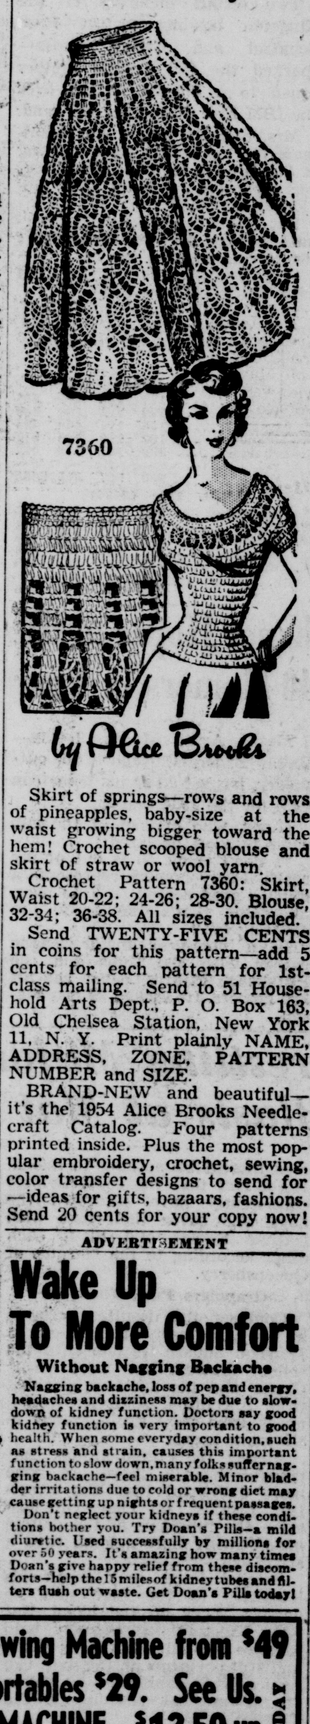

In the Western cultures, intolerance of self must be proven by tolerance of other selves. The dynamic contribution of the Jew must be recognized by the Christian, and the dynamic contribution of the Christian must be recognized by the Jew, concluded Dr. Monson.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang in his talk to the more than 350 persons assembled at the meeting, said that he is very proud to be mayor of a town such as Kingston which has a deep concern evidenced by such a meeting. He added that he is glad to be a participant in such a service and to represent the city.

The order of worship was according to that in the Hebrew prayer book. The reading of Scriptures was by the Rev. Sampson Greene, of the Zion AME Church; the evening prayer for peace and brotherhood was led by Dr. Ralph M. Houston, of St. James Methodist Church. Dr. Herbert Bloom was host at this meeting, with the arrangements completed by Cantor Julian C. Lohre, of Temple Emanuel.

The service, which was under the sponsorship of the Kingston Ministerial Association's committee on Brotherhood Emphasis, Dr. William Carner Cain, chairman, concluded with the adoration and Kaddish.

Nagele Tallies 88 In Junior Cage Tilt

Trinity Registers 130-48 Victory

Gene Nagele pulled a Bevo Francis stunt in the Junior Protestant Church League Saturday afternoon when he scored 88 points to lead his Trinity Lutheran five to a lop-sided 130-48 victory over Immanuel Lutheran.

Without a doubt, Nagele's terrific scoring exploits topped any former performance in any division of the church basketball circuit.

Hendricks Scores 27

Bob Pratt paced the losers with 13, Studt tallied 12 and Ron Pratt had 11.

In Saturday's opener, the First Dutch defeated Redeemer Lutheran by 62-51. Comstock scored 17, Bell 18, Barika 13 and D. Oudemool 10 for the winners. Hendricks and Acker were high for Redeemer with 27 and 10 in that order.

The scores:

Trinity Lutheran (130)—Nagele 88, Krueger 7, Brandt 8, Dietz 15, Kuhne 4, Longendyke 6, Miller 2, Scharp 2, Craig 0.

Immanuel (48) — Beatty 10, Roosa 2, Studt 12, B. Pratt 13, R. Pratt 11.

First Dutch (62)—Peck 2, Comstock 17, Barika 13, D. Oudemool 10, Bell 18, J. Oudemool 2.

Redeemer Lutheran (51) — Acker 10, Kelly 6, Hendricks 27, Rowland 4, Dumond 4, Teinken 0, Proper 0.

KHS Will Engage Monties Tonight

Tonight's the big one for Coach G. Warren Kias and his Kingston High School basketball squad.

The Maroons travel to Monticello for the last game of the regular season but a lot more depends on the outcome of this one than merely bringing down the curtain.

Kingston needs a victory to assure itself of a tie with Poughkeepsie for the DUSO League laurels. Poughkeepsie won its big one last Friday, defeating Newburgh by 71-68.

Providing the Maroons do win tonight (and there doesn't seem to be a hardy soul who expects otherwise) Kingston will meet Poughkeepsie Saturday in Middletown at 8 p. m.

Just for the records, the Maroons mauled Monticello on Jan. 27 by 76 to 41.

Jackson Is Ready For April Contest

Brooklyn, March 2 (AP) — Unranked heavyweight Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, had a victory over eight-ranked Clarence Henry under his belt today and high hopes of taking on another top contender.

The 22-year-old, tireless puncher from Rockaway Beach, N. Y., won a unanimous 10-round decision over the Los Angeles heavyweight last night at the Eastern Parkway Arena and got a promise of another booking at the Parkway Arena.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner said he will try and pit Jackson against Nino Valdes, second-ranking heavyweight Dan Bucceroni, third ranking heavyweight or Jimmy Slade, third-ranking light heavyweight, for an April 5 tenrounder.

The votes for Jackson were: Referee Miller, 7-3, Judge Nick Gamboli, 6-4 and Judge Charley Shortell, 8-2.

Eddie Mathews Has Wrenched Back

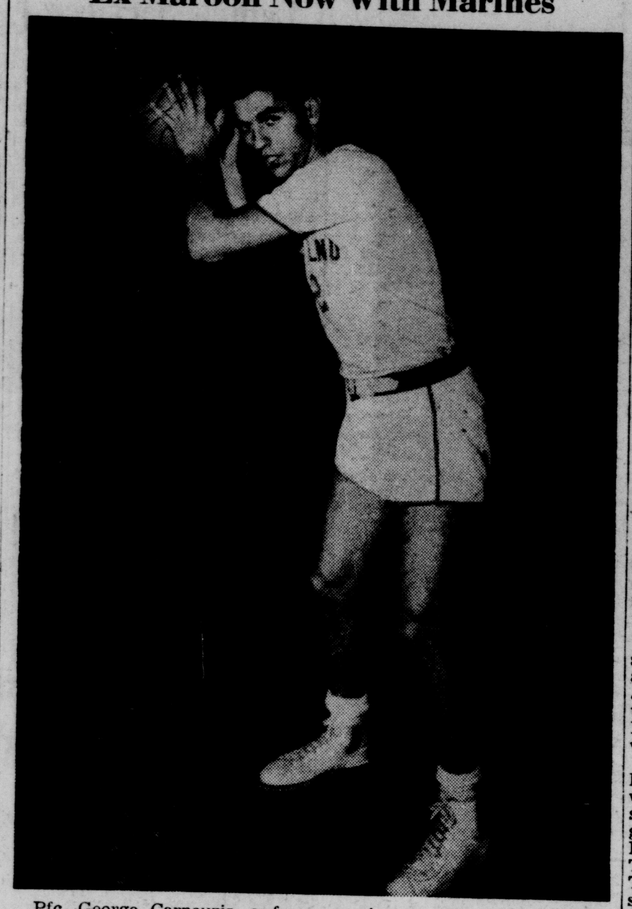

Bradenton, Fla., March 2 (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves were in for a mild scare yesterday when star slugger Eddie Mathews wrenched his back and was hurried to the clubhouse for attention.

Dr. Charles Lacks, team trainer said he doubted if Mathews could do much work for a day or two, but the young hitter said he hoped to play a while in today's intrasquad game.

Ex-Maroon Now With Marines

Pfc. George Carpouzis, a former mainstay with Kingston High School basketball teams, is averaging 16 points a game with the Parris Island Marine basketball squad. The son of Vlassios A. Carpouzis, 80 Green street, Carpouzis attended Harwick College for a year after graduation from KHS, and then enlisted for duty in the Marine Corps. His team has won 20 and dropped 10 during the 1953-54 campaign. (Marine Corps Photo).

Kentucky Regains Leading Spot as No. 1 Basketball Team

New York, March 2 (AP)—Kentucky's all-winning basketball team regained its favorite spot today when the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters named the Wildcats No. 1 team in the country.

Ousted from the top rung for the past two weeks by Duquesne, Kentucky rolled back into the premier position with first place votes from 59 of the 120 experts who cast ballots. On the usual basis of 10 points for first, nine for second and so forth, Kentucky totaled 964 points.

Kentucky, which headed the poll from the third week of the season through the ninth, completed its schedule last night by defeating Alabama 68-43 for a 24-0 mark.

Duquesne, upset by Cincinnati Friday and again by Dayton on Saturday, tumbled all the way to fourth place in the rankings. Until their disastrous Ohio trip, the Dukes had the only undefeated college team outside Kentucky.

Votes and Records

Has His Troubles

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Even with all the talent he has in camp, Skipper Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees has his troubles. "I wish we had a 60-player limit," he said wryly. "It's going to be hard to cut this squad."

Old Caps Defeat IBM by 170 Pins

Mrs. Schatzel edged her teammate for top honors with a string of 209-187-176 for 572. Mrs. Gross was close on her heels with 176-212-181 for 569.

Pat Hegnauer rolled 511, Charlotte Lapine 481 and Tess Moss 494 to complete the roster.

C. LaBarbera was high for IBM with 200-154-180 for 534.

Old Capitals posted 900-907-859 for 2666 while the IBM keglerettes fired 904-805-787 for 2496.

The score:

Kiner Hopes to Hit 40 Homers in Year

Mesa, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—Ralph Kiner, Chicago Cub outfielder, has set 40 as his home run goal for the 1954 season.

Kiner, who arrived at the cub camp Sunday, declared:

"I don't think 40 is out of my reach. Forty homers represents a mighty good season. If I go over, fine. But that's the mark I'm shooting for."

In a nine-year major league career with the Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates, Kiner has hit 329 homers. He socked 35 last season.

Paltz Five Takes Two CageGames

New Paltz State Teachers College scored a pair of wins during the weekend basketball schedule.

On Friday night, the Paltzers registered an 82 to 70 victory over Plattsburgh, avenging a defeat tacked on them last week.

Playing at Drew University Saturday night, New Paltz came through to a 72 to 65 victory.

Miller Nets 32

Ripping in 12 fields and 8 foul shots, Miller scored 32 points against Drew Saturday night. John Wulff tallied 10 and Schuttler contributed 20. Dwerling and Holsinger were high for Drew with 25 and 23 respectively.

New Paltz still has three games left on the 1953-54 slate. This weekend Coach Loren Campbell's squad will be on the road with games against Geneseo Teachers Friday night and at Fredonia Teachers College Saturday night. The final home fray of the season is scheduled Saturday night, March 13, against the Alumni.

Aces, Ramblers Cop Midget League Tilts

The Cedar Aces and Ramblers registered victories in the Boys' Midget Basketball League Saturday night at the George Washington School.

The Aces defeated the Globe Trotters by 27 to 4 with Weaver leading in points with eight. Daw and Robinson scored two apiece for the losers.

The Ramblers eked out a 31-30 verdict over the Blue Jays. Smith and Keizer each scored 12 for the winners. Miller topped the Jays with 18.

Stresses Pickoff

Phoenix, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—New York Giants' Manager Leo Durocher was putting more emphasis on the pickoff play at second base today. "We didn't pull that play enough last year, and the other clubs knew it and took too many liberties with us," Durocher said.

NO WILDNESS—Giant catcher Ebba St. Clair cocks his arm for toss at Phoenix training camp as Bluebird, 11-year-old Taos Indian, copies style. It's fine—as long as St. Clair doesn't start throwing as wild as an Indian. (NEA)

SPACE QUARTERBACK—Otto Graham, Cleveland Browns' quarterback, wonders whether son, David, 3, will grow up to be big enough to play quarterback in the interplanetary league-type helmet youngster has rigged up. Outfit was a prop on Graham's TV show. (NEA)

Johnston Has 248-Point Lead

New York, Mar. 2 —(AP)—Lanky Neil Johnston of the Philadelphia Warriors enjoyed a 248-point lead today in his drive to win the National Basketball Association scoring championship for the second straight year.

Johnston, who scored 1,564 points last season, has collected 1,471 for a 23.7 percentage through Sunday games. Easy Ted Macauley of the Boston Celtics is second with 1,223 points.

In third spot is Macauley's teammate Bob Cousy with 1,208, who leads in the assist department with 457.

In the only game played last night the warriors defeated the Milwaukee Hawks 78-73 behind the shooting of Johnston. The 6-8 center scored 33 points in a spectacular shot making show at Collingswood, N. J.

Gordie Howe Is National Leader

Montreal, March 2 (AP) — Right winger Gordie Howe of the Detroit Redwings today held a 10-point lead over Montreal's Maurice Richard in the National Hockey League scoring race as the campaign headed into its final three weeks.

The smooth-skating Howe, seeking his fourth straight title, picked up a goal and two assists last week for a season's total of 68 points. Richard has 58 points. The rocket, however, leads the circuit in goals with 34.

Detroit's Ted Lindsay was credited with three assists and remained in third place with 51 points.

YMCA Cadets Squeeze Through 56 to 52 Win

The YMCA Cadets registered a 56-52 squeaker victory over the Trinity Lutheran Juniors Saturday noon at the YMCA.

Rich Amato and John Woods topped the scorers for the Cadets with 13 and 11 points respectively. R. Dietz was high for the losers with 12. R. Kuhne dropped in 11, G. Brandt and G. Nagele following with 10 apiece.

The Cadets held a 28-27 edge at halftime.

The scores:

Cadets (56)—Williams 2-3-7; Tremper 3-2-8; Woods 4-3-11; Amato 6-1-13; Perry 2-1-5; Gray 2-0-4; Pratt 1-0-2; Williams 1-0-2; Kidney 0-0-0; Massa 0-0-0; Schrowang 0-0-0; Vertetis 2-0-4; Albright 0-0-0.

Trinity Juniors (52) — Krueger 0-5-5; Kuhne 4-3-11; Brandt 4-2-10; Dietz 5-2-12; Nagele 4-2-10; Scharp 1-0-2; Miller 1-0-2.

Newcombe, Black To Do Pitching

Vero Beach, Fla., March 2 (AP) —Either Don Newcombe or Joe Black will be the starting Brooklyn pitcher in the Dodgers' Grapefruit League opener against Milwaukee on Saturday.

Manager Walt Alston also indicated that besides this pair, Tom Lasorda, Pete Wojey and Hamp Coleman will face the Braves this weekend.

But catcher Roy Campenella will miss the next few days of training because of a cold in his back.

Campy, the National League's most valuable player last season, was ordered to bed last night by Dr. Eugene Zorn, the club's physician.

Success of Wrestling Major Reason For Critics' Blasts at Mat Sport

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
(NEA Staff Correspondent)

New York (NEA)—There's a sudden predisposition among the boys who write for magazines to level on wrestlers. We don't quite see it.

First there was Herman Hickman trumpeting his inside dope on the racket that first brought out the ham in him. Most recently, LOOK sardonically described the script the grunt and groan men follow.

The newspapers long ago staked out first rights to the buffeting of wrestlers by relegating them to the dramatic page. Why the sudden rush of squatters' rights among the periodicals?

Primarily, you've got to credit the post-war success of the grappling game because without success there'd be nothing to knock. It's a fact that the contortionists consistently have outdrawn the boys who cover their fists with leather thongs and maul each other according to the Marquis of Queensberry.

Grapplers Pack Them In

Contrast the desultory crowds at the fights each Friday night in Madison Square Garden with the sellout crowds that greet Verne Gagne and his barefoot sidekick from Argentina, Antonino Rocca, every time they trade growls in the same arena.

Among the ethnic groups that populate sports, there are none more delightful than the wrestlers. Lisping Lou Thesz can describe the functions of the deltoid muscle with more aplomb than a street corner vendor.

Satchel Paige may credit his longevity to the fact that he doesn't angry up the blood. But Kola Kweriani, a perfectly bald Russian who ante-dates Old Satch and still performs on the mat, can reduce it to capillaries by virtue of his medical training in old Tiflis.

Anent Hickman, Kweriani has a quaint dismissal term: "He's a bum!"

The knockers of wrestling also tend to overlook the delightful people who populate the tin-ear arenas who have made Jack Brickhouse their Arthur Godfrey.

At 100 grand a year, Hans isn't kicking.

And how about that diverting schism Gagne created among the population of Binghamton. They go for him, young and old, up there. But in the Binghamton fan club dedicated to the idolization of Gagne, the young people didn't like the encroachment of their elders, so huffily formed their own group.

Now we have Verne Gagne Club No. 1 and Verne Gagne Club No. 2.

That even beats Eddie Fisher.

But, you might ask, is it dedicated to the perpetuation of sport?

Now let's not spoil all the fun.

KHS Will Engage Monties Tonight

Tonight's the big one for Coach G. Warren Kias and his Kingston High School basketball squad.

The Maroons travel to Monticello for the last game of the regular season but a lot more depends on the outcome of this one than merely bringing down the curtain.

Kingston needs a victory to assure itself of a tie with Poughkeepsie for the DUSO League laurels. Poughkeepsie won its big one last Friday, defeating Newburgh by 71-68.

Providing the Maroons do win tonight (and there doesn't seem to be a hardy soul who expects otherwise) Kingston will meet Poughkeepsie Saturday in Middletown at 8 p. m.

Just for the records, the Maroons mauled Monticello on Jan. 27 by 76 to 41.

Jackson Is Ready For April Contest

Brooklyn, March 2 (AP)—Unranked heavyweight Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, had a victory over eight-ranked Clarence Henry under his belt today and high hopes of taking on another top contender.

The 22-year-old, tireless puncher from Rockaway Beach, N. Y., won a unanimous 10-round decision over the Los Angeles heavyweight last night at the Eastern Parkway Arena and got a promise of another booking at the Parkway Arena.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner said he will try and pit Jackson against Nino Valdes, second-ranking heavyweight Dan Bucceroni, third ranking heavyweight or Jimmy Slade, third-ranking light heavyweight, for an April 5 tenrounder.

The votes for Jackson were: Referee Miller, 7-3, Judge Nick Gamboli, 6-4 and Judge Charley Shortell, 8-2.

Eddie Mathews Has Wrenched Back

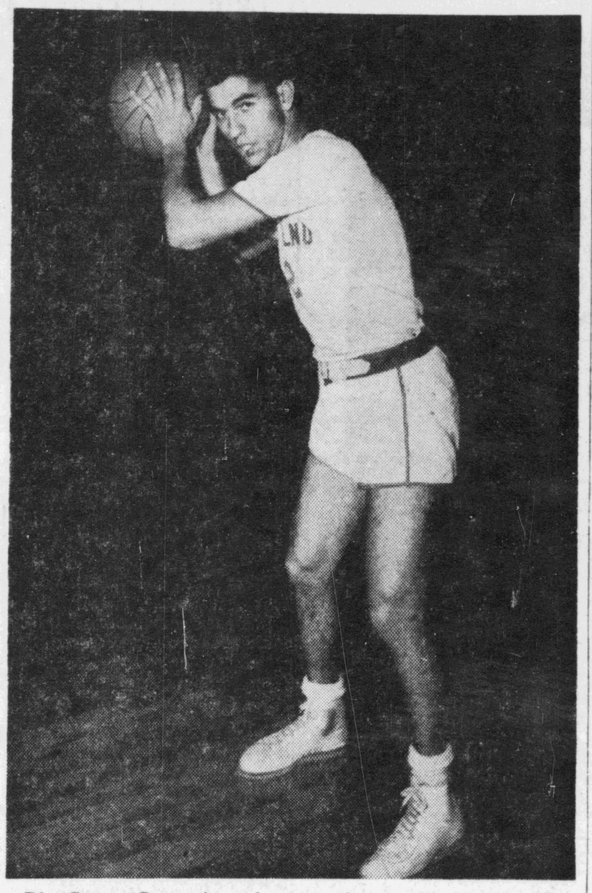

Bradenton, Fla., March 2 (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves were in for a mild scare yesterday when star slugger Eddie Mathews wrenched his back and was hurried to the clubhouse for attention.

Dr. Charles Lacks, team trainer, said he doubted if Mathews could do much work for a day or two, but the young hitter said he hoped to play a while in today's intrasquad game.

Ex-Maroon Now With Marines

Pfc. George Carpouzis, a former mainstay with Kingston High School basketball teams, is averaging 16 points a game with the Parris Island Marine basketball squad. The son of Vlassios A. Carpouzis, 80 Green street, Carpouzis attended Harwick College for a year after graduation from KHS, and then enlisted for duty in the Marine Corps. His team has won 20 and dropped 10 during the 1953-54 campaign. (Marine Corps Photo).

Kentucky Regains Leading Spot as No. 1 Basketball Team

New York, March 2 (AP)—Kentucky's all-winning basketball team regained its favorite spot today when the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters named the Wildcats No. 1 team in the country.

Ousted from the top rung for the past two weeks by Duquesne, Kentucky rolled back into the premier position with first place votes from 59 of the 120 experts who cast ballots. On the usual basis of 10 points for first, nine for second and so forth, Kentucky totaled 964 points.

Kentucky, which headed the poll from the third week of the season through the ninth, completed its schedule last night by defeating Alabama 68-43 for a 24-0 mark.

Duquesne, upset by Cincinnati Friday and again by Dayton on Saturday, tumbled all the way to fourth place in the rankings. Until their disastrous Ohio trip, the Dukes had the only undefeated college team outside Kentucky.

Directors to Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at Jake's Grill on Greenkill avenue. All directors are requested to attend as several import matters are to be discussed.

Has His Troubles

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Even with all the talent he has in camp, Skipper Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees has his troubles. "I wish we had a 60-player limit," he said wryly. "It's going to be hard to cut this squad."

Old Caps Defeat IBM by 170 Pins

Mrs. Schatzel edged her teammate for top honors with a string of 209-187-176 for 572. Mrs. Gross was close on her heels with 176-212-181 for 569.

Pat Hegnauer rolled 511, Charlotte Lapine 481 and Tess Moss 494 to complete the roster.

C. LaBarbera was high for IBM with 200-154-180 for 534.

Old Capitals posted 900-907-859 for 2666 while the IBM keglerettes fired 904-805-787 for 2496.

The score:

Kiner Hopes to Hit 40 Homers in Year

Mesa, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—Ralph Kiner, Chicago Cub outfielder, has set 40 as his home run goal for the 1954 season.

Kiner, who arrived at the cub camp Sunday, declared:

"I don't think 40 is out of my reach. Forty homers represents a mighty good season. If I go over, fine. But that's the mark I'm shooting for."

In a nine-year major league career with the Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates, Kiner has hit 329 homers. He socked 35 last season.

Paltz Five Takes Two CageGames

New Paltz State Teachers College scored a pair of wins during the weekend basketball schedule.

On Friday night, the Paltzers registered an 82 to 70 victory over Plattsburgh, avenging a defeat tacked on them last week.

Playing at Drew University Saturday night, New Paltz came through to a 72 to 65 victory.

Ron Foster was the big gun for New Paltz Friday night with 28 points. Bob Miller followed with 21 while Dick King added 15 and Bill Schuttler accounted for 10. King tallied 11 of his 15 markers from the foul stripe. Longware, center for Plattsburgh, was high for his club with 22.

Miller Nets 32

Ripping in 12 fields and 8 foul shots, Miller scored 32 points against Drew Saturday night. John Wulff tallied 10 and Schuttler contributed 20. Dwerling and Holsinger were high for Drew with 25 and 23 respectively.

New Paltz still has three games left on the 1953-54 slate. This weekend Coach Loren Campbell's squad will be on the road with games against Geneseo Teachers Friday night and at Fredonia Teachers College Saturday night. The final home fray of the season is scheduled Saturday night, March 13, against the Alumni.

Aces, Ramblers Cop Midget League Tilts

The Cedar Aces and Ramblers registered victories in the Boys' Midget Basketball League Saturday night at the George Washington School.

The Aces defeated the Globe Trotters by 27 to 4 with Weaver leading in points with eight. Daw and Robinson scored two apiece for the losers.

The Ramblers eked out a 31-30 verdict over the Blue Jays. Smith and Keizer each scored 12 for the winners. Miller topped the Jays with 18.

Stresses Pickoff

Phoenix, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—New York Giants' Manager Leo Durocher was putting more emphasis on the pickoff play at second base today. "We didn't pull that play enough last year, and the other clubs knew it and took too many liberties with us," Durocher said.

NO WILDNESS—Giant catcher Ebba St. Clair cocks his arm for toss at Phoenix training camp as Bluebird, 11-year-old Taos Indian, copies style. It's fine—as long as St. Clair doesn't start throwing as wild as an Indian. (NEA)

Johnston Has 248-Point Lead

New York, Mar. 2 —(AP)—Lanky Neil Johnston of the Philadelphia Warriors enjoyed a 248-point lead today in his drive to win the National Basketball Association scoring championship for the second straight year.

Johnston, who scored 1,564 points last season, has collected 1,471 for a 23.7 percentage through Sunday games. Easy Ted Macauley of the Boston Celtics is second with 1,223 points.

In third spot is Macauley's teammate Bob Cousy with 1,208, who leads in the assist department with 457.

In the only game played last night the warriors defeated the Milwaukee Hawks 78-73 behind the shooting of Johnston. The 6-8 center scored 33 points in a spectacular shot making show at Collingswood, N. J.

Gordie Howe Is National Leader

Montreal, March 2 (AP) — Right winger Gordie Howe of the Detroit Redwings today held a 10-point lead over Montreal's Maurice Richard in the National Hockey League scoring race as the campaign headed into its final three weeks.

The smooth-skating Howe, seeking his fourth straight title, picked up a goal and two assists last week for a season's total of 68 points. Richard has 58 points. The rocket, however, leads the circuit in goals with 34.

Detroit's Ted Lindsay was credited with three assists and remained in third place with 51 points.

YMCA Cadets Squeeze Through 56 to 52 Win

The YMCA Cadets registered a 56-52 squeaker victory over the Trinity Lutheran Juniors Saturday noon at the YMCA.

Rich Amato and John Woods topped the scorers for the Cadets with 13 and 11 points respectively. R. Dietz was high for the losers with 12. R. Kuhne dropped in 11, G. Brandt and G. Nagele following with 10 apiece.

The Cadets held a 28-27 edge at halftime.

The scores:

Cadets (56)—Williams 2-3-7; Tremper 3-2-8; Woods 4-3-11; Amato 6-1-13; Perry 2-1-5; Gray 2-0-4; Pratt 1-0-2; Williams 1-0-2; Kidney 0-0-0; Massa 0-0-0; Schrowang 0-0-0; Vertetis 2-0-4; Albright 0-0-0.

Newcombe, Black To Do Pitching

Vero Beach, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Either Don Newcombe or Joe Black will be the starting Brooklyn pitcher in the Dodgers' Grapefruit League opener against Milwaukee on Saturday.

Manager Walt Alston also indicated that besides this pair, Tom Lasorda, Pete Wojey and Hamp Coleman will face the Braves this weekend.

But catcher Roy Campenella will miss the next few days of training because of a cold in his back.

Campy, the National League's most valuable player last season, was ordered to bed last night by Dr. Eugene Zorn, the club's physician.

Success of Wrestling Major Reason For Critics' Blasts at Mat Sport

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
(NEA Staff Correspondent)

New York (NEA)—There's a sudden predisposition among the boys who write for magazines to level on wrestlers. We don't quite see it.

First there was Herman Hickman trumpeting his inside dope on the racket that first brought out the ham in him. Most recently, LOOK sardonically described the script the grunt and groan men follow.

The newspapers long ago staked out first rights to the buffeting of wrestlers by relegating them to the dramatic page. Why the sudden rush of squatters' rights among the periodicals?

Primarily, you've got to credit the post-war success of the grappling game because without success there'd be nothing to knock. It's a fact that the contortionists consistently have outdrawn the boys who cover their fists with leather thongs and maul each other according to the Marquis of Queensberry.

Grapplers Pack Them In

Contrast the desultory crowds at the fights each Friday night in Madison Square Garden with the sellout crowds that greet Verne Gagne and his barefoot sidekick from Argentina, Antonino Rocca, every time they trade growls in the same arena.

Among the ethnic groups that populate sports, there are none more delightful than the wrestlers. Lisping Lou Thesz can describe the functions of the deltoid muscle with more aplomb than a street corner vendor.

Satchel Paige may credit his longevity to the fact that he doesn't angry up the blood. But Kola Kweriani, a perfectly bald Russian who ante-dates Old Satch and still performs on the mat, can reduce it to capillaries by virtue of his medical training in old Tiflis.

Anent Hickman, Kweriani has a quaint dismissal term: "He's a bum!"

The knockers of wrestling also tend to overlook the delightful people who populate the tin-ear arenas who have made Jack Brickhouse their Arthur Godfrey.

Who would deny a pacfistic grandma a night off from her knitting needle to release her paranoia with a hail of invective directed at villainous Hans Schmidt? Or, on a particularly uninhibited night, clout him over the head with a folding chair?

At 100 grand a year, Hans isn't kicking.

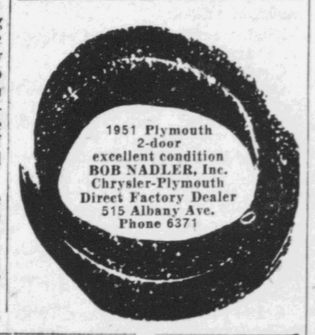

And how about that diverting schism Gagne created among the population of Binghamton. They go for him, young and old, up there. But in the Binghamton fan club dedicated to the idolization of Gagne, the young people didn't like the encroachment of their elders, so huffily formed their own group.

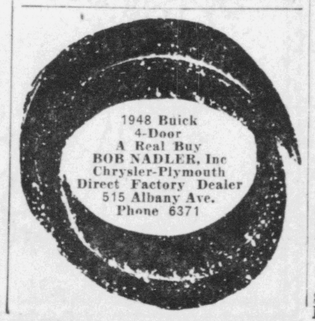

Now we have Verne Gagne Club No. 1 and Verne Gagne Club No. 2.

That even beats Eddie Fisher.

But, you might ask, is it dedicated to the perpetuation of sport?

Now let's not spoil all the fun.

Ted Williams Claims He'll Be Ready for Opening Game

Sarasota, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Ted Williams vowed today he'd fool the doctors who gloomily predicted the Boston Red Sox slugging star would miss the baseball season's opener because of a fractured collarbone.

"Don't bet against my playing in the opening game of the season," Williams advised. "I'll be ready. I'll get over this sooner than they think. I've fooled the doctors before and I'll fool 'em again."

The star 35-year-old outfielder, who astounded the baseball world by hammering .407 in 37 games after his discharge from the marines last July, may have been whistling in the dark. Dr. Russell R. Sullivan, chief surgeon of the orthopedic division of the Boston City Hospital, who set the fracture, and placed the injured left shoulder in a cast, was not so optimistic.

Satisfactory Position

"It was a clean break and X-rays show a quite satisfactory position," he said. "But Ted must be in the cast a minimum of three weeks and cannot swing a bat for about six weeks. It is highly doubtful if he'll be ready for the season's opener."

The Red Sox open their season at Philadelphia Tuesday, April 13, six weeks from today. It is estimated Williams would need at least two weeks of batting practice and conditioning, after his recovery, before he could play in a regular game.

The injury to Williams, the second of a serious nature in less than four years, occurred less than an hour after he arrived at Payne Field for his first spring workout of the season. He had been shagging flies in his customary left field position for 18 minutes when he raced into left center for a sinking liner hit by Hoot Evers. The ball sank sharply and Williams, realizing he couldn't catch up with it, tried to stop. He stumbled and landed heavily on his left shoulder.

Ted arose slowly, obviously in great pain. He grabbed his left shoulder and immediately strode toward the clubhouse behind right field. As he passed teammate Billy Goodman, he grimaced in pain and muttered: "I heard something pop. I think something broke."

X-rays later revealed Williams had suffered a broken collarbone. X-rays will be taken again Wednesday after which Ted will return to his winter home in Miami, Fla.

Charles Replaces Valdez as No. 1

New York, March 2 (AP)—Ezzard Charles has replaced Cuba's Nino Valdes as the No. 1 heavyweight contender, Willie Pep has dropped to the bottom of the featherweight rankings, and Eddie Chavez has taken over No. 1 position among the lightweights.

These were among the major changes made in the March ring magazine ratings, released today by Editor Nat Fleischer.

Valdes lost his top-ranking because of his very close decision over unranked Archie McBride in a Havann bout. The big Cuban dropped to second behind the former heavyweight champion who gets another crack at the heavyweight crown June 17 when he meets Rocky Marciano.

Pep, twice-holder of the featherweight crown, fell all the way from the No. 1 ranking to tenth as a result of being stopped in two rounds by 20-year old Lulu Perez.

The young Brooklyn boxer-puncher advanced from fifth to third among the 126-pounders.

Wallace (Bud) Smith, the Cincinnati clouter who was the No. 1 lightweight challenger, fell to third following his knockout loss to welterweight Joe Miceli. Chavez, of San Jose, took over first and Cuba's Orlando Zulueta moved up from third to second.

Johnny Bratton also got the axe. The Chicago welterweight, drubbed by Johnny Saxton, plummeted from third to tenth among the 147-pounders.

Lemon Is Only Pitcher Holdout

Tucson, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—Bob Lemon, only Cleveland pitcher to win 20 games last year, was the club's only holdout today after pitcher Early Wynn and rookie Bob Prentice reached terms.

Wynn, who had a 17-12 record last season, came to agreement yesterday during a telephone call with General Manager Hank Greenberg.

No salary terms were announced but the big righthander is believed to have gotten around $32,000—about $6,000 less than last year. He won 23 and lost 12 in 1952.

SOME DAY—Youngster looks longingly at Washington Senators' pepper practice at Tinker Field, Orlando, Fla., probably figuring that a few years and a little more height and weight is all he needs to join them. Little League comes first for him, however. (NEA)

Maines Sportsmen and Celtics Win Initial Shaughnessy Games

In the Junior Division of the Recreation League Monday evening, Maines' Sport Shop and the Celtics posted initial wins in the Shaughnessy playoffs.

Maines defeated Espositos 54-37; the Celtics edged the Kingston Preps 48-43.

Ron Marks with 11 points was high man for the winning Maines team, Mike Alecca and Buddy Lucas with 12 points each were high in a losing cause.

In the other contest Bill Fitzgerald was the Celtics leader while Neil Kaiser with 18 was high for the losers.

The same teams oppose each other Wednesday evening at George Washington School in the second game of a best two out of three series.

Wednesday in the Senior Division Shaughnessy, Sicklers Delivery will meet the Newkirk Aces at 8 p. m. The Deliverymen need a victory Wednesday night to win the championship. A Newkirk Aces win would prolong the series one more game. The Senior game will be played at MJM School.

Perpetua Scores 31 As Lakers Win, '73-51

The Boys' Club Lakers scored a 73 to 51 victory over the Salvation Army Friday at the George Washington School with A. Perpetua leading the offensive with his 31 points.

Quarantino followed with 12 and Sammons clicked for 11. D. Robinson was high for the S-A cagers with 25.

The scores:

Lakers (73)—Perpetua 14-3-31; Quarantino 5-2-12; Sammons 5-1-11; Locke 4-08; Garontina 3-1-7; Giunta 1-2-4.

Salvation Army (51)—Fiore 0-0-0; Yerry 0-1-1; Dawn 2-1-5; Robinson 10-5-25; Dorin 1-0-2; Delamater 2-0-4; Reilly 3-1-7; Elhing 1-2-4; Dingman 1-1-3.

Vernon Says He Will Take $35,000

Ordando, Flas., March 2 (AP)—There were signs today—if ever so slight—of an easing in the financial war between the Washington Senator bosses and their prize holdout, Mickey Vernon.

The first base star, who drew down $19,000 last year and won the American League batting crown, now says he'll settle for $35,000 this season instead of the $40,000 he's been asking.

Vice President Calvin Griffith in turn has withdrawn an earlier "final" offer of $25,000. With Vernon tough to trade off at age 35, there are reports Griffith might boost the ante to $27,500 or possibly $30,000.

Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians has batted in 100 or more runs for four consecutive seasons.

No players were elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1940, 1941 and 1943.

Schilling Wins Top Investors Award

Record 1953 sales in this area of face-amount investment certificates and mutual fund shares have won national recognition for Francis J. Schilling, Jr., of Kingston, local production leader for Investors Syndicate Title and Guaranty Company of New York, wholly-owned subsidiary of Investors Diversified Services, Inc., of Minneapolis.

Schilling will be given an award for top sales and service achievements qualifying him for membership in the IDS President's Club, an annual honor roll of the company's leading representatives. He won President's Club membership in competition with the firm's nationwide securities distribution organization of more than 2,000 representatives, who serve more than 600,000 certificate holders and mutual fund share owners from coast to coast, it was announced by Robert W. Purcell, chairman of IDS.

Ted Williams Claims He'll Be Ready for Opening Game

Sarasota, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Ted Williams vowed today he'd fool the doctors who gloomily predicted the Boston Red Sox slugging star would miss the baseball season's opener because of a fractured collarbone.

"Don't bet against my playing in the opening game of the season," Williams advised. "I'll be ready. I'll get over this sooner than they think. I've fooled the doctors before and I'll fool 'em again."

The star 35-year-old outfielder, who astounded the baseball world by hammering .407 in 37 games after his discharge from the marines last July, may have been whistling in the dark. Dr. Russell R. Sullivan, chief surgeon of the orthopedic division of the Boston City Hospital, who set the fracture, and placed the injured left shoulder in a cast, was not so optimistic.

Satisfactory Position

"It was a clean break and X-rays show a quite satisfactory position," he said. "But Ted must be in the cast a minimum of three weeks and cannot swing a bat for about six weeks. It is highly doubtful if he'll be ready for the season's opener."

The Red Sox open their season at Philadelphia Tuesday, April 13, six weeks from today. It is estimated Williams would need at least two weeks of batting practice and conditioning, after his recovery, before he could play in a regular game.

The injury to Williams, the second of a serious nature in less than four years, occurred less than an hour after he arrived at Payne Field for his first spring workout of the season. He had been shagging flies in his customary left field position for 18 minutes when he raced into left center for a sinking liner hit by Hoot Evers. The ball sank sharply and Williams, realizing he couldn't catch up with it, tried to stop. He stumbled and landed heavily on his left shoulder.

Ted arose slowly, obviously in great pain. He grabbed his left shoulder and immediately strode toward the clubhouse behind right field. As he passed teammate Billy Goodman, he grimaced in pain and muttered: "I heard something pop. I think something broke."

X-rays later revealed Williams had suffered a broken collarbone. X-rays will be taken again Wednesday after which Ted will return to his winter home in Miami, Fla.

Charles Replaces Valdez as No. 1

New York, March 2 (AP)—Ezzard Charles has replaced Cuba's Nino Valdes as the No. 1 heavyweight contender, Willie Pep has dropped to the bottom of the featherweight rankings, and Eddie Chavez has taken over No. 1 position among the lightweights.

These were among the major changes made in the March ring magazine ratings, released today by Editor Nat Fleischer.

Valdes lost his top-ranking because of his very close decision over unranked Archie McBride in a Havann bout. The big Cuban dropped to second behind the former heavyweight champion who gets another crack at the heavyweight crown June 17 when he meets Rocky Marciano.

Pep, twice-holder of the featherweight crown, fell all the way from the No. 1 ranking to tenth as a result of being stopped in two rounds by 20-year old Lulu Perez.

The young Brooklyn boxer-puncher advanced from fifth to third among the 126-pounders.

Wallace (Bud) Smith, the Cincinnati clouter who was the No. 1 lightweight challenger, fell to third following his knockout loss to welterweight Joe Miceli. Chavez, of San Jose, took over first and Cuba's Orlando Zulueta moved up from third to second.

Johnny Bratton also got the axe. The Chicago welterweight, drubbed by Johnny Saxton, plummeted from third to tenth among the 147-pounders.

Lemon Is Only Pitcher Holdout

Tucson, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—Bob Lemon, only Cleveland pitcher to win 20 games last year, was the club's only holdout today after pitcher Early Wynn and rookie Bob Prentice reached terms.

Wynn, who had a 17-12 record last season, came to agreement yesterday during a telephone call with General Manager Hank Greenberg.

No salary terms were announced but the big righthander is believed to have gotten around $32,000—about $6,000 less than last year. He won 23 and lost 12 in 1952.

Maines Sportsmen and Celtics Win Initial Shaughnessy Games

In the Junior Division of the Recreation League Monday evening, Maines' Sport Shop and the Celtics posted initial wins in the Shaughnessy playoffs.

Maines defeated Espositos 54-37; the Celtics edged the Kingston Preps 48-43.

Ron Marks with 11 points was high man for the winning Maines team, Mike Alecca and Buddy Lucas with 12 points each were high in a losing cause.

In the other contest Bill Fitzgerald was the Celtics leader while Neil Kaiser with 18 was high for the losers.

The same teams oppose each other Wednesday evening at George Washington School in the second game of a best two out of three series.

Wednesday in the Senior Division Shaughnessy, Sicklers Delivery will meet the Newkirk Aces at 8 p. m. The Deliverymen need a victory Wednesday night to win the championship. A Newkirk Aces win would prolong the series one more game. The Senior game will be played at MJM School.

Perpetua Scores 31 As Lakers Win, '73-51

The Boys' Club Lakers scored a 73 to 51 victory over the Salvation Army Friday at the George Washington School with A. Perpetua leading the offensive with his 31 points.

Perpetua sliced the cords for 14 fields and added three charity stripe tosses.

Quarantino followed with 12 and Sammons clicked for 11. D. Robinson was high for the S-A cagers with 25.

The scores:

Lakers (73)—Perpetua 14-3-31; Quarantino 5-2-12; Sammons 5-1-11; Locke 4-08; Garontina 3-1-7; Giunta 1-2-4.

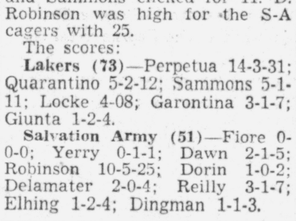

Salvation Army (51)—Fiore 0-0-0; Yerry 0-1-1; Dawn 2-1-5; Robinson 10-5-25; Dorin 1-0-2; Delamater 2-0-4; Reilly 3-1-7; Elhing 1-2-4; Dingman 1-1-3.

Vernon Says He Will Take $35,000

Ordando, Flas., March 2 (AP)—There were signs today—if ever so slight—of an easing in the financial war between the Washington Senator bosses and their prize holdout, Mickey Vernon.

The first base star, who drew down $19,000 last year and won the American League batting crown, now says he'll settle for $35,000 this season instead of the $40,000 he's been asking.

Vice President Calvin Griffith in turn has withdrawn an earlier "final" offer of $25,000. With Vernon tough to trade off at age 35, there are reports Griffith might boost the ante to $27,500 or possibly $30,000.

Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians has batted in 100 or more runs for four consecutive seasons. No players were elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1940, 1941 and 1943.

Boy Scout News

Cub Pack 7

The regularly monthly meeting of Cub Pack 7 was held at St. John's Church Hall on Albany avenue last Monday evening. It consisted of a blue and gold dinner with about 130 persons attending.

George Dennis, Scout executive of the Rip Van Winkle Council, spoke briefly.

John Kelly, Jay Herrinton, James Morris and Carl A. Wiegert, Jr., presented the opening ceremony. William C. Wiegert was inducted into the pack as a bobcat and awards were made.

Schilling Wins Top Investors Award

Record 1953 sales in this area of face-amount investment certificates and mutual fund shares have won national recognition for Francis J. Schilling, Jr., of Kingston, local production leader for Investors Syndicate Title and Guaranty Company of New York, wholly-owned subsidiary of Investors Diversified Services, Inc., of Minneapolis.

Schilling will be given an award for top sales and service achievements qualifying him for membership in the IDS President's Club, an annual honor roll of the company's leading representatives. He won President's Club membership in competition with the firm's nationwide securities distribution organization of more than 2,000 representatives, who serve more than 600,000 certificate holders and mutual fund share owners from coast to coast, it was announced by Robert W. Purcell, chairman of IDS.

Family Garage

Oakland, Calif. (AP)—A familiar motif has been carried out on the double garage of a home in the Lake Temescal area. One sign reads "His," the other "Hers."

Rosendale

Rosendale, March 2 — A card party will be held at Rosendale Grange Hall, Wednesday, starting at 8:30 p. m. Refreshments will be served after the game. The public is invited to attend.

Rosendale-Tillson Post, American Legion, will hold its regular monthly meeting at the new home opposite Sportsmen's Park on Thursday at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hill have returned home after three weeks in Florida.

Try-outs for the Ted Mack amateur show will be held at St. Peter's School Hall Tuesday, March 9, starting at 8 p. m., sponsored by Rosendale Publicity Association. The winning act, or possibly more, will have a chance to compete with other local show winners at the finals in Kingston on March 17.

Couples Club Has Plans For Dance April 23

Saugerties, March 2 — The Young Couples Club of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of West Camp have scheduled a Spring Dance for Friday, April 23. Square and round dancing will be featured. The committee will be headed by Mrs. Daniel Wynne and will include Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Edgar Wilhelm, Albert J. Cawein and Foster Winchell, Jr.

Arrangements for the dance were discussed at the regular meeting of the youth group held on Saturday evening at the West Camp parish hall. The meeting was presided over by Vernon Asher, president of the organization who outlined the various programs in which the couples will participate.

A new financial arrangement was set up and brought about the appointments of Werner Liesendahl and Albert Cawein as trustees. Mr. Liesendahl was also designated as assistant treasurer to handle the collection of dues in the absence of the treasurer.

The groups participation in the annual church fair was discussed and the organization voted to increase the extent of their activity in this annual affair. Foster Winchell Jr., was appointed chairman of the couples church fair committee and Mr. Liesendahl will act as treasurer for the committee

A membership committee was also appointed and includes Mrs. Joseph Dengler, Mrs. Albert Cawein and Mrs. Foster Winchell, Jr. Two new member couples were admitted at this meeting.

Herman C. Knaust and Foster Winchell, Jr., were appointed to head the program committee for March. The refreshment committee appointed for that meeting is headed by Mrs. Edgar Wilhelm and Mrs. William Lasher Discussions were held regarding the group's Fall program which will most likely include a musical comedy production. The committee in charge of preliminary arrangements is Mrs. Herman C. Knaust and Albert Cawein.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the committee which included Mrs. Vernon Asher, Mrs. Herman C. Knaust, Mrs. Albert Cawein and Mrs. Robert Moon.

VFW Receives Fourth Freedom Award

Saugerties, March 1—The Saugerties Memorial Post No. 5034, Veterans of Foreign Wars has just received an announcement from National Headquarters that the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States received the coveted fourth award from Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

This award places the VFW on the honor list of the Foundation with the limited Distinguished Service Award bestowed on four time winners, and presentation of the Distinguished Service Scroll, the highest recognition of the Foundation.

Freedoms Foundation each year at this time gives recognition to the national organization which throughout the year does the most toward promoting patriotism and Americanism in the United States. Judging is based on scrap books submitted by the various elements in each organization showing through publicity, pictures, and various functions sponsored the extent of the programs conducted.

The national organization of the VFW on three separate occasions has received the award on the strength of their sponsorship of the Loyalty Day program. The announcement this past week confirmed that the VFW again received the award for their excellent Loyalty Day program of 1953.

In light of this announcement the Saugerties Memorial Post is justly proud to have played such a major part in last year's Loyalty Day Celebration.

Only last month the local VFW unit received a letter from Leland P. Lovette, director of public relations of the national organization in which he stated, "you are quite right that your 1953 scrap book bespoke your success and should we again win an award from Fredoms Foundation, winners to be announced in February, we shall feel that your exhibit played a large part."

Lovette on a previous occasion wrote to the local post praising their participation when he said, "Your scrapbook is the most outstanding received from any post at any time, with the care and thought given to the chronological arrangement of clippings and the fine pictures of your celebration.

"Also, you are to be congratulated on the cooperation of your Auxiliary and I should particularly like to commend you for the fine Souvenir Program." This letter from national headquarters referred to the 1953 Loyalty Day scrap book submitted which played a major role in crediting the award to the VFW for the fourth time.

Donald C. Rice and Bernard E. McCutcheon will serve as co-chairmen for this year's Loyalty Day observance which will be held on Saturday, May 1. Other committee heads include Richard Hartman, journal chairman; Mrs. John Wood, essay contest chairman; and Mrs. John Prendergast, refreshment committee chairman.

The proceeds of the Loyalty Day Journal will be used to cover the overall expenses of the local observance.

Follows Father as Navy Man

William Francis Tierney of 16 Clarendon avenue, Kingston, is following the footsteps of his father who served in the United States Navy during World War 2, in the postal service. Left to right are William Francis Tierney, who has completed his training at Bainbridge, Md., and will report to the Great Lakes Inter-Communications School on completion of his recruit leave this week. Tierney enlisted in the Navy on November 4, last; O.M. 1/c Ralph Keeler, who recruited Tierney for service and Arnold Tierney, veteran of World War 2, a member of the Kingston post office staff and Chief Thomas Dowd, who is leaving next week for duty at sea. In some of the categories there is now no waiting list and young men interested in a navy career may receive information regarding these categories by contacting the U. S. Navy Recruiting officer. (Freeman photo)

Saugerties Board Plans Meeting On Centralization

Session Is Scheduled for Thursday to Act on Petition to File in April

The Saugerties village Board of Education Monday night voted to invite trustees and representatives of town school districts to a meeting Thursday evening to discuss centralization.

Action of the board followed its adoption of a report by a fact-finding and advisory committee of 21 citizens, in which centralization was proposed as the "one feasible answer" to the problem faced by the Saugerties schools in view of expected expansion in the area.

Richard Overbagh, chairman of the citizens' committee, said today that at Thursday's meeting steps will be taken to start a petition for centralization. The committee has been informed by the State Education Department that if the petition be filed early, the state can act on it in April, he said.

Report Adopted

The Saugerties School District No. 10 board of education at its regular meeting Monday night adopted the advisory committee's report in full. The district comprises the village of Saugerties and a small amount of adjoining territory.

The committee report termed the present Saugerties Public School housing "grossly inadequate," and contended that its study indicated present bliildings could not be added to and a "purely village school" could not be constructed for a number of reasons.

Reasons Listed

These reasons, listed on the report, included the following:

1. The playground is already inadequate.
2. The entire cost of additions or any other proposed construction would be borne entirely by the taxpayers of District 10.
3. Any proposed additions would require state approval "and from consultation with state officials, it appears that such approval would not be given."
4. The district could not spend more than 10 per cent of its true valuation within the district.
5. If the rural areas later provided housing for their own pupils, removing from the village school the large percentage of high school pupils who come from rural areas, "we would not have enough students or funds to maintain our present educational standards" and "we would be left with empty classrooms to pay for."

Recommend Action

Under the centralization plan, the committee pointed out, the district would receive 12 per cent more state aid per pupil attendance, and will receive "substantian state aid" in any building program.

The committee recommended immediate action on centralization, pointing out that "under the state aid program, we need the rural areas and the rural areas need us."

"None of the other alternatives open to us at this time, namely local enlargement or refusal to accept rural pupils, offers a desirable solution," the report stated.

Wagner Takes Slap At Dewey Over Finance Remarks

New York, March 2 (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner today criticized Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's reports dealing with the city's fiscal program, characterizing many of the governor's conclusions as "double talk" and "discriminatory."

Wagner charged that facts were concealed from the Dewey report, and asked if Albany was "playing ball with 'big business'."

The governor this week released the last of a series of three reports made by Deweys fiscal advisers analyzing the city's fiscal program which Wagner submitted to the governor and Legislature last December.

From the reports it was apparent the city would be able to raise only about half of the 145 million dollars needed to balance the budget for the next fiscal year, and this from tax sources only.

The mayor stated "for the sake of the record, for the guidance of future state and city administrations, we will detail the facts, in the next few days, correcting each and every inaccurate statement or half-truth which we know to exist."

In the mayor's first reply to the governor's analytical reports, he criticized 13 general points contained in the reports.

Highlighted in the criticism was the point that the state has rejected the city's request for a realistic set of business taxes.

"Our information," the mayor said, "is that we could have had this tax bill if we had been willing to eliminate the banks and insurance companies from the scope. Was this program rejected on its merits or because Albany was playing ball with 'big business?'"

Port Ewen

There will be a special meeting Wednesday of the Town Board of Town of Esopus at Town Office, Port Ewen, at 8 p. m. today for the purpose of acting on street-opening ordinances.

Brownie Troop No. 19 will meet at Presentation Parish Hall Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. Mrs. John Donnelly will be leader, with Mrs. John Henry as co-leader.

Newest Atom Tests Are Started in Mid-Pacific

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Screened from the world by a tight cordon of navy ships and an umbrella of warplanes, the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) has started its newest series of atomic explosives tests in the mid-Pacific.

Before these tests are through, American scientists may touch off a hydrogen blast, perhaps bigger than the one that ripped a mile-wide hole in the ocean bed 18 months ago.

Signs that the tests were imminent have been building up for weeks as U. S. authorities tightened security around the AEC's proving ground in the Marshall Islands.

Yesterday, AEC confirmed that the tests had begun. The commission issued a scanty four-line announcement that "joint task force seven has detonated an atomic device at the AEC's Pacific proving ground...."

Nothing was said of the results, nor was any other information furnished beyond the fact that this was the "first in a series of tests."

Nearly two months ago, the AEC and the Defense Department announced that the tests would "carry out a further phase of a continuing series of weapons tests of all categories."

President Asks Prayer

Washington, March 2 (AP)—President Eisenhower today called on "all men of goodwill" to join Friday in observance of a World Day of Prayer "to find the way toward the goal of peace." The President's appeal was recorded for television and radio. The day of prayer is sponsored by the United Church Women of the National Council of the Church of Christ in the United States.

Corporation Tax Will Be Continued

Washington, March 2 (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee voted 22-2 today to continue the present corporation income tax for one more year, and wipe out a two billion dollar reduction scheduled automatically under present law for April 1.

Only two Democrats — Reps. Mills of Arkansas and Gregory of Kentucky — voted against the move, strongly urged by President Eisenhower.

The committee decided to put the corporate rate into a general 800-page bill overhauling almost all of the nation's tax laws.

At the same time it decided to take up tomorrow the question of excise tax rates.

Under present law, a number of cuts are scheduled April 1 in the excise rates, sometimes called sales taxes.

The top corporation income tax rate, now 52 per cent, is scheduled to drop automatically to 47 per cent on April 1. President Eisenhower has urged a one-year extension of the present rate, to help reduce the federal deficit.

At one time the President's proposal had stirred strong opposition, including promises of a fight by Rep. Daniel A. Reed, (R-N.Y.), doughty ways and means chairman. Also, there was widespread talk of a compromise at a 50 per cent corporation income tax rate.

Committee members said much of the opposition has melted, however, because of other tax cuts in effect or planned this year, notably business benefits provided in the general tax revision measure. If approved by the House and Senate, it would reduce revenues from individuals and business by about $1,300,000,000 the first year and more later, chiefly through more liberal deductions.

Previously, Republican committee members had ruled out any effort to deal with major tax rates in the revision bill. The evident decision to shift tactics came at a private caucus late yesterday, after a series of meetings involving Republican congressional leaders, President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Woman Rescued By French Ships

San Diego, Calif., March 2 (AP)—A French ship rescued a 46-year-old woman last night, ending her five-day fight against the sea in a leaking sailboat.

Mrs. Vera Olive Rideout, 46, who had set out from San Pedro Feb. 20 on an attempt to sail around the world alone, was picked up about 15 miles south of San Diego by the French training vesel Maurier Christmas. She was transferred to a coast guard cutter, returned here and hospitalized for treatment of a dislocated spinal disc.

Her 25-foot sailboat sprang a leak off Guadalupe Island south of here. "Then I threw my back out when the mizzen boom hit me," she told newsmen.

Couples Club Has Plans For Dance April 23

Saugerties, March 2 — The Young Couples Club of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of West Camp have scheduled a Spring Dance for Friday, April 23. Square and round dancing will be featured. The committee will be headed by Mrs. Daniel Wynne and will include Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Edgar Wilhelm, Albert J. Cawein and Foster Winchell, Jr.

Arrangements for the dance were discussed at the regular meeting of the youth group held on Saturday evening at the West Camp parish hall. The meeting was presided over by Vernon Asher, president of the organization who outlined the various programs in which the couples will participate.

A new financial arrangement was set up and brought about the appointments of Werner Liesendahl and Albert Cawein as trustees. Mr. Liesendahl was also designated as assistant treasurer to handle the collection of dues in the absence of the treasurer.

The groups participation in the annual church fair was discussed and the organization voted to increase the extent of their activity in this annual affair. Foster Winchell Jr., was appointed chairman of the couples church fair committee and Mr. Liesendahl will act as treasurer for the committee

A membership committee was also appointed and includes Mrs. Joseph Dengler, Mrs. Albert Cawein and Mrs. Foster Winchell, Jr. Two new member couples were admitted at this meeting.

Herman C. Knaust and Foster Winchell, Jr., were appointed to head the program committee for March. The refreshment committee appointed for that meeting is headed by Mrs. Edgar Wilhelm and Mrs. William Lasher Discussions were held regarding the group's Fall program which will most likely include a musical comedy production. The committee in charge of preliminary arrangements is Mrs. Herman C. Knaust and Albert Cawein.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the committee which included Mrs. Vernon Asher, Mrs. Herman C. Knaust, Mrs. Albert Cawein and Mrs. Robert Moon.

VFW Receives Fourth Freedom Award

Saugerties, March 1—The Saugerties Memorial Post No. 5034, Veterans of Foreign Wars has just received an announcement from National Headquarters that the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States received the coveted fourth award from Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

This award places the VFW on the honor list of the Foundation with the limited Distinguished Service Award bestowed on four time winners, and presentation of the Distinguished Service Scroll, the highest recognition of the Foundation.

Freedoms Foundation each year at this time gives recognition to the national organization which throughout the year does the most toward promoting patriotism and Americanism in the United States. Judging is based on scrap books submitted by the various elements in each organization showing through publicity, pictures, and various functions sponsored the extent of the programs conducted.

The national organization of the VFW on three separate occasions has received the award on the strength of their sponsorship of the Loyalty Day program. The announcement this past week confirmed that the VFW again received the award for their excellent Loyalty Day program of 1953.

In light of this announcement the Saugerties Memorial Post is justly proud to have played such a major part in last year's Loyalty Day Celebration.

Only last month the local VFW unit received a letter from Leland P. Lovette, director of public relations of the national organization in which he stated, "you are quite right that your 1953 scrap book bespoke your success and should we again win an award from Fredoms Foundation, winners to be announced in February, we shall feel that your exhibit played a large part."

Lovette on a previous occasion wrote to the local post praising their participation when he said, "Your scrapbook is the most outstanding received from any post at any time, with the care and thought given to the chronological arrangement of clippings and the fine pictures of your celebration.

"Also, you are to be congratulated on the cooperation of your Auxiliary and I should particularly like to commend you for the fine Souvenir Program." This letter from national headquarters referred to the 1953 Loyalty Day scrap book submitted which played a major role in crediting the award to the VFW for the fourth time.

Donald C. Rice and Bernard E. McCutcheon will serve as co-chairmen for this year's Loyalty Day observance which will be held on Saturday, May 1. Other committee heads include Richard Hartman, journal chairman; Mrs. John Wood, essay contest chairman; and Mrs. John Prendergast, refreshment committee chairman.

The proceeds of the Loyalty Day Journal will be used to cover the overall expenses of the local observance.

Wagner Takes Slap At Dewey Over Finance Remarks

Woman Rescued By French Ships

San Diego, Calif., March 2 (AP)—A French ship rescued a 46-year-old woman last night, ending her five-day fight against the sea in a leaking sailboat.

Mrs. Vera Olive Rideout, 46, who had set out from San Pedro Feb. 20 on an attempt to sail around the world alone, was picked up about 15 miles south of San Diego by the French training vesel Maurier Christmas. She was transferred to a coast guard cutter, returned here and hospitalized for treatment of a dislocated spinal disc.

Her 25-foot sailboat sprang a leak off Guadalupe Island south of here. "Then I threw my back out when the mizzen boom hit me," she told newsmen.

Don't Poison Baby

A new non-toxic, non-poisonous odorless paint is recommended especially for repainting such items as cribs, toys, playpens, etc. Colors include Peter Pan Pink, Little Boy Blue, Cinderella White, Elf Green. It can be washed with soap and water.

to Accord, N. Y., where it was stored in a barn about three miles removed from the main highway on the premises of Mrs. Louise Guardi." Arrangements for storing of the load at this location, the release said, "were made by Benny Benson, who led Caputo's truck to the upstate New York drop."

Early on the morning of Jan 9, Scheidt said, "on the basis of search warrants," agents of the FBI with sheriff's men "entered this barn and recovered about $20,000 worth of the loot." They were arrested on charges of theft from interstate shipment.

New Plant Is Dedicated

The Neversink Hydroelectric Plant at Grahamsville, which was dedicated today by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation. The building stands in a field with no water in sight. New York reservoir water flows almost six miles through a tunnel to furnish water power for the generation of electricity at the plant.

The 25,000 kilowatt generator at Central Hudson's Neversink Hydroelectric Plant. Directly beneath the generator is the turbine which is propelled by Neversink reservoir water. This water eventually helps fill the fresh water needs of New York's 8,000,000 residents.

Central Hudson Dedicates New Plant

an intervening mountain, took about two years. At the deepest point, the tunnel is 1,100 feet below the highest point of the mountain. Water flows through the tunnel to the Neversink Plant at the rate of 10 feet per second—twice as fast as a man can walk.

The agreement to give Central Hudson use of the New York city water was worked out to compensate the utility company for the loss of certain water rights in the city's expansion of its huge Delaware water supply system. Through condemnation proceedings, New York city acquired the right to divert the flow of Rondout Creek near the former village of Lackawack, about nine miles southeast of Grahamsville.

By so doing, practically all of the streamflow at Central Hudson's Honk Falls plant and a good portion of the usable water at High Falls was lost.

In 1948 an agreement was reached between Central Hudson and the city to compensate the company for the loss of its water rights on the Rondout. Through negotiation based on engineering studies pertaining to the value of the lost water power and the value of the water power available through the Neversink tunnel, an agreement was reached to pay the company in water power.

By terms of the agreement, Central Hudson is to receive use of 160 billion cubic feet of water over a period of 50 years, or 3.2 billion cubic feet of water per year. It is estimated the company will pay upwards of $50,000 for the use of excess water each year. Besides this sum, New York city will receive free electric power to operate certain control works and the shafts of the Delaware water system located in Central Hudson's area.

The new power plant, it is estimated, will have an average annual output of 48,000,000 kilowatthours. The tunnel and turbine are designed so that the plant can operate at full capacity during periods of peak electrical demand. Provision has been made that water may bypass the plant whenever the turbine is shut down and water is required by New York city.

Acker pointed out that the addition of the Neversink Plant to the company one step nearer the objective of self-sufficiency in the generation of all its electrical requirements. He said that the scheduled completion of a second 60,000 kilowatt unit at Danskammer Point Steam Station this fall will put Central Hudson in the position of generating an estimated 98 per cent of its customers' requirements in 1955.

This, Acker said, is "in sharp contrast to the 13 per cent which the company generated in its own plants in 1951." Last year Central Hudson generated 75 per cent of its requirements in its own system and purchased the balance from neighboring utility companies.

He noted that the size and timing of a third unit at the Danskammer Point Steam Station is being studied in anticipation of future electric power requirements of the Central Hudson Valley. "In the best interests of its customers the company is keeping its program of future expansion of electric generating capacity sufficiently flexible so that it may continue to secure its power supply requirements from the most economical available source," he stated.

Delivers Dedication Speech

Kerhonkson Man Impounds Animals And Is Fined $25

The arrest was made after Ray Winne, special agent, and A. J. P. Seitz, president, of the Ulster County SPCA after they investigated reports that the animals had been left in the apartment with no provisions for feeding and caring for them.

The animals were placed in the care of Dr. Gilbert Hoppenstedt, veterinarian, to await trial, the SPCA's own shelter being under construction. Justice Poppel directed that the dog and one cat could be returned to Constable, but the other six cats were given to an area farmer.

Mrs. Peress . . .

terrupted Mrs. Katzman's report.

When she finished, there were shouts of:

"Why didn't she sign the loyalty oath?"

A former P-TA director had proposed such an oath several months ago for all officials of the association. Some of the group's officers had signed such oaths. Mrs. Peress and others had refused to do so.

Mrs. Peress, before attempting to read a typed statement, said:

"I am rather cynical about all this. I believe you have already made up your minds. I am in the position of being condemned before a trial."

Storm Interferes With Local Drive

A rainstorm accompanied by winds up to 42 miles an hour caused some minor scattered damage in the county and interfered with a scheduled one-night Red Cross fund drive in the city.

Rainfall totals varied greatly in various sections of the county. At Kingston, the city engineer's department recorded a total of .35 inches. New York city's Department of Water Supply reported a total of 1.07 inches in the 24-hour period at Brown Station, Ashokan Reservoir, and .46 inches at Schoharie.

Gusts as high as 42 miles an hour were observed at the city engineering department's wind guage, late Monday afternoon and may have reached higher velocities during the evening.

Limbs were reported down in several sections, but state police and the sheriff's office had no reports of serious damage or roadblocks this morning.

Austin Boyd, city chairman for the American Red Cross fund appeal, said many of the workers were unable to complete their planned house-to-house canvass in Kingston wards Monday night, and the drive will be continued tonight. He asked that residents who were not contacted last night have their porch lights on tonight.

Anyway, He Walked

Portland, Ore. (AP)—The jaywalking, pedestrian had to produce identification to keep out of the clink when he gave the traffic cop his name. "Jaywalk" was what it sounded like, but "J. Walk" was what he said. So John Roosevelt Walk, head of a food products firm here, went to traffic school where his name convulsed the assembled jaywalkers.

The 25,000 kilowatt generator at Central Hudson's Neversink Hydroelectric Plant. Directly beneath the generator is the turbine which is propelled by Neversink reservoir water. This water eventually helps fill the fresh water needs of New York's 8,000,000 residents.

Central Hudson Dedicates New Plant

an intervening mountain, took about two years. At the deepest point, the tunnel is 1,100 feet below the highest point of the mountain. Water flows through the tunnel to the Neversink Plant at the rate of 10 feet per second—twice as fast as a man can walk.

The agreement to give Central Hudson use of the New York city water was worked out to compensate the utility company for the loss of certain water rights in the city's expansion of its huge Delaware water supply system. Through condemnation proceedings, New York city acquired the right to divert the flow of Rondout Creek near the former village of Lackawack, about nine miles southeast of Grahamsville.

By so doing, practically all of the streamflow at Central Hudson's Honk Falls plant and a good portion of the usable water at High Falls was lost.

In 1948 an agreement was reached between Central Hudson and the city to compensate the company for the loss of its water rights on the Rondout. Through negotiation based on engineering studies pertaining to the value of the lost water power and the value of the water power available through the Neversink tunnel, an agreement was reached to pay the company in water power.

By terms of the agreement, Central Hudson is to receive use of 160 billion cubic feet of water over a period of 50 years, or 3.2 billion cubic feet of water per year. It is estimated the company will pay upwards of $50,000 for the use of excess water each year. Besides this sum, New York city will receive free electric power to operate certain control works and the shafts of the Delaware water system located in Central Hudson's area.

The new power plant, it is estimated, will have an average annual output of 48,000,000 kilowatthours. The tunnel and turbine are designed so that the plant can operate at full capacity during periods of peak electrical demand. Provision has been made that water may bypass the plant whenever the turbine is shut down and water is required by New York city.

Acker pointed out that the addition of the Neversink Plant to the Central Hudson System moved the company one step nearer the objective of self-sufficiency in the generation of all its electrical requirements. He said that the scheduled completion of a second 60,000 kilowatt unit at Danskammer Point Steam Station this fall will put Central Hudson in the position of generating an estimated 98 per cent of its customers' requirements in 1955.

This, Acker said, is "in sharp contrast to the 13 per cent which the company generated in its own plants in 1951." Last year Central Hudson generated 75 per cent of its requirements in its own system and purchased the balance from neighboring utility companies.

He noted that the size and timing of a third unit at the Danskammer Point Steam Station is being studied in anticipation of future electric power requirements of the Central Hudson Valley. "In the best interests of its customers the company is keeping its program of future expansion of electric generating capacity sufficiently flexible so that it may continue to secure its power supply requirements from the most economical available source," he stated.

Deeds Recorded

The following deeds have been filed recently in the office of the county clerk:

Frank Pettoruto and wife of Wallkill to Anthony Gasparello and another of Brooklyn, land in town Plattekill. Consideration $1.

Frank Pettoruno and wife of Wallkill to Filippo Palmeri and wife of Brooklyn, land in town Plattekill. Consideration $1.

John S. Geary and wife of Wawarsing to Rudolph Messlin and wife of Wawarsing, land in town Wawarsing. Consideration $1.

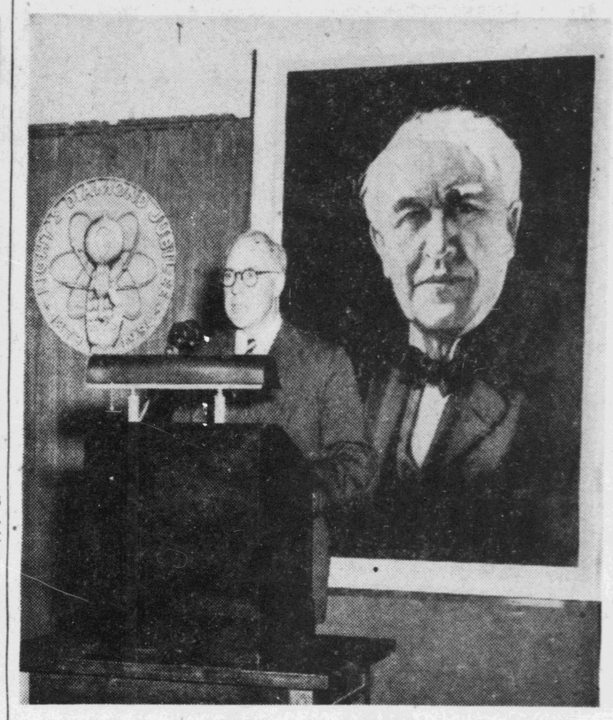

John J. O'Reilly of Kingston to Rose M. White of Kingston, land on Orchard street, Kingston. Consideration $1.

Merton E. Jenkins of town Plattekill to Dolores Negron of New York, land in town Plattekill. Consideration $10.

The regular meeting of the A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Co., Inc., will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday. All members are requested to be present.

Delivers Dedication Speech

Kerhonkson Man Impounds Animals And Is Fined $25

Accused of leaving his dog and seven cats locked in his second floor apartment in Kerhonkson when he left for a week's vacation, William Constable was fined $25 and costs when he was arraigned on Monday before Justice of the Peace Herbert Poppel on complaint filed by the Ulster County SPCA.

Constable pleaded guilty to a charge of violating Section 187 of the Penal Law, dealing with failure to provide proper food and drink to impounded animals.

The arrest was made after Ray Winne, special agent, and A. J. P. Seitz, president, of the Ulster County SPCA after they investigated reports that the animals had been left in the apartment with no provisions for feeding and caring for them.

The animals were placed in the care of Dr. Gilbert Hoppenstedt, veterinarian, to await trial, the SPCA's own shelter being under construction. Justice Poppel directed that the dog and one cat could be returned to Constable, but the other six cats were given to an area farmer.

Mrs. Peress . . .

terrupted Mrs. Katzman's report.

When she finished, there were shouts of:

"Why didn't she sign the loyalty oath?"

A former P-TA director had proposed such an oath several months ago for all officials of the association. Some of the group's officers had signed such oaths. Mrs. Peress and others had refused to do so.

Mrs. Peress, before attempting to read a typed statement, said:

"I am rather cynical about all this. I believe you have already made up your minds. I am in the position of being condemned before a trial."

Storm Interferes With Local Drive

A rainstorm accompanied by winds up to 42 miles an hour caused some minor scattered damage in the county and interfered with a scheduled one-night Red Cross fund drive in the city.

Rainfall totals varied greatly in various sections of the county. At Kingston, the city engineer's department recorded a total of .35 inches. New York city's Department of Water Supply reported a total of 1.07 inches in the 24-hour period at Brown Station, Ashokan Reservoir, and .46 inches at Schoharie.

Gusts as high as 42 miles an hour were observed at the city engineering department's wind guage, late Monday afternoon and may have reached higher velocities during the evening.

Limbs were reported down in several sections, but state police and the sheriff's office had no reports of serious damage or roadblocks this morning.

Austin Boyd, city chairman for the American Red Cross fund appeal, said many of the workers were unable to complete their planned house-to-house canvass in Kingston wards Monday night, and the drive will be continued tonight. He asked that residents who were not contacted last night have their porch lights on tonight.

Anyway, He Walked

Portland, Ore. (AP)—The jaywalking, pedestrian had to produce identification to keep out of the clink when he gave the traffic cop his name. "Jaywalk" was what it sounded like, but "J. Walk" was what he said. So John Roosevelt Walk, head of a food products firm here, went to traffic school where his name convulsed the assembled jaywalkers.
